

Eighteenth Sunday after Pentecost

A THOUGHT FOR SUNDAY

If you notice the volume number of this bulletin, you will see it's a nice round 150. Our first bulletin was printed on the first Sunday that we had Mass at St. Victor's - which means that this week marks 150 Sundays that we have had Mass at St. Victor's.

We owe special gratitude to Monsignor Murphy for having invited us and everyone here at St. Victor's for their kind hospitality!

On this Sunday let's say a special prayer for Monsignor that the Lord grant him Eternal Rest. Oftentimes I have his voice echo in my head: "That's fine!" - that is what he would say to me for anything and everything that I would ask him for our Latin Mass community!

As we push forward with raising the money and praying that God show us which church He wishes us to purchase to begin our parish, let us give thanks to Him for everything we have received.

Let us also profit by this opportunity to grow in our bonds of faith and unity. United together to establish this community, we walk a unique path, a path that is not just a "go to church and go home" experience. We are laying bricks on top of bricks. Our faith is paving the path of faith for our children and for future generations in this city.

*God bless you,
Fr Fryar*

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We are planning a one-day Men's Retreat to be given by Fr Fryar at San Felipe on Saturday October 28th. It will begin with Mass at 9 am, followed by talks throughout the day and ending at 7 pm. The topic will be "Phase Two: Sanctifying Ourselves with the Latin Mass." Registration will be limited to thirty men, due to limited space at San Felipe. Information on how to sign up will be forthcoming, but for now, save the date!

Catechism will continue each Friday, at 5pm, at St. Victor's. Come to the Parish Office. There are two groups, one for Confirmation aged youth and one for younger children.

Fr Masutti is also preparing youth for confirmation on Sundays after Mass at San Felipe. If you would like to attend this class please see Fr Masutti.

Fr Fryar will be away from Tuesday until Friday this week. He needs to go repair LiveMass.net hardware in Guadalajara.
