

GRADUAL • Trinity Sunday, EF (Dan 3: 55-56) Blessed art thou, Lord, that lookest down into the depths and sittest above the Cherubim. Vs. Blessed art thou, Lord, in the firmament of heaven, and ever worthy of praise. ALLELUIA, ALLELUIA. (Dan 3: 52) Vs. Blessed art thou, Lord, God of our fathers, and ever worthy of praise. ALLELUIA.

FSSP in Los Angeles • <http://fssp.la> Possible Starting Pitch = F

VIII

B Ene-dí-ctus es, Dómi-ne, qui intu-éris aby-ssos, et Blessed-Thou art, O-Lord, Who beholdest the-depths &

sede-s super Ché-ru-bim. Vs. Bene-dí-ctus es, Dómi-ne, sittest above the-Cherubim. Blessed-Thou art, O-Lord,

in firmamé-nto caeli, et laudá-bi-lis in saé-cula.
in the-firmament-of heaven, & worthy-of-praise forever.

VIII

A L-le-lú-ia. * ij.

Vs. Bene-dí-ctus es, Dómi-ne, De-us pa-trum no-stró-rum,
Blessed-Thou art, O-Lord God-of the-fathers of-us,

et laudá-bi-lis in saé-cula.
& worthy-of-praise forever.

VIII

A L-le-lú-ia. This time, "Alleluia" is sung straight through.