

OFFERTORY CHANT Ps 16 (15): 7-8

BENEDÍCAM Dóminum, I WILL bless the Lord who has qui tríbuit mihi intelléctum: I given me understanding. I have providébam Deum in conspéctu I set the Lord always in my sight; meo semper: quóniam a dextris est I since he is at my right hand, I shall mihi, ne commóvear. I not be shaken.

COMMUNION CHANT Ps 27 (26): 4

UNAM pétii a Dómino, hanc ONE thing have I asked of the requíram: ut inhábitem in O Lord, this will I seek after:
 domo Dómini ómnibus diébus O that I may dwell in the house of vitæ meæ. O the Lord all the days of my life.

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

YEAR B

ENTRANCE CHANT Ps 27 (26): 7, 9, 1

EXÁUDI, Dómine, vo- HEARKEN, O Lord, unto my cem meam, qua clamávi H voice which has called out ad te: adiútor meus esto, H to you; deign to be my help, for-ne derelínquas me neque despí- H sake me not, do not despise me, cias me, Deus, salutáris meus. H O God my Savior. ✠. The Lord is ✠. Dóminus illuminátio mea et sa- H my light and my salvation; whom lus mea, quem timébo? H shall I fear?

FIRST READING Ezek 17: 22-24

THUS says the Lord GOD: | I, too, will take from the crest of the cedar, | from its topmost branches tear off a tender shoot,
 | and plant it on a high and lofty mountain; | on the mountain