1 Cor. 5, 7-8

rethren: Rid yourselves of the old yeast, and become in truth a new batch, free from yeast, which is what you are. Our Paschal Lamb has been sacrificed: Christ himself. So let us now keep the feast not with the old yeast, not with the yeast of wickedness and vice, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. Thanks be to God.

Marc. 16, 1-7

n illo tempore: Maria Magdalene, et Maria Jacobi, et Salome emerunt aromata, ut venientes ungerent Jesum. Et valde mane una sabbatorum, veniunt ad monumentum, orto jam sole. Et dicebant ad invicem: Quis revolvet nobis lapidem ab ostio monumenti? Et respicientes viderunt revolutum lapidem. Erat quippe magnus valde. Et introeuntes in monumentum viderunt juvenem sedentem in dextris, coopertum stola candida, et obstupuerunt. Qui dicit illis: Nolite expavescere: Jesum quaeritis Nazarenum, crucifixum: surrexit, non est hic, ecce locus ubi posuerunt eum. Sed ite, dicite discipulis ejus et Petro quia praecedit vos in Galilaeam: ibi eum videbitis, sicut dixit vobis.

Gradual. Ps. 117, 24, 1. This is the day which the Lord hath made; let us rejoice and be glad for it. V. Confess to the Lord, for he is good, for his mercy is for ever.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. 1 Cor. 5, 7. Our Paschal Lamb has been sacrificed: Christ himself.

Sequence

acrifice in Paschal praises, Christians, to the Sacrificed.

A Lamb the sheep did save; and Christ back to the Father, sinless, sinners gave.

Death and Life clashed in mysterious strife;

Life's Captain, dead, now lives and reigns instead.

O Mary, say, what sawest thou by the way?

The tomb, Life's futile prison; and the glory of him risen.

I heard the angelic word: I bowed to see the bands, the shroud. Christ my Hope is risen, and he is gone before you into Galilee. Christ from the dead we know is truly risen:

Victorious King, to us kind pity show. Amen. Alleluia.

The priest, bowing in the middle of the altar, says:

leanse my heart and my lips, almighty God, who didst cleanse the lips of the prophet Isaias with a glowing coal: in thy gracious mercy be pleased so to cleanse me, that I may worthily proclaim thy holy Gospel. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Pray, Lord, a blessing.

May the Lord be in my heart and on my lips that I may announce his Gospel worthily and well. Amen.

Turning to the book, he says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. A passage from + the holy Gospel according to Mark.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

Mark 16, 1-7

t that time: Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices to go and anoint Jesus. Very early on the first day of the week, after the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. They were asking one another who would roll away the stone for them from the entrance of the tomb, when they looked and saw that the stone, a very large one, was rolled back already. On entering the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe, and they were greatly surprised. But he said to them: Do not be surprised. You are looking for Jesus of Nazareth who was crucified. He has been raised up; he is not here. Look, there is the place where they laid him. Go now, and say to Peter and the other disciples: Jesus is going ahead of you into Galilee, and you will see him there, as he told you. Praise to thee, O Christ.

Sacerdos osculatur Evangelium, dicens:

Per evangelica dicta deleantur nostra delicta.

redo in unum Deum, Patrem omnipotentem, factorem caeli et terrae, visibilium omnium, et invisibilium. Et in unum Dominum Jesum Christum, Filium Dei unigenitum, Et ex Patre natum ante omnia saecula. Deum de Deo, lumen de lumine. Deum verum de Deo vero, Genitum, non factum, consubstantialem Patri: per quem omnia facta sunt. Qui propter nos homines, et propter nostram salutem descendit de caelis. (Hic genuflectitur) Et incarnatus est de Spiritu Sancto ex Maria Virgine: et homo factus est. Crucifixus etiam pro nobis: sub Pontio Pilato passus. et sepultus est. Et resurrexit tertia die, secundum Scripturas. Et ascendit in caelum: sedet ad dexteram Patris. Et iterum venturus est cum gloria judicare vivos, et mortuos: cujus regni non erit finis. Et in Spiritum Sanctum, Dominum, et vivificantem: qui ex Patre Filioque procedit. Qui cum Patre et Filio simul adoratur, et conglorificatur: qui locutus est per Prophetas. Et unam, sanctam, catholicam et apostolicam Ecclesiam. Confiteor unum baptisma in remissionem peccatorum. Et exspecto resurrectionem mortuorum. Et vitam venturi saeculi. Amen.

Deinde osculatur Altare et dicit:

C. Dominus vobiscum. R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

C. Oremus.

Offertorium. Ps. 75, 9-10. Terra tremuit et quievit, dum resurgeret in judicio Deus, alleluja.

Sacerdos accipit Patenam cum Hostia, quam offerens dicit:

uscipe, sancte Pater, omnipotens aeterne Deus, hanc immaculatam hostiam, quam ego indignus famulus tuus offero tibi Deo meo vivo, et vero, pro innumerabilibus peccatis, et offensionibus, et negligentiis meis, et pro omnibus circumstantibus, sed et pro omnibus fidelibus christianis vivis atque defunctis: ut mihi, et illis proficiat ad salutem, in vitam aeternam. Amen.

Aquam benedicit signo Crucis, dicens:

eus, qui humanae substantiae dignitatem mirabiliter condidisti, et mirabilius reformasti: da nobis per hujus aquae et vini mysterium, ejus divinitatis esse consortes, qui humanitatis nostrae fieri dignatus est particeps, Jesus Christus Filius tuus Dominus noster: Qui tecum vivit et regnat in unitate Spiritus Sancti Deus: per omnia saecula saeculorum. Amen.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead: and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world that is to come. Amen.

He kisses the altar and says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.
C. Let us pray.

Offertory, Ps. 75, 9-10. The earth trembled and was still, when God arose in judgement, alleluia.

The priest takes the paten with the Host, which he offers, saying:

He blesses the water with the sign of the Cross and says:

DOMINICA RESURRECTIONIS

Accipit Calicem et offert, dicens:

Sacerdos lavat manus, dicens:

Ps. 25, 6-12

avabo inter innocentes manus meas: et circumdabo altare tuum, Domine.

Ut audiam vocem laudis, et enarrem universa mirabilia tua. Domine, dilexi decorem domus tuae: et locum habitationis gloriae tuae.

Ne perdas cum impiis, Deus, animam meam: et cum viris sanguinum vitam meam.

In quorum manibus iniquitates sunt: dextera eorum repleta est muneribus.

Ego autem in innocentia mea ingressus sum: redime me, et miserere mei.

Pes meus stetit in directo: in ecclesiis benedicam te, Domine. Gloria Patri et Filio, et Spiritui Sancto. Sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et semper, et in saecula saeculorum. Amen.

Aliquantulum inclinatus, junctis manibus, dicit:

Suscipe, sancta Trinitas, hanc oblationem, quam tibi offerimus ob memoriam passionis, resurrectionis, et ascensionis Jesu Christi Domini nostri: et in honorem beatae Mariae semper Virginis, et beati Joannis Baptistae et sanctorum Apostolorum Petri et Pauli, et istorum, et omnium Sanctorum: ut illis proficiat ad honorem, nobis autem ad salutem: et illi pro nobis intercedere dignentur in caelis, quorum memoriam agimus in terris. Per eundem Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

ome, Sanctifier, almighty eternal God, (he blesses the offerings and continues) and he bless this sacrifice, prepared for thy holy name.

Whilst washing his hands, the priest says:

Ps. 25, 6-12

will wash my hands among the innocent and gather with them at thy altar, Lord;

To hear the song of praise and tell of all thy wonderful works. Lord, I have loved the beauty of thy house and the place where thy glory dwells.

Let not my soul, O God, be lost among the wicked nor my life with men of blood.

Their hands are steeped in evil; their right hands full of bribes.

For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me. My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord, I will bless thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Bowing slightly and joining his hands, he says:

eceive, O holy Trinity, this offering which we make to thee in memory of the passion, resurrection and ascension of Jesus Christ our Lord, and in honour of the blessed Mary ever Virgin, of blessed John the Baptist, of the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, of those whose relics are here and of all the Saints; that it may bring honour to them and salvation to us; and may they, whose memory we keep on earth, be pleased to intercede for us in heaven: through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

He turns to the people, and says in a louder tone:

ray, brethren, that my sacrifice and yours may find acceptance with God the Father almighty.

R. May the Lord receive the sacrifice from your hands for

Preface for Easter

It is truly just and right, fitting and for our good, to proclaim thy glory at all times, but more especially on this day when Christ our Pasch was sacrificed. For he is the true Lamb who has taken away the sins of the world: who by dying has destroyed death in us, and by rising has restored life. And so with the Angels and the Archangels, with the Thrones and Dominations, and all the strength of the heavenly host, we sing this hymn everlastingly to thy glory:

Joining his hands, he bows and says:

oly, Holy, Holy Lord God of Hosts. Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

NOW TURN TO THE CANON FOR THE EASTER VIGIL, p. 227

Postcommunio

n principio erat Verbum, et Verbum erat apud Deum, et Deus erat Verbum. Hoc erat in principio apud Deum. Omnia per ipsum facta sunt, et sine ipso factum est nihil, quod factum est: in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, et lux in tenebris lucet, et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. Fuit homo missus a Deo. cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine eius, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. (Genuflectit dicens) Et Verbum caro factum est, (et surgens prosequitur) et habitavit in nobis: et vidimus gloriam ejus, gloriam quasi Unigeniti a Patre, plenum gratiae et veritatis.

R. Deo gratias.

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. Go, the Mass is ended, alleluia, alleluia.

R. Thanks be to God, alleluia, alleluia.

The priest bows, and prays silently, saying:

ay the homage of my service, O holy Trinity, be pleasing to thee; and grant that the sacrifice, which I, though unworthy, have offered in the sight of thy majesty, may be acceptable to thee, and through thy mercy bring forgiveness to me and all for whom I have offered it. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Turning to the people, he says in blessing:

The priest goes to the Gospel corner, and says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. The beginning of the holy Gospel according to John.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 1, 1-14

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saving) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

Epistle of blessed John the Apostle.

1 John 5, 4-10

eloved: Everyone born of God defeats the world. For what is the power that defeats the world, if not our faith? And who else has defeated the world but the man who believes that Jesus is the Son of God – that he, Jesus, the one who came with water and blood and the Spirit, is the Anointed One? He did not come in water alone, but in water and in blood. And it is the Spirit testimonium dant in caelo: Pater, Verbum, et Spiritus Sanctus: et hi tres unum sunt. Et tres sunt, qui testimonium dant in terra: Spiritus, et aqua, et sanguis: et hi tres unum sunt. Si testimonium hominum accipimus, testimonium Dei majus est: quoniam hoc est testimonium Dei, quod majus est: quoniam testificatus est de Filio suo. Qui credit in Filium Dei, habet testimonium Dei in se. R. Deo gratias.

n illo tempore: Cum sero esset die illo, una sabbatorum, et fores essent clausae, ubi erant discipuli congregati propter metum Judaeorum: venit Jesus, et stetit in medio, et dixit eis: Pax vobis. Et cum hoc dixisset, ostendit eis manus et latus. Gavisi sunt ergo discipuli, viso Domino. Dixit ergo eis iterum: Pax vobis. Sicut misit me Pater, et ego mitto vos. Haec cum dixisset, insufflavit: et dixit eis: Accipite Spiritum Sanctum: quorum remiseritis peccata, remittuntur eis: et quorum retinueritis, retenta sunt. Thomas autem unus ex duodecim, qui dicitur Didymus, non erat cum eis, quando venit Jesus. Dixerunt ergo ei alii discipuli: Vidimus Dominum. Ille autem dixit eis: Nisi videro in manibus ejus fixuram clavorum, et mittam digitum meum in locum clavorum, et mittam manum meam in latus ejus, non credam. Et post dies octo, iterum erant discipuli ejus intus, et Thomas cum eis. Venit Jesus januis clausis, et stetit in medio, et dixit: Pax vobis. Deinde dicit Thomae: Infer digitum tuum huc, et vide manus meas, et affer manum tuam, et mitte in latus meum: et noli esse that bears him witness, for the Spirit is the truth. There are three who bear witness in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit, and these three are one. And there are three who bear witness on earth, the Spirit, the water, and the blood, and these three are one. If we accept the witness of men, God's witness is greater; and this is the witness that God has borne to his Son: he who believes in the Son of God has God's witness within himself. R. Thanks be to God.

The priest, bowing in the middle of the altar, says:

Pray, Lord, a blessing.

May the Lord be in my heart and on my lips that I may announce his Gospel worthily and well. Amen.

Turning to the book, he says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. A passage from + the holy Gospel according to John.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 20, 19-31

t that time: It was evening, on the same day, the first of the week, and the doors of the place where the disciples were staying were locked, for fear of the Jews. But Jesus came among them and stood there and said: Peace be with you. After this greeting, he showed them his hands and his side; and the disciples were overjoyed at seeing the Lord. Then Jesus spoke to them again: Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you. Then he breathed on them and said: Receive the Holy Spirit; those whose sins you absolve, are absolved from their sins; those whose sins you retain, remain in their sins. Now one of the twelve, Thomas, also called Didymus, had not been with the other disciples when Jesus came; and when they said to him, We have seen the Lord, he replied: Unless I see the marks of the nails in his hands, and put my finger into the place where the nails were, and my hand into his side, I will not believe. Eight days later, the disciples were again inside, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were locked, Jesus entered. He stood there incredulus, sed fidelis. Respondit Thomas, et dixit ei: Dominus meus, et Deus meus. Dixit ei Jesus: Quia vidisti me, Thoma, credidisti: beati qui non viderunt et crediderunt. Multa quidem et alia signa fecit Jesus in conspectu discipulorum suorum, quae non sunt scripta in libro hoc. Haec autem scripta sunt, ut credatis quia Jesus est Christus Filius Dei: et ut credentes, vitam habeatis in nomine ejus. R. Laus tibi, Christe.

Sacerdos osculatur Evangelium, dicens:

Amen.

among them, and said: Peace be with you. Then he said to Thomas: Come, where is your finger? See my hands. Where is your hand? Put it into my side. Set aside your doubts and believe. Thomas answered: My Lord and my God. Jesus said: You believe because you have seen me; blessed are those who believe without having seen. Jesus did many other miracles too in the presence of his disciples, which are not set down in this book. This much has been written down, so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name. Praise to thee, O Christ.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world that is to come. Amen.

He blesses the water with the sign of the Cross and says:

He takes the Chalice and offers it, saying:

Te offer thee, O Lord, the chalice of salvation, beseeching thy gentle mercy, that for our own and the whole world's salvation it may ascend with a sweet fragrance in the sight of thy divine majesty. Amen.

Let not my soul, O God, be lost among the wicked nor my life with men of blood.

Their hands are steeped in evil; their right hands full of bribes.

For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me. My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord, I will bless thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Bowing slightly and joining his hands, he says:

Preface for Easter

It is truly just and right, fitting and for our good, to proclaim thy glory at all times, but more especially during this season when Christ our Pasch was sacrificed. For he is the true Lamb who has taken away the sins of the world: who by dying has destroyed death in us, and by rising has restored life. And so with the Angels and the Archangels, with the Thrones and Dominations, and all the strength of the heavenly host, we sing this hymn everlastingly to thy glory:

Joining his hands, he bows and says:

oly, Holy, Holy Lord God of Hosts. Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

n principio erat Verbum, et Verbum erat apud Deum, et Deus erat Verbum. Hoc erat in principio apud Deum. Omnia per lipsum facta sunt, et sine ipso factum est nihil, quod factum est: in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, et lux in tenebris lucet, et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. Fuit homo missus a Deo, cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine eius, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. (Genuflectit dicens) Et Verbum caro factum est, (et surgens prosequitur) et habitavit in nobis: et vidimus gloriam ejus, gloriam quasi Unigeniti a Patre, plenum gratiae et veritatis.

C. The beginning of the holy Gospel according to John.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 1, 1-14

When a hired man sees a wolf coming, he leaves the sheep and makes off, and the wolf ravages them and scatters them; for the hired man is not their shepherd and they are not his sheep; he is but a hired man and has no concern for the sheep. I am the good shepherd; I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I am ready to lay down my life for the flock. I have other sheep too, which are not of this fold; those too I must lead; they will heed my voice, and there will be one flock with one shepherd.

He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. t is truly just and right, fitting and for our good, to proclaim thy glory at all times, but more especially during this season when Christ our Pasch was sacrificed. For he is the true Lamb who has taken away the sins of the world: who by dying has destroyed death in us, and by rising has restored life. And so with the Angels and the Archangels, with the Thrones and Dominations, and all the strength of the heavenly host, we sing this hymn everlastingly to thy glory:

Omnia per ipsum facta sunt, et sine ipso factum est nihil, quod factum est: in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, et lux in tenebris lucet. et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. Fuit homo missus a Deo. cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine eius, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

The beginning of the holy Gospel according to John.

Glory to thee, O Lord.

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

Epistle of blessed Peter the Apostle.

eloved: I urge you as exiles and pilgrims to resist the bodily desires which war against your souls. Let your conduct among the Gentiles be worthy of honour, so that, though they now decry you as malefactors, they will one day be moved by the sight of your honourable conduct to give glory to God, on the day when the Lord will visit them. Be obedient to all human authorities for the Lord's sake: to the emperor who holds sovereign power. and to the governors sent by him to punish those who do evil and encourage those who do good. For it is the will of God that you should silence the ignorant criticisms of fools by doing good. You are free men, but must not, of course, regard your freedom as an excuse for wickedness; you are God's servants. Treat all men with respect, and the brethren with love; fear God, and honour the emperor. Servants must be obedient and respectful to their masters; and not only to kind and reasonable masters, but to illtempered ones as well. It is a sign of grace: in Christ Jesus our Lord. R. t that time: Jesus said to his disciples: A little while and you will see me no longer, and again a little while and you will see me again; for I am going to the Father. At this, some of his disciples said to one another: What does he mean by saving to us. A little while and you will see me no longer, and again, a little while and you will see me again? And by saying, I am going to the Father? What is this little while that he talks about? they said. We do not know what he means. As Jesus knew that they wanted to question him, he said to them: You are asking one another about my saying, A little while and you will not see me, and again a little while and you will see me again. I tell you truly, you are about to weep and lament, but the world will rejoice. You will grieve, but your grief will turn into joy. When a woman is in labour, she is distressed at the approach of her time. But when she has given birth to her child, she no longer remembers her pangs, for joy that a man has been born into the world. So too you have your grief at present; but I shall see you again, and your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take away your joy. R. Praise to thee, O Christ. The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and

THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EASTER

Lord, I have loved the beauty of thy house and the place where thy glory dwells.

Let not my soul, O God, be lost among the wicked nor my life with men of blood.

Their hands are steeped in evil; their right hands full of bribes. For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me. My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord, I will bless thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Bowing slightly and joining his hands, he says:

Amen.

He turns to the people, and says in a louder tone:

May the Lord receive the sacrifice from your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our welfare also, and that of all his holy Church. The priest says: Amen.

John 1, 1-14

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saving) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

R. Thanks be to God.

God, who dost unite the hearts of the faithful in a single purpose, grant that thy people may love thy precepts and desire thy promises, so that amid the changes of this world, our hearts may be fixed on our true joy: through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. eloved: Only good things and perfect gifts come down from above from the Father, the source of all light, whose radiance never fades, is never deflected, is never dimmed. Of his own will he gave us life by his Word of truth, to make us the first-fruits of his creation. You know these things, beloved brethren; but let every man be quick to hear and slow to speak; and likewise slow to anger, because man's anger does not earn God's justice. Put aside, then, every defilement and every remnant of wickedness, and accept in gentleness the Word that has been planted in your souls. It has the power to save you. R. Thanks be to God.

Sed ego veritatem dico vobis: expedit vobis ut ego vadam: si enim non abiero, Paraclitus non veniet ad vos: si autem abiero, mittam eum ad vos. Et, cum venerit ille, arguet mundum de peccato, et de justitia, et de judicio. De peccato quidem, quia non crediderunt in me: de justitia vero, quia ad Patrem vado, et jam non videbitis me: de judicio autem, quia princeps hujus mundi jam judicatus est. Adhuc multa habeo vobis dicere: sed non potestis portare modo. Cum autem venerit ille Spiritus veritatis, docebit vos omnem veritatem. Non enim loquetur a semetipso: sed quaecumque audiet, loquetur, et quae ventura sunt, annuntiabit vobis. Ille me clarificabit: quia de meo accipiet, et annuntiabit vobis.

t that time: Jesus said to his disciples: Now I am going away to him who sent me. None of you asks me now where I am going. Your hearts are filled with grief because I have told you this. But I tell you the truth: it is for your good that I should go, because if I do not go, the Paraclete will not come to you; but if I go, I shall send him to you. He will come and prove the world wrong about sin, about justice, and about judgement. About sin, because they do not believe in me; about justice, because I am going to the Father and you will see me no more; and about judgement, because the ruler of this world has been condemned. I still have many things to tell you, but you cannot bear them now. But when the Spirit of Truth comes, he will guide you into all truth. What he tells you will not be his own; he will tell you the things he has heard, and will explain to you things that are still to come. He will give glory to me, because it is from me that he will receive what he explains to you.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages: God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. Pes meus stetit in directo: in ecclesiis benedicam te, Domine. Gloria Patri et Filio, et Spiritui Sancto. Sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et semper, et in saecula saeculorum. Amen.

The priest takes the paten with the Host, which he offers, saying:

He blesses the water with the sign of the Cross and says:

He takes the Chalice and offers it, saying:

thy gentle mercy, that for our own and the whole world's salvation it may ascend with a sweet fragrance in the sight of thy divine majesty. Amen.

Bowing slightly, he says:

ome, Sanctifier, almighty eternal God, (he blesses the offerings and continues) and bless this sacrifice, prepared for thy holy name.

Whilst washing his hands, the priest says:

Ps. 25, 6-12

will wash my hands among the innocent and gather with them at thy altar, Lord;

To hear the song of praise and tell of all thy wonderful works. Lord, I have loved the beauty of thy house and the place where thy glory dwells.

Let not my soul, O God, be lost among the wicked nor my life with men of blood.

Their hands are steeped in evil; their right hands full of bribes. For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me.

My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord, I will bless thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Preface for Easter

t is truly just and right, fitting and for our good, to proclaim thy glory at all times, but more especially at this season when Christ our Pasch was sacrificed. For he is the true Lamb who has taken away the sins of the world: who by dying has destroyed death in us, and by rising has restored life. And so with the Angels and the Archangels, with the Thrones and Dominations, and all the strength of the heavenly host, we sing this hymn everlastingly to thy glory:

Joining his hands, he bows and says:

If a man is a hearer of the word but not a doer of it, he is like a man who sees in a mirror the face he was born with: he looks at himself and goes away and at once forgets what he was like. But the man who looks into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and does not depart from it, the man who is not a forgetful hearer but a doer of his task, he is the man who will be blessed for what he does. If anyone thinks himself a religious man and yet does not bridle his tongue, he is deluding himself. His religion is useless. Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. Pere dignum et justum est, aequum et salutare: Te quidem, Domine, omni tempore, sed in hoc potissimum gloriosius praedicare, cum Pascha nostrum immolatus est Christus. Ipse enim verus est Agnus, qui abstulit peccata mundi. Qui mortem nostram moriendo destruxit, et vitam resurgendo reparavit. Et ideo cum Angelis et Archangelis, cum Thronis et Dominationibus, cumque omni militia caelestis exercitus, hymnum gloriae tuae canimus, sine fine dicentes:

ord, we beg thee to accept the prayers of the faithful, with the sacrifice they offer, that through these acts of filial homage, we may enter into the glory of heaven: through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, (in a clear voice) for ever and ever.

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. Raise your hearts. R. They are raised to the Lord.

R. It is just and right.

Preface for Easter

It is truly just and right, fitting and for our good, to proclaim thy glory at all times, but more especially during this season when Christ our Pasch was sacrificed. For he is the true Lamb who has taken away the sins of the world: who by dying has destroyed death in us, and by rising has restored life. And so with the Angels and the Archangels, with the Thrones and Dominations, and all the strength of the heavenly host, we sing this hymn everlastingly to thy glory:

Joining his hands, he bows and says:

oly, Holy, Holy Lord God of Hosts. Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

NOW TURN TO THE CANON

The priest continues the Mass:

Communion. Ps. 95, 2. Sing to the Lord, alleluia, sing to the Lord and bless his name; give the good news of his salvation from day to day, alleluia, alleluia.

C. Dominus vobiscum.C. Ite, missa est.

R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

R. Deo gratias.

Sacerdos inclinat se, et dicit secrete:

Placeat tibi, sancta Trinitas, obsequium servitutis meae: et praesta: ut sacrificium, quod oculis tuae majestatis indignus obtuli, tibi sit acceptabile, mihique, et omnibus pro quibus illud obtuli, sit, te miserante, propitiabile. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

Versus ad populum, benedicens, prosequitur:

Sacerdos in cornu Evangelii, dicit:

C. Dominus vobiscum. R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

C. * Initium sancti Evangelii secundum Joannem.

R. Gloria tibi, Domine.

Joann. 1, 1-14

In principio erat Verbum, et Verbum erat apud Deum, et Deus erat Verbum. Hoc erat in principio apud Deum. Omnia per ipsum facta sunt, et sine ipso factum est nihil, quod factum est: in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, et lux in tenebris lucet, et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. Fuit homo missus a Deo, cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine ejus, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. (Genuflectit dicens) Et Verbum caro factum est, (et surgens prosequitur) et habitavit in nobis: et vidimus gloriam eius, gloriam quasi Unigeniti a Patre, plenum gratiae et veritatis.

R. Deo gratias.

Let us pray.

Postcommunion

rant, Lord, that as we have been filled with strength at thy heavenly table, we may desire what is right and attain what we desire: through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. R. Amen.

C. The Lord be with you.

R. And with you also.

Go, the Mass is ended. R. Thanks be to God.

The priest bows, and prays silently, saying:

ay the homage of my service, O holy Trinity, be pleasing to thee; and grant that the sacrifice, which I, though unworthy, have offered in the sight of thy majesty, may be acceptable to thee, and through thy mercy bring forgiveness to me and all for whom I have offered it. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Turning to the people, he says in blessing:

C. May Almighty God, Father, and Son, * and Holy Spirit, bless you. R. Amen.

The priest goes to the Gospel corner, and says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. The beginning of the holy Gospel according to John.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 1, 1-14

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name. to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. R. Thanks be to God.

Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

he first book which I wrote, my dear Theophilus, was about Jesus' works and teaching, down to the day when, after giving instructions in the Holy Spirit to his chosen disciples, quibus et praebuit seipsum vivum post passionem suam in multis argumentis, per dies quadraginta apparens eis, et loquens de regno Dei. Et convescens, praecepit eis ab Jerosolymis ne discederent. sed exspectarent promissionem Patris, quam audistis (inquit) per os meum: quia Joannes quidem baptizavit aqua, vos autem baptizabimini Spiritu Sancto non post multos hos dies. Igitur qui convenerant interrogabant eum, dicentes: Domine, si in tempore hoc restitues regnum Israel? Dixit autem eis: Non est vestrum nosse tempora vel momenta, quae Pater posuit in sua potestate: sed accipietis virtutem supervenientis Spiritus Sancti in vos, et eritis mihi testes in Jerusalem, et in omni Judaea, et Samaria, et usque ad ultimum terrae. Et, cum haec dixisset, videntibus illis, elevatus est, et nubes suscepit eum ab oculis eorum. Cumque intuerentur in caelum euntem illum, ecce duo viri astiterunt juxta illos in vestibus albis, qui et dixerunt: Viri Galilaei, quid statis aspicientes in caelum? Hic Jesus, qui assumptus est a vobis in caelum, sic veniet, quemadmodum vidistis eum euntem in caelum. R. Deo gratias.

lleluja, alleluja. V. Ps. 46, 6. Ascendit Deus in jubilatione, et Dominus in voce tubae. Alleluja. V. Ps. 67, 18–19. Dominus in Sina in sancto, ascendens in altum, captivam duxit captivitatem. Alleluja.

Sacerdos, inclinatus in medio, dicit:

unda cor meum, ac labia mea, omnipotens Deus, qui labia Isaiae Prophetae calculo mundasti ignito: ita me tua grata miseratione dignare mundare, ut sanctum Evangelium tuum digne valeam nuntiare. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

Jube, Domine, benedicere.

Dominus sit in corde meo, et in labiis meis: ut digne et competenter annuntiem Evangelium suum. Amen.

C. Sequentia * sancti Evangelii secundum Marcum.

R. Gloria tibi, Domine.

Marc. 16, 14-20

n illo tempore: Recumbentibus undecim discipulis, apparuit illis Jesus: et exprobravit incredulitatem eorum, et duritiam cordis: quia iis, qui viderant eum resurrexisse, non crediderunt. Et dixit eis: Euntes in mundum universum, praedicate Evangelium he was taken up from them into heaven. After his Passion, he showed them many proofs that he was still alive; he appeared to them several times over a period of forty days, and spoke to them of the kingdom of God. While sharing a meal with them, he told them not to go away from Jerusalem: Wait here, he said, for the fulfilment of the Father's promise which you heard from my lips when I said, John's baptism was with water, but you will be baptised with the Holy Spirit. It will be fulfilled within a few days from now. Once when they were with him, they asked him: Lord, is this the time when you will restore the kingdom to Israel? He answered: It is not for you to know the periods and the turningpoints of history; the Father has reserved them in his own power. But know this: you are about to receive the power of the Holy Spirit coming upon you; and you are to be my witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth. After saying this, he was lifted up before them, until a cloud took him out of their sight. They were straining their eyes looking upwards as he went into heaven, when suddenly two men appeared beside them in white garments. They said: Why are you Galileans standing there looking up into heaven? The Jesus who has just been taken up from you into heaven will come back in the same way as you have seen him go. R. Thanks be to God.

lleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 46, 6. God hath gone up with jubilation, and the Lord with the sound of the trumpet. Alleluia. V. Ps. 67, 18–19. The Lord on Sinai, the holy place, ascending on high, hath led captivity captive. Alleluia.

The priest, bowing in the middle of the altar, says:

Pray, Lord, a blessing.

May the Lord be in my heart and on my lips that I may announce his Gospel worthily and well. Amen.

Turning to the book, he says:

The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. A passage from * the holy Gospel according to Mark.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

Mark 16, 14-20

t that time: Jesus appeared to the eleven while they were reclining at table; and he reproached them for their want of faith and hardness of heart in not believing those who had seen him risen. Then he said to them: Go to the whole world and omni creaturae. Qui crediderit et baptizatus fuerit, salvus erit: qui vero non crediderit, condemnabitur. Signa autem eos, qui crediderint, haec sequentur: In nomine meo daemonia ejicient: linguis loquentur novis: serpentes tollent: et, si mortiferum quid biberint, non eis nocebit: super aegros manus imponent, et bene habebunt. Et Dominus quidem Jesus, postquam locutus est eis, assumptus est in caelum, et sedet a dextris Dei. Illi autem profecti, praedicaverunt ubique, Domino cooperante et sermonem confirmante, sequentibus signis.

R. Laus tibi, Christe.

Sacerdos osculatur Evangelium, dicens:

Per evangelica dicta deleantur nostra delicta.

redo in unum Deum, Patrem omnipotentem, factorem caeli et terrae, visibilium omnium, et invisibilium. Et in unum Dominum Jesum Christum, Filium Dei unigenitum. Et ex Patre natum ante omnia saecula. Deum de Deo, lumen de lumine, Deum verum de Deo vero. Genitum, non factum, consubstantialem Patri: per quem omnia facta sunt. Qui propter nos homines, et propter nostram salutem descendit de caelis. (Hic genuflectitur) Et incarnatus est de Spiritu Sancto ex Maria Virgine: et homo factus est. Crucifixus etiam pro nobis: sub Pontio Pilato passus, et sepultus est. Et resurrexit tertia die, secundum Scripturas. Et ascendit in caelum: sedet ad dexteram Patris. Et iterum venturus est cum gloria judicare vivos, et mortuos: cujus regni non erit finis. Et in Spiritum Sanctum, Dominum, et vivificantem: qui ex Patre Filioque procedit. Qui cum Patre et Filio simul adoratur, et conglorificatur: qui locutus est per Prophetas. Et unam, sanctam, catholicam et apostolicam Ecclesiam. Confiteor unum baptisma in remissionem peccatorum. Et exspecto resurrectionem mortuorum. Et vitam venturi saeculi. Amen.

Offertorium. Ps. 46, 6. Ascendit Deus in jubilatione, et Dominus in voce tubae, alleluja.

Sacerdos accipit Patenam cum Hostia, quam offerens dicit:

Suscipe, sancte Pater, omnipotens aeterne Deus, hanc immaculatam hostiam, quam ego indignus famulus tuus offero tibi Deo meo vivo, et vero, pro innumerabilibus peccatis, et offensionibus, et negligentiis meis, et pro omnibus circumstantibus, sed et pro omnibus fidelibus christianis vivis atque defunctis: ut mihi, et illis proficiat ad salutem, in vitam aeternam. Amen.

preach the Gospel to all creation. Whoever believes and is baptised will be saved; whoever does not believe will be damned. And these are the signs that will accompany those who believe: in my name they will cast out devils, speak with new tongues, and handle serpents; if they drink any deadly poison, it will not harm them; they will lay their hands on the sick, and they will recover. After saying all this to them the Lord Jesus was taken up into heaven and took his seat at God's right hand. But they went forth and preached everywhere, while the Lord supported them and confirmed the Word by the signs that accompanied them.

R. Praise to thee, O Christ.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages: God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world that is to come. Amen.

He kisses the altar and says:

C. The Lord be with you.R. And with you also.C. Let us pray.

Offertory. Ps. 46, 6. God hath gone up with jubilation, and the Lord with the sound of the trumpet, alleluia.

The priest takes the paten with the Host, which he offers, saying:

Aquam benedicit signo Crucis, dicens:

Amen.

Accipit Calicem et offert, dicens:

fferimus tibi, Domine, calicem salutaris, tuam deprecantes clementiam: ut in conspectu divinae majestatis tuae, pro nostra et totius mundi salute cum odore suavitatis ascendat.

Aliquantulum inclinatus, dicit:

eni, sanctificator omnipotens aeterne Deus (benedicit oblata, prosequendo) et bene dic hoc sacrificium, tuo sancto nomini praeparatum.

Sacerdos lavat manus, dicens:

Ps. 25, 6-12

avabo inter innocentes manus meas: et circumdabo altare tuum, Domine.

Ut audiam vocem laudis, et enarrem universa mirabilia tua. Domine, dilexi decorem domus tuae: et locum habitationis gloriae tuae.

Ne perdas cum impiis, Deus, animam meam: et cum viris sanguinum vitam meam.

In quorum manibus iniquitates sunt: dextera eorum repleta est muneribus.

Ego autem in innocentia mea ingressus sum: redime me, et miserere mei.

Pes meus stetit in directo: in ecclesiis benedicam te, Domine. Gloria Patri et Filio, et Spiritui Sancto. Sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et semper, et in saecula saeculorum. Amen.

Aliquantulum inclinatus, junctis manibus, dicit:

Suscipe, sancta Trinitas, hanc oblationem, quam tibi offerimus ob memoriam passionis, resurrectionis, et ascensionis Jesu Christi Domini nostri: et in honorem beatae Mariae semper Virginis, et beati Joannis Baptistae et sanctorum Apostolorum Petri et Pauli, et istorum, et omnium Sanctorum: ut illis proficiat ad honorem, nobis autem ad salutem: et illi pro nobis intercedere dignentur in caelis, quorum memoriam agimus in terris. Per eundem Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

He blesses the water with the sign of the Cross and says:

He takes the Chalice and offers it, saying:

thy gentle mercy, that for our own and the whole world's salvation it may ascend with a sweet fragrance in the sight of thy divine majesty. Amen.

Bowing slightly, he says:

ome, Sanctifier, almighty eternal God, (he blesses the offerings and continues) and helps this sacrifice, prepared for thy holy name.

Whilst washing his hands, the priest says:

Ps. 25, 6–12

will wash my hands among the innocent and gather with them at thy altar, Lord;

To hear the song of praise and tell of all thy wonderful works. Lord, I have loved the beauty of thy house and the place where thy glory dwells.

Let not my soul, O God, be lost among the wicked nor my life with men of blood.

Their hands are steeped in evil; their right hands full of bribes.

For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me. My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord, I will bless thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Bowing slightly and joining his hands, he says:

Preface for the Ascension

It is truly just and right, fitting and for our good, always and everywhere to give thanks to thee, Lord, holy Father, almighty eternal God, through Christ our Lord; who, after his resurrection, appeared visibly to all his disciples, and while they watched was lifted up into heaven, in order to make us sharers in his Godhead. And so with the Angels and the Archangels, with the Thrones and Dominations, and all the strength of the heavenly host, we sing this hymn everlastingly to thy glory:

Joining his hands, he bows and says:

oly, Holy, Holy Lord God of Hosts. Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

We offer them to thee first and foremost for thy holy catholic Church: be pleased throughout the whole world, to give her peace, to protect, gather into one, and govern her. We offer them too for thy servant N. our Pope and for N. our Bishop and for all those who, faithful to the true teaching, are guardians of the catholic and apostolic faith.

ASCENSION DAY

The Commemoration of the Living

emember, Lord, thy servants, men and women N. and N., he joins his hands and prays a little while for those for whom he intends to pray: then extending his hands, he continues: and all those here around us: thou knowest their faith and proven loyalty. For them we offer thee this sacrifice of praise, or they offer it to thee for themselves, for all their own: to obtain redemption of their souls, the salvation they hope for and freedom from all danger: and they make their prayers to thee, the eternal, living and true God.

The Action

nited in one communion, we venerate the most holy day on which our Lord, thine only-begotten Son, established at the right hand of thy glory our frail nature, which he had taken to himself. We venerate also before all others the memory of the glorious ever-virgin Mary, Mother of the same God, our Lord Jesus Christ: and the memory too of thy blessed Apostles and Martyrs, Peter and Paul, Andrew, James, John, Thomas, James, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Simon and Thaddeus, Linus, Cletus, Clement, Xystus, Cornelius, Cyprian, Laurence, Chrysogonus, John and Paul, Cosmas and Damian, and of all thy Saints. Through their merits and prayers, defend us in all circumstances by thine aid and protection. He joins his hands. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

C. 🛧 Initium sancti Evangelii secundum Joannem.

R. Gloria tibi, Domine.

Joann. 1, 1-14

SUNDAY AFTER THE ASCENSION

The priest bows, and prays silently, saying:

ay the homage of my service, O holy Trinity, be pleasing to thee; and grant that the sacrifice, which I, though unworthy, have offered in the sight of thy majesty, may be acceptable to thee, and through thy mercy bring forgiveness to me and all for whom I have offered it. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Turning to the people, he says in blessing:

C. May Almighty God, Father, and Son, * and Holy Spirit, bless you. R. Amen.

The priest goes to the Gospel corner, and says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. The beginning of the holy Gospel according to John.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 1, 1-14

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory, of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. Thanks be to God.

arissimi: Estote prudentes, et vigilate in orationibus. Ante omnia autem, mutuam in vobismetipsis caritatem continuam habentes: quia caritas operit multitudinem peccatorum. Hospitales invicem sine murmuratione: unusquisque, sicut accepit gratiam, in alterutrum illam administrantes, sicut boni dispensatores multiformis gratiae Dei. Epistle of blessed Peter the Apostle.

eloved: Be prudent, therefore, be sober, and devote yourselves to prayer. Above all, preserve unfailing charity towards one another, because charity covers a multitude of sins. Be hospitable to one another without complaint. Each of you should use the good things he has received for the service of others, and show himself a generous dispenser of the manifold bounty of God. If a man preaches, let him regard his words as God's gift; if he renders a service, let him regard his power to do it as given him by God; in this way God will be glorified in all that you do, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Haec locutus sum vobis, ut non scandalizemini. Absque synagogis facient vos: sed venit hora, ut omnis qui interficit vos arbitretur obsequium se praestare Deo. Et haec facient vobis, quia non noverunt Patrem neque me. Sed haec locutus sum vobis: ut, cum venerit hora eorum, reminiscamini quia ego dixi vobis.

The priest, bowing in the middle of the altar, says:

Turning to the book, he says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. A passage from * the holy Gospel according to John.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 15, 26-27; 16, 1-4

t that time: Jesus said to his disciples: When the Paraclete comes, whom I shall send to you from the Father, he, the Spirit of Truth, who comes forth from the Father, will bear witness about me. And you too will bear me witness; for you have been with me from the beginning. I have forewarned you of these things, so that you will not be scandalised by them. You will be excommunicated from the synagogue, and indeed the time is coming when the man who kills you will think he is rendering a service to God. They will treat you so, because they have known neither the Father nor me. But I have forewarned you of these things, so that when the time comes, you will remember that I told you of them. R. Praise to thee, O Christ.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

mortuorum. Et vitam venturi saeculi. Amen.

in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, et lux in tenebris lucet et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. Fuit homo missus a Deo cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine ejus, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis. neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. (Genuflectit dicens) Et Verbum caro factum est, (et surgens prosequitur) et habitavit in nobis: et vidimus gloriam ejus, gloriam quasi Unigeniti a Patre, plenum gratiae et veritatis.

R. Deo gratias.

Prayer

God, who this day hast taught the hearts of the faithful by the light of the Holy Spirit, grant that by the gift of the same Spirit we may be always truly wise and ever rejoice in his consolation: through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the same Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. R. Amen.

Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

he day of Pentecost arrived and they were all gathered in the same place, when suddenly there came from heaven a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. And they saw what appeared to be fire separating out into tongues, and it settled on each one of them. All were filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak in various languages whatever the Spirit granted them to say. Living in Jerusalem there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven. When this sound was heard, they came together in large numbers, and were bewildered because each of them heard the apostles speaking in his own language. They were beside themselves with amazement and asked: Are not all who are speaking Galileans? How then is it that each of us hears his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites, men from Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphilia, Egypt and Cyrenaica, and visitors from Rome, Jews and proselytes. Cretans and Arabs, all of us hear these men proclaiming God's mighty works in our own languages. R. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 103, 30. Send forth thy Spirit, and they shall be created, and thou shalt renew the face of the earth. Alleluia. (Here all kneel) V. Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of thy faithful and enkindle in them the fire of thy love.

ome, Holy Spirit, and from heaven send forth thy radiant light.

Come, father of the poor, giver of gifts, come, light of our hearts.

Best strengthener of the soul, its welcome guest, its sweet repose. In labour rest, cool in summer's heat, comfort in tears.

Most blessed light, reach to the hearts' depths of thy faithful. Saving thy power there is nothing in man, nothing but harm.

Cleanse what is stained, water the parched, heal what is wounded. Bend the stiff-necked, warm the cold heart, make straight the crooked.

Grant to thy faithful, who trust in thee, thy sevenfold gift.

Sacerdos, inclinatus in medio, dicit:

Jube, Domine, benedicere.

Dominus sit in corde meo, et in labiis meis: ut digne et competenter annuntiem Evangelium suum. Amen.

Deinde conversus ad librum dicit:

Gloria tibi, Domine.

Joann. 14, 23-31

n illo tempore: Dixit Jesus discipulis suis: Si quis diligit me, sermonem meum servabit, et Pater meus diliget eum, et ad eum veniemus, et mansionem apud eum faciemus: qui non diligit me, sermones meos non servat. Et sermonem quem audistis, non est meus: sed ejus, qui misit me, Patris. Haec locutus sum vobis, apud vos manens. Paraclitus autem Spiritus Sanctus, quem mittet Pater in nomine meo, ille vos docebit omnia, et suggeret vobis omnia quaecumque dixero vobis. Pacem relinquo vobis, pacem meam do vobis: non quomodo mundus dat, ego do vobis. Non turbetur cor vestrum, neque formidet. Audistis quia ego dixi vobis: Vado, et venio ad vos. Si diligeretis me, gauderetis utique, quia vado ad Patrem: quia Pater major me est. Et nunc dixi vobis priusquam fiat: ut, cum factum fuerit, credatis. Jam non multa loquar vobiscum. Venit enim princeps mundi hujus, et in me non habet quidquam. Sed ut cognoscat mundus quia diligo Patrem, et sicut mandatum dedit mihi Pater, sic facio.

R. Laus tibi, Christe.

Grant virtue its reward, grant at death salvation, grant eternal joy. Amen. Alleluia.

The priest, bowing in the middle of the altar, says:

leanse my heart and my lips, almighty God, who didst cleanse the lips of the prophet Isaias with a glowing coal: in thy gracious mercy be pleased so to cleanse me, that I may worthily proclaim thy holy Gospel. Through Christ our Lord.

Pray, Lord, a blessing.

May the Lord be in my heart and on my lips that I may announce his Gospel worthily and well. Amen.

Turning to the book, he says:

R. And with you also. The Lord be with you.

C. A passage from * the holy Gospel according to John.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 14, 23-31

t that time: Jesus said to his disciples: If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we shall come to him and make our home with him. He who does not love me does not obey my words. But the word which you hear is not mine, it is the word of the Father who sent me. Such are the words I have spoken to you while I have been with you. The Holy Spirit, the Paraclete whom the Father will send in my name, will explain to you and bring back to your minds all that I have said to you. Peace I leave you, my peace I give you; but the peace I give you is not the peace which the world gives. Do not let your hearts be distressed or full of fears; you have heard me say that although I am going, I shall come back to you. If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father; for the Father is greater than I am. And now I have told you before it happens, so that when it does happen, you will believe. I shall not say much more to you now, for the ruler of this world is coming; he has no power over me, except to show the world that I love the Father and that I do only what he has commanded.

R. Praise to thee, O Christ.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

He blesses the water with the sign of the Cross and says:

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 1, 1-14

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name. to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. P. Thanks be to God.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

Matth. 28, 18-20

Go then, and convert all the nations; baptise them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit; and teach them to observe all the commandments I have given you. And be sure, I am with you every day, to the very end of the world.

R. Praise to thee, O Christ.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in one. holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world that is to come. Amen.

He kisses the altar and says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

Suscipe, sancte Pater, omnipotens aeterne Deus, hanc immaculatam hostiam, quam ego indignus famulus tuus offero tibi Deo meo vivo, et vero, pro innumerabilibus peccatis, et offensionibus, et negligentiis meis, et pro omnibus circumstantibus, sed et pro omnibus fidelibus christianis vivis atque defunctis: ut mihi, et illis proficiat ad salutem, in vitam aeternam. Amen.

Aquam benedicit signo Crucis, dicens:

Amen.

Accipit Calicem et offert, dicens:

Ps. 25, 6-12

Ut audiam vocem laudis, et enarrem universa mirabilia tua. Domine, dilexi decorem domus tuae: et locum habitationis gloriae tuae.

Ne perdas cum impiis, Deus, animam meam: et cum viris sanguinum vitam meam.

In quorum manibus iniquitates sunt: dextera eorum repleta est muneribus.

Ego autem in innocentia mea ingressus sum: redime me, et miserere mei.

Pes meus stetit in directo: in ecclesiis benedicam te, Domine. Gloria Patri et Filio, et Spiritui Sancto. Sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et semper, et in saecula saeculorum. Amen.

The priest takes the paten with the Host, which he offers, saying:

Amen.

He blesses the water with the sign of the Cross and says:

He takes the Chalice and offers it, saying:

ome, Sanctifier, almighty eternal God, (he blesses the offerings and continues) and bless this sacrifice, prepared for thy holy name.

Whilst washing his hands, the priest says:

Ps. 25, 6-12

will wash my hands among the innocent and gather with them at thy altar, Lord;

To hear the song of praise and tell of all thy wonderful works. Lord, I have loved the beauty of thy house and the place where thy glory dwells.

Let not my soul, O God, be lost among the wicked nor my life with men of blood.

Their hands are steeped in evil; their right hands full of bribes.

For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me. My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord, I will bless thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Aliquantulum inclinatus, junctis manibus, dicit:

Joining his hands, he bows and says:

oly, Holy, Holy Lord God of Hosts. Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 1, 1-14

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enmundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine ejus, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. (Genuflectit dicens) Et Verbum caro factum est, (et surgens prosequitur) et habitavit in nobis, et vidimus gloriam ejus: gloriam quasi Unigeniti a Patre, plenum gratiae et veritatis.

R. Deo gratias.

eus, qui nobis sub Sacramento mirabili passionis tuae memoriam reliquisti: tribue, quaesumus, ita nos Corporis et Sanguinis tui sacra mysteria venerari; ut redemptionis lightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

God, who in this wondrous sacrament hast left us a memorial of thy Passion, give us, we beg thee, such devotion to these sacred mysteries of thy Body and Blood, that we Lectio Epistolae beati Pauli Apostoli ad Corinthios.

1 Cor. 11, 23-29 ratres: Ego enim accepi a Domino quod et tradidi vobis. quoniam Dominus Jesus in qua nocte tradebatur, accepit panem, et gratias agens fregit, et dixit: Accipite et manducate: hoc est corpus meum, quod pro vobis tradetur; hoc facite in meam commemorationem. Similiter et calicem, postquam cenavit, dicens: Hic calix novum testamentum est in meo sanguine. Hoc facite, quotiescumque bibetis, in meam commemorationem. Ouotiescumque enim manducabitis panem hunc et calicem bibetis, mortem Domini annuntiabitis, donec veniat. Itaque quicumque manducaverit panem hunc vel biberit calicem Domini indigne, reus erit corporis et sanguinis Domini. Probet autem seipsum homo: et sic de pane illo edat et de calice bibat. Qui enim manducat et bibit indigne, judicium sibi manducat et bibit: non dijudicans corpus Domini. R. Deo gratias.

Graduale. Ps. 144, 15–16. Oculi omnium in te sperant, Domine: et tu das illis escam in tempore opportuno. V. Aperis tu manum tuam: et imples omne animal benedictione.

Epistle of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians.

rethren: For my part. I received from the Lord this tradition, and I handed it on to you: that the Lord Jesus, on the night when he was betrayed, took bread, and gave thanks and broke it, and said: This is my body offered up for you; do this to renew the memory of me; and in the same way, after the meal, he took the chalice and said: This chalice is the New Testament, made with my blood: whenever you drink it, do so to renew the memory of me. Since, then, whenever you eat this bread and drink this chalice, you are proclaiming the Lord's death in expectation of his coming, it follows that if anyone eats the bread or drinks the chalice of the Lord in an unworthy manner, he will be guilty of maltreating the body and blood of the Lord. So a man must examine himself, and only then eat the bread and drink the chalice. If he eats or drinks without recognising the Lord's body for what it is, he is eating and drinking his own condemnation. R. Thanks be to God.

Gradual. Ps. 144, 15-16. The eyes of all are on thee, Lord, in hope: and thou givest them their food in season. V. Thou openest thy hand, and fillest every creature with thy blessing.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. John 6, 56-57. My flesh is the true food, and my blood is the true drink. He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him.

Sequence

Sing forth, O Sion, sweetly sing
The praises of thy Shepherd-King
In hymns and canticles divine.
Dare all thou canst, thou hast no song Worthy his praises to prolong,
So far surpassing powers like thine.

Today no theme of common praise Forms the sweet burden of thy lays
The living, life-dispensing food
That food which at the sacred board Unto the brethren twelve Our Lord
His parting legacy bestowed.

CORPUS CHRISTI

Sit laus plena, sit sonora, Sit jucunda, sit decora
Mentis jubilatio:
Dies enim solemnis agitur,
In qua mensae prima recolitur
Hujus institutio.

In hac mensa novi Regis, Novum Pascha novae legis, Phase vetus terminat: Vetustatem novitas, Umbram fugat veritas, Noctem lux eliminat.

Quod in cena Christus gessit, Faciendum hoc expressit In sui memoriam: Docti sacris institutis, Panem, vinum in salutis Consecramus hostiam.

Dogma datur Christianis, Quod in carnem transit panis, Et vinum in sanguinem: Quod non capis, quod non vides, Animosa firmat fides, Praeter rerum ordinem.

Sub diversis speciebus, Signis tantum et non rebus,
Latent res eximiae:
Caro cibus, sanguis potus:
Manet tamen Christus totus
Sub utraque specie.

A sumente non concisus, Non confractus, non divisus, Integer accipitur: Sumit unus, sumunt mille, Quantum isti, tantum ille, Nec sumptus consumitur.

Sumunt boni, sumunt mali: Sorte tamen inaequali, Vitae vel interitus: Mors est malis, vita bonis, Vide paris sumptionis Quam sit dispar exitus. Then be the anthem clear and strong,
Thy fullest note, thy sweetest song,
The very music of the breast:
For now shines forth the day sublime
That brings remembrance of the time
When Jesus first his table blessed.

Within our new King's banquet-hall
They meet to keep the festival
That closed the ancient paschal rite:
The old is by the new replaced;
The substance hath the shadow chased;
And rising day dispels the night.

Christ willed what he himself had done Should be renewed while time should run, In memory of his parting hour: Thus, tutored in his school divine, We consecrate the bread and wine; And lo—a Host of saving power.

This faith to Christian men is given — Bread is made flesh by words from heaven; Into his blood the wine is turned: What though it baffles nature's powers Of sense and sight? This faith of ours Proves more than nature e'er discerned.

Concealed beneath the twofold sign, Meet symbols of the gifts divine, There lie the mysteries adored; The living body is our food; Our drink the ever-precious blood; In each, one undivided Lord.

Not he that eateth it divides
The sacred food, which whole abides
Unbroken still, nor knows decay;
Be one, or be a thousand fed,
They eat alike that living bread
Which, still received, ne'er wastes away.

The good, the guilty share therein,
With sure increase of grace or sin,
The ghostly life, or ghostly death:
Death to the guilty; to the good Immortal food. See how one food Man's joy or woe accomplisheth.

CORPORIS CHRISTI

Fracto demum sacramento, Ne vacilles, sed memento Tantum esse sub fragmento, Quantum toto tegitur: Nulla rei fit scissura, Signi tantum fit fractura, Qua nec status nec statura Signati minuitur.

Ecce panis Angelorum, Factus cibus viatorum;
Vere panis filiorum,
Non mittendus canibus:
In figuris praesignatur,
Cum Isaac immolatur:
Agnus paschae deputatur,
Datur manna patribus.

Bone pastor, panis vere, Jesu, nostri miserere; Tu nos pasce, nos tuere, Tu nos bona fac videre In terra viventium.

Tu, qui cuncta scis et vales, Qui nos pascis hic mortales, Tuos ibi commensales, Coheredes et sodales, Fac sanctorum civium. Amen. Alleluia.

Sacerdos, inclinatus in medio, dicit:

unda cor meum, ac labia mea, omnipotens Deus, qui labia Isaiae Prophetae calculo mundasti ignito: ita me tua grata miseratione dignare mundare, ut sanctum Evangelium tuum digne valeam nuntiare. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

Jube, Domine, benedicere.

Dominus sit in corde meo, et in labiis meis: ut digne et competenter annuntiem Evangelium suum. Amen.

Deinde conversus ad librum dicit:

C. Dominus vobiscum.
R. Et cum spiritu tuo.
C. Sequentia

sancti Evangelii secundum Joannem.

R. Gloria tibi, Domine.

We break the Sacrament; but bold And firm thy faith shall keep its hold; Deem not the whole doth more enfold Than in the fractured part resides. Deem not that Christ doth broken lie; 'Tis but the sight that meets the eye; The hidden deep reality

In all its fullness still abides.

Behold the bread of angels sent
For pilgrims in their banishment,
The bread for God's true children meant,
That may not unto dogs be given;
Oft in the olden types foreshowed;
In Isaac on the altar bowed,
And in the ancient paschal food
And in the manna sent from heaven.

Come then, good Shepherd, bread divine, Still show to us thy mercy sign; Oh, feed us still, still keep us thine; So we may see thy glories shine In fields of immortality;

O thou, the wisest, mightiest, best, Our present food, our future rest, Come, make us each thy chosen guest, Co-heirs of thine, and comrades blest, With saints whose dwelling is with thee. Amen. Alleluia.

The priest, bowing in the middle of the altar, says:

leanse my heart and my lips, almighty God, who didst cleanse the lips of the prophet Isaias with a glowing coal: in thy gracious mercy be pleased so to cleanse me, that I may worthily proclaim thy holy Gospel. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Pray, Lord, a blessing.

May the Lord be in my heart and on my lips that I may announce his Gospel worthily and well. Amen.

Turning to the book, he says:

- The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.
- C. A passage from \textstyle the holy Gospel according to John.
- R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

Joann. 6, 56-59

n illo tempore: Dixit Jesus turbis Judaeorum: Caro mea vere est cibus, et sanguis meus vere est potus. Qui manducat meam carnem, et bibit meum sanguinem, in me manet, et ego in illo. Sicut misit me vivens Pater, et ego vivo propter Patrem: et qui manducat me, et ipse vivet propter me. Hic est panis, qui de caelo descendit. Non sicut manducaverunt patres vestri manna, et mortui sunt. Qui manducat hunc panem, vivet in aeternum.

R. Laus tibi, Christe.

Sacerdos osculatur Evangelium, dicens:

Per evangelica dicta deleantur nostra delicta.

redo in unum Deum, Patrem omnipotentem, factorem caeli et terrae, visibilium omnium, et invisibilium. Et in unum Dominum Jesum Christum, Filium Dei unigenitum. Et ex Patre natum ante omnia saecula. Deum de Deo, lumen de lumine, Deum verum de Deo vero, Genitum, non factum, consubstantialem Patri: per quem omnia facta sunt. Qui propter nos homines, et propter nostram salutem descendit de caelis. (Hic genuflectitur) Et incarnatus est de Spiritu Sancto ex Maria Virgine: et homo factus est. Crucifixus etiam pro nobis: sub Pontio Pilato passus, et sepultus est. Et resurrexit tertia die, secundum Scripturas. Et ascendit in caelum: sedet ad dexteram Patris. Et iterum venturus est cum gloria judicare vivos, et mortuos: cujus regni non erit finis. Et in Spiritum Sanctum, Dominum, et vivificantem: qui ex Patre Filioque procedit. Qui cum Patre et Filio simul adoratur, et conglorificatur: qui locutus est per Prophetas. Et unam, sanctam, catholicam et apostolicam Ecclesiam. Confiteor unum baptisma in remissionem peccatorum. Et exspecto resurrectionem mortuorum. Et vitam venturi saeculi. Amen.

Deinde osculatur Altare et dicit:

C. Dominus vobiscum. R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

C. Oremus.

Offertorium. Levit. 21, 6. Sacerdotes Domini incensum et panes offerunt Deo: et ideo sancti erunt Deo suo, et non polluent nomen ejus, alleluja.

Sacerdos accipit Patenam cum Hostia, quam offerens dicit:

uscipe, sancte Pater, omnipotens aeterne Deus, hanc immaculatam hostiam, quam ego indignus famulus tuus offero tibi Deo meo vivo, et vero, pro innumerabilibus peccatis, et offensionibus, et negligentiis meis, et pro omnibus circumstantibus, sed et pro omnibus fidelibus christianis vivis atque defunctis: ut mihi, et illis proficiat ad salutem, in vitam aeternam. Amen.

John 6, 56-59

t that time: Jesus said to the Jews: My flesh is the true food, and my blood is the true drink. He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him. As I am sent by the living Father and live through the Father, so whoever eats me will live through me. Here is the bread descended from heaven. Your forefathers ate bread from heaven and died; but with this it is otherwise: whoever eats this bread will live for ever.

Praise to thee, O Christ.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world that is to come. Amen.

He kisses the altar and says:

C. The Lord be with you.

R. And with you also.

C. Let us pray.

Offertory. Levit. 21, 6. The priests of the Lord offer incense and bread to God; and therefore they will be holy to their God, and will not defile his name, alleluia.

The priest takes the paten with the Host, which he offers, saying:

Aquam benedicit signo Crucis, dicens:

eus, qui humanae substantiae dignitatem mirabiliter condidisti, et mirabilius reformasti: da nobis per hujus aquae et vini mysterium, ejus divinitatis esse consortes, qui humanitatis nostrae fieri dignatus est particeps, Jesus Christus Filius tuus Dominus noster: Qui tecum vivit et regnat in unitate Spiritus Sancti Deus: per omnia saecula saeculorum. Amen.

Accipit Calicem et offert, dicens:

fferimus tibi, Domine, calicem salutaris, tuam deprecantes clementiam: ut in conspectu divinae majestatis tuae, pro nostra et totius mundi salute cum odore suavitatis ascendat.

Aliquantulum inclinatus, dicit:

n spiritu humilitatis, et in animo contrito suscipiamur a te, Domine: et sic fiat sacrificium nostrum in conspectu tuo hodie, ut placeat tibi, Domine Deus.

eni, sanctificator omnipotens aeterne Deus (benedicit oblata, prosequendo) et bene dic hoc sacrificium, tuo sancto nomini praeparatum.

Sacerdos lavat manus, dicens:

Ps. 25, 6-12

avabo inter innocentes manus meas: et circumdabo altare tuum, Domine.

Ut audiam vocem laudís, et enarrem universa mirabilia tua. Domine, dilexi decorem domus tuae: et locum habitationis gloriae tuae.

Ne perdas cum impiis, Deus, animam meam: et cum viris sanguinum vitam meam.

In quorum manibus iniquitates sunt: dextera eorum repleta est muneribus.

Ego autem in innocentia mea ingressus sum: redime me, et miserere mei.

Pes meus stetit in directo: in ecclesiis benedicam te, Domine. Gloria Patri et Filio, et Spiritui Sancto. Sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et semper, et in saecula saeculorum. Amen.

Aliquantulum inclinatus, junctis manibus, dicit:

uscipe, sancta Trinitas, hanc oblationem, quam tibi offerimus ob memoriam passionis, resurrectionis, et ascensionis Jesu-Christi Domini nostri: et in honorem beatae Mariae semper Virginis, et beati Joannis Baptistae et sanctorum Apostolorum Petri et Pauli, et istorum, et omnium Sanctorum: ut illis proficiat ad honorem, nobis autem ad salutem: et illi pro nobis intercedere dignentur in caelis, quorum memoriam agimus in terris. Per eundem Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

He blesses the water with the sign of the Cross and says:

He takes the Chalice and offers it, saying:

thy gentle mercy, that for our own and the whole world's salvation it may ascend with a sweet fragrance in the sight of thy divine majesty. Amen.

Bowing slightly, he says:

ome, Sanctifier, almighty eternal God, (he blesses the offerings and continues) and he bless this sacrifice, prepared for thy holy name.

Whilst washing his hands, the priest says:

Ps. 25, 6-12

will wash my hands among the innocent and gather with them at thy altar, Lord;

To hear the song of praise and tell of all thy wonderful works. Lord, I have loved the beauty of thy house and the place where thy glory dwells.

Let not my soul, O God, be lost among the wicked nor my life with men of blood.

Their hands are steeped in evil; their right hands full of bribes.

For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me. My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord, I will bless thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Bowing slightly and joining his hands, he says:

Secret

raciously grant thy Church, we beg thee, Lord, the gifts of unity and peace, that are signified in the offerings we make thee: through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, (in a clear voice) for ever and ever. R. Amen.

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. Raise your hearts. R. They are raised to the Lord.

C. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

R. It is just and right.

The Common Preface

It is truly just and right, fitting and for our good, always and everywhere to give thanks to thee, Lord, holy Father, almighty eternal God, through Christ our Lord. Through him thy majesty is praised by Angels, adored by Dominations, revered by Powers. The heavens also, the Virtues and the holy Seraphim in exultant harmony proclaim it. Grant, we implore thee, that our voices also may be joined with theirs, in homage and supplication saying:

Joining his hands, he bows and says:

oly, Holy, Holy Lord God of Hosts. Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

NOW TURN TO THE CANON

The priest continues the Mass:

Since, then, whenever you eat this bread and drink this chalice, you are proclaiming the Lord's death in expectation of his Coming, it follows that if anyone eats the bread or drinks the chalice of the Lord in an unworthy manner, he is guilty of maltreating the body and blood of the Lord, alleluia.

Joann. 1, 1-14

The priest goes to the Gospel corner, and says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. The beginning of the holy Gospel according to John.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 1, 1-14

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

Epistle of blessed John the Apostle.

1 John 3, 13-18

eloved: Do not be surprised that the world hates you. We know that we have passed over from death to life, because we love the brethren. He who does not love remains in death. Whoever hates his brother is a murderer; and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding within him. We have learnt what charity is through this: that Christ laid down his life for us.

DOMINICA SECUNDA POST PENTECOSTEN

posuit: et nos debemus pro fratribus animas ponere. Qui habuerit substantiam hujus mundi, et viderit fratrem suum necessitatem habere et clauserit viscera sua ab eo: quomodo caritas Dei manet in eo? Filioli mei, non diligamus verbo neque lingua, sed opere et veritate. R. Deo gratias.

n illo tempore: Dixit Jesus pharisaeis parabolam hanc: Homo quidam fecit cenam magnam, et vocavit multos. Et misit servum suum hora cenae dicere invitatis ut venirent, quia jam parata sunt omnia. Et coeperunt simul omnes excusare. Primus dixit ei: Villam emi, et necesse habeo exire, et videre illam: rogo te, habe me excusatum. Et alter dixit: Juga boum emi quinque, et eo probare illa: rogo te, habe me excusatum. Et alius dixit: Uxorem duxi, et ideo non possum venire. Et reversus servus nuntiavit haec domino suo. Tunc iratus paterfamilias, dixit servo suo: Exi cito in plateas, et vicos civitatis: et pauperes, ac debiles, et caecos, et claudos introduc huc. Et ait servus: Domine, factum est ut imperasti, et adhuc locus est. Et ait Dominus servo: Exi in vias, et sepes: et compelle intrare, ut impleatur domus mea. Dico autem vobis, quod nemo virorum illorum, qui vocati sunt, gustabit cenam meam. R. Laus tibi, Christe.

Sacerdos osculatur Evangelium, dicens:

Per evangelica dicta deleantur nostra delicta.

SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

We too must lay down our lives for the brethren. If one who is rich in this world's goods sees his brother in need and closes his heart against him, how can the love of God be abiding in him? Dear children, let us not love in word and with the lips, but in deed and in truth. R. Thanks be to God.

Gradual. Ps. 119, 1-2. I cried to the Lord in my distress and he heard me. V. Deliver, Lord, my soul from wicked words and a crafty tongue.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 7, 2. In thee, Lord my God. I have hoped; save me from all who pursue me, and set me free. Alleluia.

The priest, bowing in the middle of the altar, says:

leanse my heart and my lips, almighty God, who didst cleanse the lips of the prophet Isaias with a glowing coal: in thy gracious mercy be pleased so to cleanse me, that I may worthily proclaim thy holy Gospel. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Pray, Lord, a blessing.

May the Lord be in my heart and on my lips that I may announce his Gospel worthily and well. Amen.

- C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.
- C. A passage from + the holy Gospel according to Luke.
- R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

Luke 14, 16-24

t that time: Jesus told the Pharisees the following parable: A man was giving a great banquet. He had invited many guests, and when the time came for the banquet, he sent out his servant to say to those who had been invited, Come now, because everything is ready. But all alike began excusing themselves. The first said: I have bought a field and must go out to see it; please hold me excused. Another said: I have bought five yoke of oxen, and am going to examine them; please hold me excused. And another said: I have just married, and therefore cannot come. So the servant came back and told his master. His master was angry and said to the servant: Go quickly into the streets and alleys of the city, and bring in here the poor, the crippled, the blind and the lame. When these orders had been carried out, the servant said: There is still room, sir. Then the master said to his servant: Go out into the highways and hedges and make them come in, so that my house may be filled. I tell you, not one of the men who were invited is going to taste my banquet. R. Praise to thee, O Christ.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world that is to come. Amen.

He kisses the altar and says:

C. The Lord be with you. R.

R. And with you also.

C. Let us pray.

Offertory. Ps. 6, 5. Turn to me, Lord, and save my life: save me for thy mercy's sake.

The priest takes the paten with the Host, which he offers, saying:

He blesses the water with the sign of the Cross and says:

He takes the Chalice and offers it, saying:

thy gentle mercy, that for our own and the whole world's salvation it may ascend with a sweet fragrance in the sight of thy divine majesty. Amen.

Aliquantulum inclinatus, dicit:

In spiritu humilitatis, et in animo contrito suscipiamur a te, Domine: et sic fiat sacrificium nostrum in conspectu tuo hodie, ut placeat tibi, Domine Deus.

eni, sanctificator omnipotens aeterne Deus (benedicit oblata, prosequendo) et bene 4 dic hoc sacrificium, tuo sancto nomini praeparatum.

Sacerdos lavat manus, dicens:

Ps. 25, 6-12

avabo inter innocentes manus meas: et circumdabo altare tuum, Domine.

Ut audiam vocem laudis, et enarrem universa mirabilia tua. Domine, dilexi decorem domus tuae: et locum habitationis gloriae tuae.

Ne perdas cum impiis, Deus, animam meam: et cum viris sanguinum vitam meam.

In quorum manibus iniquitates sunt: dextera eorum repleta est muneribus.

Ego autem in innocentia mea ingressus sum: redime me, et

Pes meus stetit in directo: in ecclesiis benedicam te, Domine. Gloria Patri et Filio, et Spiritui Sancto. Sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et semper, et in saecula saeculorum. Amen.

Aliquantulum inclinatus, junctis manibus, dicit:

uscipe, sancta Trinitas, hanc oblationem, quam tibi offerimus ob memoriam passionis, resurrectionis, et ascensionis Jesu Christi Domini nostri: et in honorem beatae Mariae semper Virginis, et beati Joannis Baptistae et sanctorum Apostolorum Petri et Pauli, et istorum, et omnium Sanctorum: ut illis proficiat ad honorem, nobis autem ad salutem: et illi pro nobis intercedere dignentur in caelis, quorum memoriam agimus in terris. Per eundem Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

Postea versus ad populum, voce paululum elevata, dicit:

rate fratres, ut meum ac vestrum sacrificium acceptabile fiat apud Deum Patrem omnipotentem. R. Suscipiat Dominus sacrificium de manibus tuis, ad laudem et gloriam nominis sui, ad utilitatem quoque nostram, totiusque Ecclesiae suae sanctae. Sacerdos dicit: Amen.

SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Bowing slightly, he says:

ome, Sanctifier, almighty eternal God, (he blesses the offerings and continues) and \(\frac{1}{2}\) bless this sacrifice, prepared for thy holy name.

Whilst washing his hands, the priest says: Ps. 25, 6-12

will wash my hands among the innocent and gather with them at thy altar. Lord:

To hear the song of praise and tell of all thy wonderful works. Lord, I have loved the beauty of thy house and the place where thy glory dwells.

Let not my soul, O God, be lost among the wicked nor my life with men of blood.

Their hands are steeped in evil; their right hands full of bribes. For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me. My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord, I will bless thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Bowing slightly and joining his hands, he says:

eceive, O holy Trinity, this offering which we make to thee in memory of the passion, resurrection and ascension of Jesus Christ our Lord, and in honour of the blessed Mary ever Virgin, of blessed John the Baptist, of the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, of those whose relics are here and of all the Saints; that it may bring honour to them and salvation to us; and may they, whose memory we keep on earth, be pleased to intercede for us in heaven: through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

He turns to the people, and says in a louder tone:

ray, brethren, that my sacrifice and yours may find acceptance with God the Father almighty. R. May the Lord receive the sacrifice from your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our welfare also, and that of all his holy Church. The priest says: Amen.

ay these gifts, O Lord, that are to be consecrated to thy name, purify us and daily transform our lives to a heavenly pattern: through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, (in a clear voice) for ever and ever. R. Amen.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

Joining his hands, he bows and says:

Joann. 1, 1-14

John 1, 1-14

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

R. Thanks be to God.

Epistle of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Ephesians.

Ephes. 3, 8-12, 14-19

rethren: To me, the least of all the saints, has fallen the privilege of preaching to the Gentiles the limitless wealth of Christ, and of shedding light for all on the mysterious plan that has been hidden from past ages in God, the creator of all. It was his will that the princedoms and powers in heaven should now be taught through the Church the manifold wisdom of God; for such was the eternal decree which he made in Christ Jesus our Lord. From him and through faith in him we have assurance and confident access to God. In gratitude for all this, I fall on my knees to the Father from whom every family in heaven and on earth has its being; and I pray that from the treasury of his glorious power he will strengthen you inwardly through his Spirit; that Christ may dwell through faith in your hearts; that you may be rooted in love and grounded in love; that you and all the saints

But when they came to Jesus, they saw that he was already dead, and did not break his legs, but one of the soldiers stabbed his side with a spear, and at once blood and water poured out. This is vouched for by one who saw it happen, whose testimony is reliable, and who knows that he is telling the truth, so that you too may believe. For these things happened in fulfilment of the Scripture which says: You shall not break a bone of him. And again another Scripture says: They shall look on him whom they have pierced. R. believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead. and the life of the world that is to come. Let not my soul, O God, be lost among the wicked nor my life with men of blood.

Their hands are steeped in evil; their right hands full of bribes. For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me.

My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord, I will bless thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. #### THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Let us pray.

Prayer

God, the protector of those who hope in thee, without whom nothing is strong, nothing holy, multiply thy mercies upon us, that with thee to govern and direct us, we may use the good things of this world without losing those of the next: through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever.

Amen.

Epistle of blessed Peter the Apostle.

1 Peter 5, 6-11

eloved: Humble yourselves beneath the mighty hand of God; then he will raise you up, when the time comes for your deliverance. Cast all your cares on him, because he is concerned for your good. Be sober and keep watch. Your enemy, the devil, is going about like a roaring lion in search of someone to devour. Resist him. Stand firm in the faith. Remember that the same sufferings are befalling your brethren throughout the world. When you have suffered a little, God, the giver of all grace, who has called you in Christ to his eternal glory, will make you firm, strong and unshakeable. To him belongs glory and power for ever and ever. Amen. R. Thanks be to God.

Gradual. Ps. 54, 23, 17, 19. Cast your cares upon the Lord and he will sustain you. V. When I cried to the Lord, he heard my voice in the midst of those who came against me.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 7, 12. God is a just judge, strong and patient. Can he be angry every day? Alleluia.

The priest, bowing in the middle of the altar, says:

Pray, Lord, a blessing.

May the Lord be in my heart and on my lips that I may announce his Gospel worthily and well. Amen.

Turning to the book, he says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. A passage from + the holy Gospel according to Luke.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

Luke 15, 1-10

illis. Et ait ad illos parabolam istam, dicens: Ouis ex vobis homo. qui habet centum oves: et si perdiderit unam ex illis, nonne dimittit nonagintanovem in deserto, et vadit ad illam, quae perierat, donec inveniat eam? Et cum invenerit eam, imponit in humeros suos gaudens: et veniens domum, convocat amicos et vicinos, dicens illis: Congratulamini mihi, quia inveni ovem meam, quae perierat? Dico vobis quod ita gaudium erit in caelo super uno peccatore poenitentiam agente, quam super nonagintanovem justis qui non indigent poenitentia. Aut quae mulier habens drachmas decem, si perdiderit drachmam unam, nonne accendit lucernam, et everrit domum, et quaerit diligenter, donec inveniat? Et cum invenerit, convocat amicas et vicinas, dicens: Congratulamini mihi, quia inveni drachmam, quam perdideram? Ita dico vobis: gaudium erit coram Angelis Dei super uno peccatore poenitentiam agente. R. Laus tibi. Christe.

Sacerdos osculatur Evangelium, dicens:

Per evangelica dicta deleantur nostra delicta.

redo in unum Deum, Patrem omnipotentem, factorem caeli et terrae, visibilium omnium, et invisibilium. Et in unum Dominum Jesum Christum, Filium Dei unigenitum. Et ex Patre natum ante omnia saecula. Deum de Deo, lumen de lumine, Deum verum de Deo vero. Genitum, non factum, consubstantialem Patri: per quem omnia facta sunt. Qui propter nos homines, et propter nostram salutem 'descendit de caelis. (Hic genuflectitur) Et incarnatus est de Spiritu Sancto ex Maria Virgine: et homo factus est. Crucifixus etiam pro nobis: sub Pontio Pilato passus, et sepultus est. Et resurrexit tertia die, secundum Scripturas. Et ascendit in caelum: sedet ad dexteram Patris. Et iterum venturus est cum gloria judicare vivos, et mortuos: cujus regni non erit finis. Et in Spiritum Sanctum, Dominum, et vivificantem: qui ex Patre Filioque procedit. Qui cum Patre et Filio simul adoratur, et conglorificatur: qui locutus est per Prophetas. Et unam, sanctam, catholicam et apostolicam Ecclesiam. Confiteor unum baptisma in remissionem peccatorum. Et exspecto resurrectionem mortuorum. Et vitam venturi saeculi. Amen.

Deinde osculatur Altare et dicit:

Dominus vobiscum. R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

Oremus.

Offertorium. Ps. 9, 11-12, 13. Sperent in te omnes, qui noverunt nomen tuum, Domine: quoniam non derelinquis quaerentes te: psallite Domino, qui habitat in Sion: quoniam non est oblitus orationem pauperum.

THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

table with them. Jesus therefore told them this parable: If any of you has a hundred sheep and loses one of them, does he not leave the ninety-nine in the desert and go after the lost one until he finds it? And when he finds it, does he not put it on his shoulders joyfully, and come home and call his friends and neighbours together and say to them: Rejoice with me, because I have found the sheep I had lost? I tell you that in the same way there will be rejoicing in heaven over the repentance of one sinner rather than over ninety-nine just men who have no need of repentance. Or if a woman has ten silver coins and loses one, does she not light a lamp and sweep the house and search carefully until she finds it? And when she finds it does she not call her friends and neighbours together and say, Rejoice with me, because I have found the coin I had lost? In the same way, I tell you, there is rejoicing among the angels of God over the repentance of one sinner.

Praise to thee. O Christ.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saving:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified: who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in one holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world that is to come. Amen.

He kisses the altar and says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. Let us pray.

Offertory, Ps. 9, 11-12, 13. May they who know thy name, Lord, trust in thee, for thou dost not desert those who seek thee; sing to the Lord who dwells in Sion, for he is not unmindful of the prayer of the poor.

Sacerdos accipit Patenam cum Hostia, quam offerens dicit:

Suscipe, sancte Pater, omnipotens aeterne Deus, hanc immaculatam hostiam, quam ego indignus famulus tuus offero tibi Deo meo vivo, et vero, pro innumerabilibus peccatis, et offensionibus, et negligentiis meis, et pro omnibus circumstantibus, sed et pro omnibus fidelibus christianis vivis atque defunctis: ut mihi, et illis proficiat ad salutem, in vitam aeternam. Amen.

Aquam benedicit signo Crucis, dicens:

eus, qui humanae substantiae dignitatem mirabiliter condidisti, et mirabilius reformasti: da nobis per hujus aquae et vini mysterium, ejus divinitatis esse consortes, qui humanitatis nostrae fieri dignatus est particeps, Jesus Christus Filius tuus Dominus noster: Qui tecum vivit et regnat in unitate Spiritus Sancti Deus: per omnia saecula saeculorum. Amen.

Accipit Calicem et offert, dicens:

fferimus tibi, Domine, calicem salutaris, tuam deprecantes clementiam: ut in conspectu divinae majestatis tuae, pro nostra et totius mundi salute cum odore suavitatis ascendat. Amen.

Aliquantulum inclinatus, dicit:

eni, sanctificator omnipotens aeterne Deus (benedicit oblata, prosequendo) et bene 4 dic hoc sacrificium, tuo sancto nomini praeparatum.

Sacerdos lavat manus, dicens:

Ps. 25, 6-12

avabo inter innocentes manus meas: et circumdabo altare tuum, Domine.

Ut audiam vocem laudis, et enarrem universa mirabilia tua. Domine, dilexi decorem domus tuae: et locum habitationis gloriae tuae.

Ne perdas cum impiis, Deus, animam meam: et cum viris sanguinum vitam meam.

In quorum manibus iniquitates sunt: dextera eorum repleta est muneribus.

Ego autem in innocentia mea ingressus sum: redime me, et miserere mei.

Pes meus stetit in directo: in ecclesiis benedicam, te Domine. Gloria Patri et Filio, et Spiritui Sancto. Sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et semper, et in saecula saeculorum. Amen.

THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

The priest takes the paten with the Host, which he offers, saying:

He blesses the water with the sign of the Cross and says:

He takes the Chalice and offers it, saying:

thy gentle mercy, that for our own and the whole world's salvation it may ascend with a sweet fragrance in the sight of thy divine majesty. Amen.

Bowing slightly, he says:

ome, Sanctifier, almighty eternal God, (he blesses the offerings and continues) and bless this sacrifice, prepared for thy holy name.

Whilst washing his hands, the priest says:

Ps. 25, 6-12

will wash my hands among the innocent and gather with them at thy altar, Lord;

To hear the song of praise and tell of all thy wonderful works. Lord, I have loved the beauty of thy house and the place where thy glory dwells.

Let not my soul, O God, be lost among the wicked nor my life with men of blood.

Their hands are steeped in evil; their right hands full of bribes.

For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me. My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord, I will bless thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Aliquantulum inclinatus, junctis manibus, dicit:

uscipe, sancta Trinitas, hanc oblationem, quam tibi offerimus ob memoriam passionis, resurrectionis, et ascensionis Jesu Christi Domini nostri: et in honorem beatae Mariae semper Virginis, et beati Joannis Baptistae et sanctorum Apostolorum Petri et Pauli, et istorum, et omnium Sanctorum; ut illis proficiat ad honorem, nobis autem ad salutem: et illi pro nobis intercedere dignentur in caelis, quorum memoriam agimus in terris. Per eundem Christum Dominum nostrum, Amen.

Postea versus ad populum, voce paululum elevata, dicit:

rate fratres, ut meum ac vestrum sacrificium acceptabile fiat apud Deum Patrem omnipotentem. R. Suscipiat Dominus sacrificium de manibus tuis, ad laudem et gloriam nominis sui, ad utilitatem quoque nostram, totiusque Ecclesiae suae sanctae. Sacerdos dicit: Amen.

Secreta

espice, Domine, munera supplicantis Ecclesiae: et saluti credentium perpetua sanctificatione sumenda concede. Per Dominum nostrum Jesum Christum, Filium tuum, qui tecum vivit et regnat in unitate Spiritus Sancti Deus, (clara voce dicit) per omnia saecula saeculorum. R. Amen.

Dominus vobiscum. R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

Sursum corda.

R. Habemus ad Dominum.

Gratias agamus Domino Deo nostro.

Dignum et justum est.

Praefatio de Sanctissima Trinitate

ere dignum et justum est, aequum et salutare, nos tibi semper et ubique gratias agere: Domine, sancte Pater, omnipotens aeterne Deus: Qui cum unigenito Filio tuo, et Spiritu Sancto, unus es Deus, unus es Dominus: non in unius singularitate personae sed in unius Trinitate substantiae. Quod enim de tua gloria, revelante te, credimus, hoc de Filio tuo, hoc de Spiritu Sancto, sine differentia discretionis sentimus. Ut in confessione verae sempiternaeque Deitatis, et in personis proprietas, et in essentia unitas, et in majestate adoretur aequalitas. Quam laudant Angeli, atque Archangeli, Cherubim quoque ac Seraphim: qui non cessant clamare quotidie, una voce dicentes:

Jungit manus, et inclinatus dicit:

anctus, Sanctus Dominus Deus Sabaoth. Pleni sunt caeli et terra gloria tua. Hosanna in excelsis. Benedictus qui venit in nomine Domini. Hosanna in excelsis.

Bowing slightly and joining his hands, he says:

eceive, O holy Trinity, this offering which we make to thee in memory of the passion, resurrection and ascension of Jesus Christ our Lord, and in honour of the blessed Mary ever Virgin, of blessed John the Baptist, of the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, of those whose relics are here and of all the Saints; that it may bring honour to them and salvation to us; and may they, whose memory we keep on earth, be pleased to intercede for us in heaven: through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

He turns to the people, and says in a louder tone:

ray, brethren, that my sacrifice and yours may find acceptance with God the Father almighty. R. May the Lord receive the sacrifice from your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our welfare also, and that of all his holy Church. The priest says: Amen.

Secret

ook, Lord, upon the gifts of thy suppliant Church, and for the salvation of those that believe, grant that our partaking may bring perpetual sanctification; through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, (in a clear voice) for ever and ever. R. Amen.

The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

Raise your hearts. R. They are raised to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is just and right.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

Joining his hands, he bows and says:

Toly, Holy, Holy Lord God of Hosts. Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. John 1, 1-14

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive Epistle of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Romans.

Rom. 8, 18-23

rethren: I regard the sufferings of the present time as of no account in comparison with the glory that will be revealed to us. Creation is waiting with eager expectation to behold the unveiling of the glory of God's sons. For Creation has been subjected to frustration, not through her own choice, but through him who made her subject, yet with the hope that she too will one day be freed from the slavery of decay and enter the freedom of the glory that belongs to God's children; for the whole of Creation, we know, is groaning in birth-pangs even to this hour. And what is more, we ourselves, although we have the first-fruits of the Spirit, we too groan within ourselves, while we await our adoption as sons through the deliverance of our bodies, in Christ Jesus our Lord. R. Thanks be to God.

Gradual. Ps. 78, 9, 10. Show mercy, Lord, upon our sins, lest the gentiles come to say: Where is their God? V. Help us, God of our salvation, and deliver us, Lord, for the glory of thy name. Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 9, 5, 10. O God, who sits upon the throne and gives right judgement, be the shelter of the poor in their distress. Alleluia.

The priest, bowing in the middle of the altar, says:

leanse my heart and my lips, almighty God, who didst cleanse the lips of the prophet Isaias with a glowing coal: in thy gracious mercy be pleased so to cleanse me, that I may worthily proclaim thy holy Gospel. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Pray, Lord, a blessing.

May the Lord be in my heart and on my lips that I may announce his Gospel worthily and well. Amen.

Luke 5, 1-11

t that time: When Jesus was standing by the side of Lake Gennesareth and the crowd was pressing about him to hear the word of God, he saw two small boats riding at the water's edge; the fishermen had landed and were washing their nets. One of the boats was Simon's. Jesus stepped into it and asked Simon to put off a little from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the people from the boat. When he had finished talking, he said to Simon: Head out into the deep water, and lower your nets for a catch. Simon answered: Master, we worked all night hoc fecissent, concluserunt piscium multitudinem copiosam: rumpebatur autem rete eorum. Et annuerunt sociis, qui erant in alia navi, ut venirent et adjuvarent eos. Et venerunt, et impleverunt ambas naviculas, ita ut pene mergerentur. Quod cum videret Simon Petrus, procidit ad genua Jesu, dicens: Exi a me, quia homo peccator sum, Domine. Stupor enim circumdederat eum et omnes qui cum illo erant, in captura piscium, quam ceperant: similiter autem Jacobum et Joannem, filios Zebedaei, qui erant socii Simonis. Et ait ad Simonem Jesus: Noli timere: ex hoc jam homines eris capiens. Et subductis ad terram navibus, relictis omnibus, secuti sunt eum. R. Laus tibi, Christe.

long and caught nothing; but since you give the word, I will lower the nets. They did so, and took a huge haul of fish. Their nets were almost breaking, so they made signals to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. They came and filled both boats to the point of sinking. When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at Jesus' knees and said: Go away from me, Lord; I am a sinner. He and all his crew were seized with awe over the catch of fish they had made; so too were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were Simon's partners. But Jesus said to Simon: Have no fear; from now on you will catch men. They beached the boats, then left everything and followed Jesus.

believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead: and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son: who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world that is to come. It is truly just and right, fitting and for our good, always and everywhere to give thanks to thee, Lord, holy Father, almighty eternal God; who with thine only-begotten Son and the Holy Spirit art one God, one Lord, not in the singleness of one person, but in the one substance of the Trinity. For whatever through thy revelation we believe concerning thy glory, that also we hold both of thy Son and of the Holy Spirit, without distinction or difference; so that in confessing the true and everlasting Godhead, we adore each several person, and at the same time their one substance and their equal majesty; which the Angels praise and the Archangels, the Cherubim too and Seraphim, who never cease to cry out every day, saying with one voice:

Omnia per ipsum facta sunt, et sine ipso factum est nihil, quod factum est: in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, et lux in tenebris lucet, et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. Fuit homo missus a Deo, cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine ejus, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. (Genuflectit dicens) Et Verbum caro factum est, (et surgens prosequitur) et habitavit in nobis: et vidimus gloriam ejus, gloriam quasi Unigeniti a Patre, plenum gratiae et veritatis. Deo gratias.

C. The beginning of the holy Gospel according to John.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 1, 1-14

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saving) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. R. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 20, 1. Lord, in thy strength the king shall rejoice and he shall greatly exult in thy salvation. Alleluia.

The priest, bowing in the middle of the altar, says:

leanse my heart and my lips, almighty God, who didst cleanse the lips of the prophet Isaias with a glowing coal: in thy gracious mercy be pleased so to cleanse me, that I may worthily proclaim thy holy Gospel. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Pray, Lord, a blessing.

May the Lord be in my heart and on my lips that I may announce his Gospel worthily and well. Amen.

Turning to the book, he says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. A passage from * the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

Matth. 5, 20-24

t that time: Jesus said to his disciples: Unless you far surpass the Scribes and Pharisees in justice, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven at all. You have heard that the men of old were told: You shall not commit murder, and whoever commits murder will be liable to judgement. I now tell you, that anyone who is angry with his brother will be liable to judgement; whoever insults his brother will be liable to trial before the Sanhedrin: and whoever calls him a fool will be liable to suffer the fires of hell. If you are at the altar, making an offering there, and you remember that your brother has something against you, then leave your gift there in front of the altar. First go off and make peace with your brother, and then come back and make your offering. R. Praise to thee, O Christ.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church, I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead. and the life of the world that is to come. Amen.

He kisses the altar and says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. Let us pray.

Offertory. Ps. 15, 7, 8. I will bless the Lord, who gave me understanding; I kept the Lord always before my sight, for he is at my right hand, lest I be troubled.

The priest takes the paten with the Host, which he offers, saying:

He blesses the water with the sign of the Cross and says:

He takes the Chalice and offers it, saying:

thy gentle mercy, that for our own and the whole world's salvation it may ascend with a sweet fragrance in the sight of thy divine majesty. Amen.

Aliquantulum inclinatus, dicit:

eni, sanctificator omnipotens aeterne Deus (benedicit oblata, prosequendo) et bene dic hoc sacrificium, tuo sancto nomini praeparatum.

Sacerdos lavat manus, dicens:

Ps. 25, 6-12

avabo inter innocentes manus meas: et circumdabo altare tuum, Domine.

Ut audiam vocem laudis, et enarrem universa mirabilia tua. Domine, dilexi decorem domus tuae: et locum habitationis gloriae tuae.

Ne perdas cum impiis, Deus, animam meam: et cum viris sanguinum vitam meam.

In quorum manibus iniquitates sunt: dextera eorum repleta est muneribus.

Ego autem in innocentia mea ingressus sum: redime me, et miserere mei.

Pes meus stetit in directo: in ecclesiis benedicam te, Domine. Gloria Patri et Filio, et Spiritui Sancto. Sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et semper, et in saecula saeculorum. Amen.

Aliquantulum inclinatus, junctis manibus, dicit:

Per eundem Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

Postea versus ad populum, voce paululum elevata, dicit:

Whilst washing his hands, the priest says:

Ps. 25, 6-12

To hear the song of praise and tell of all thy wonderful works. Lord, I have loved the beauty of thy house and the place where thy glory dwells.

Let not my soul, O God, be lost among the wicked nor my life with men of blood.

Their hands are steeped in evil; their right hands full of bribes. For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me. My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord, I will bless thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Bowing slightly and joining his hands, he says:

Amen.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

It is truly just and right, fitting and for our good, always and everywhere to give thanks to thee, Lord, holy Father, almighty eternal God; who with thine only-begotten Son and the Holy Spirit art one God, one Lord, not in the singleness of one person, but in the one substance of the Trinity. For whatever through thy revelation we believe concerning thy glory, that also we hold both of thy Son and of the Holy Spirit, without distinction or difference; so that in confessing the true and everlasting Godhead, we adore each several person, and at the same time their one substance and their equal majesty; which the Angels praise and the Archangels, the Cherubim too and Seraphim, who never cease to cry out every day, saving with one voice:

Joining his hands, he bows and says:

oly, Holy, Holy Lord God of Hosts. Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

NOW TURN TO THE CANON

Ps. 27, 8-9

Introitus

ominus fortitudo plebis suae, et protector salutarium Christi sui est: salvum fac populum tuum, Domine, et benedic hereditati tuae, et rege eos usque in saeculum. Ps. ibid., 1. The priest bows, and prays silently, saying:

ay the homage of my service, O holy Trinity, be pleasing to thee; and grant that the sacrifice, which I, though unworthy, have offered in the sight of thy majesty, may be acceptable to thee, and through thy mercy bring forgiveness to me and all for whom I have offered it. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Turning to the people, he says in blessing:

- R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 1, 1-14

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world. and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name. to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

R. Thanks be to God.

Lord Jesus Christ the only-begotten Son, Lord God, Son of the Father, Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; who takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayers; who sittest at the Father's right hand, have mercy on us. R. Amen.

Epistle of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Romans.

Rom. 6, 3-11 rethren: Are you unaware that all of us, when we were baptised into Christ Jesus, were plunged into his death? By our baptism we have been buried with Christ in death, in order that just as he has been raised from the dead by the Father's glorious power, so we too may walk in newness of life. If we have been united to him in a death that is a symbol of his, we shall also be united with him in his risen life. I mean that the reason why our old man was crucified with him was to withdraw our body from Sin's influence and to deliver us from slavery to Sin (for by death a man is justified from Sin). If then we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall live with him. We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more; death no longer has any power over him. In his death he died to Sin, once and for all; in his life he lives for God. So you too must reckon yourselves dead to Sin, and living for God in Jesus Christ our Lord. R. Thanks be to God.

Et responderunt ei discipuli sui: Unde illos quis poterit hic saturare panibus in solitudine? Et interrogavit eos: Quot panes habetis? Qui dixerunt: Septem. Mark 8, 1-9 t that time: There was again a great crowd and they had nothing to eat. Jesus called the disciples to him and said to them: My heart is touched with pity for the people, because they have been with me now three days and have nothing to eat. If I send them home fasting, they will faint on the way, because some of them have come a long way. His disciples replied: How can anyone find enough bread for all these people in a lonely place like this? He asked them: How many loaves have you? And they replied: Seven. He ordered the people to recline on the ground. Then he took the loaves and gave thanks and broke them, and gave them to his disciples to distribute, and they handed them to the people. They also had a few small fish. So he blessed them and gave word to serve them out as well. The people ate and had their fill. Then they gathered up seven baskets full of pieces that were left over. The people numbered about four thousand; and he dismissed them. R. Praise to thee, O Christ.

Sacerdos accipit Patenam cum Hostia, quam offerens dicit:

uscipe, sancte Pater, omnipotens aeterne Deus, hanc immaculatam hostiam, quam ego indignus famulus tuus offero tibi Deo meo vivo, et vero, pro innumerabilibus peccatis, et offensionibus, et negligentiis meis, et pro omnibus circumstantibus, sed et pro omnibus fidelibus christianis vivis atque defunctis: ut mihi, et illis proficiat ad salutem, in vitam aeternam. Amen.

Aquam benedicit signo Crucis, dicens:

Accipit Calicem et offert, dicens:

fferimus tibi, Domine, calicem salutaris, tuam deprecantes clementiam: ut in conspectu divinae majestatis tuae, pro nostra et totius mundi salute cum odore suavitatis ascendat.

God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world that is to come. Amen.

He kisses the altar and says:

C. The Lord be with you.

R. And with you also.

C. Let us pray.

Offertory. Ps. 16, 5, 6-7. Keep my feet on thy path that my steps may not stumble; listen to my prayer and hear me, show the wonders of thy mercy, Lord, who keepest safe those that trust in thee.

The priest takes the paten with the Host, which he offers, saying:

He blesses the water with the sign of the Cross and says:

He takes the Chalice and offers it, saying:

thy gentle mercy, that for our own and the whole world's salvation it may ascend with a sweet fragrance in the sight of thy divine majesty. Amen.

Aliquantulum inclinatus, dicit:

n spiritu humilitatis, et in animo contrito suscipiamur a te, Domine: et sic fiat sacrificium nostrum in conspectu tuo hodie, ut placeat tibi, Domine Deus.

eni, sanctificator omnipotens aeterne Deus (benedicit oblata, prosequendo) et bene dic hoc sacrificium, tuo sancto nomini praeparatum.

Sacerdos lavat manus, dicens:

Ps. 25, 6-12

avabo inter innocentes manus meas: et circumdabo altare tuum, Domine.

Ut audiam vocem laudis, et enarrem universa mirabilia tua. Domine, dilexi decorem domus tuae: et locum habitationis gloriae tuae.

Ne perdas cum impiis, Deus, animam meam: et cum viris sanguinum vitam meam.

In quorum manibus iniquitates sunt: dextera eorum repleta est muneribus.

Ego autem in innocentia mea ingressus sum: redime me, et miserere mei.

Pes meus stetit in directo: in ecclesiis benedicam te, Domine. Gloria Patri et Filio, et Spiritui Sancto. Sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et semper, et in saecula saeculorum. Amen.

Aliquantulum inclinatus, junctis manibus, dicit:

uscipe, sancta Trinitas, hanc oblationem, quam tibi offerimus ob memoriam passionis, resurrectionis, et ascensionis Jesu Christi Domini nostri: et in honorem beatae Mariae semper Virginis, et beati Joannis Baptistae et sanctorum Apostolorum Petri et Pauli, et istorum, et omnium Sanctorum: ut illis proficiat ad honorem, nobis autem ad salutem: et illi pro nobis intercedere dignentur in caelis, quorum memoriam agimus in terris. Per eundem Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

Postea versus ad populum, voce paululum elevata, dicit:

rate fratres, ut meum ac vestrum sacrificium acceptabile fiat apud Deum Patrem omnipotentem.

R. Suscipiat Dominus sacrificium de manibus tuis, ad laudem et gloriam nominis sui, ad utilitatem quoque nostram, totiusque Ecclesiae suae sanctae. Sacerdos dicit: Amen.

Whilst washing his hands, the priest says:

Ps. 25, 6-12

To hear the song of praise and tell of all thy wonderful works. Lord, I have loved the beauty of thy house and the place where thy glory dwells.

Let not my soul, O God, be lost among the wicked nor my life with men of blood.

Their hands are steeped in evil; their right hands full of bribes. For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me. My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord, I will bless thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Bowing slightly and joining his hands, he says:

Amen.

He turns to the people, and says in a louder tone:

t is truly just and right, fitting and for our good, always and everywhere to give thanks to thee, Lord, holy Father, almighty eternal God; who with thine only-begotten Son and the Holy Spirit art one God, one Lord, not in the singleness of one person, but in the one substance of the Trinity. For whatever through thy revelation we believe concerning thy glory, that also we hold both of thy Son and of the Holy Spirit, without distinction or difference; so that in confessing the true and everlasting Godhead, we adore each several person, and at the same time their one substance and their equal majesty; which the Angels praise and the Archangels, the Cherubim too and Seraphim, who never cease to cry out every day, saying with one voice:

In principio erat Verbum, et Verbum erat apud Deum, et Deus erat Verbum. Hoc erat in principio apud Deum. Omnia per ipsum facta sunt, et sine ipso factum est nihil, quod factum est: in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, et lux in tenebris lucet, et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. Fuit homo missus a Deo, cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine ejus, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. (Genuflectit dicens) Et Verbum caro factum est, (et surgens prosequitur) et habitavit in nobis: et vidimus gloriam eius, gloriam quasi Unigeniti a Patre, plenum gratiae et veritatis. R. Deo gratias.

in the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name. to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

rethren: I speak in human fashion because of your natural weakness. In the past you offered your limbs as slaves to impurity and wickedness, to multiply wickedness; so now you must offer your limbs as slaves to justice, to advance in holiness. While you were slaves of Sin, you were free from the control of Justice; and what return did you then have from the deeds of which you are now ashamed? The end to which they lead is death. But now that you have been emancipated from Sin and enslaved to God, the fruit you gain is advance in holiness; and the end is eternal life. Sin's slaves receive death as wages; God's slaves receive eternal life as a gift, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Whilst washing his hands, the priest says: Ps. 25, 6-12

will wash my hands among the innocent and gather with them at thy altar, Lord;

To hear the song of praise and tell of all thy wonderful works. Lord, I have loved the beauty of thy house and the place where thy glory dwells.

Let not my soul, O God, be lost among the wicked nor my life with men of blood.

Their hands are steeped in evil; their right hands full of bribes. For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me. My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord, I will bless thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Bowing slightly and joining his hands, he says:

eceive, O holy Trinity, this offering which we make to thee in memory of the passion, resurrection and ascension of Jesus Christ our Lord, and in honour of the blessed Mary ever Virgin, of blessed John the Baptist, of the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, of those whose relics are here and of all the Saints; that it may bring honour to them and salvation to us; and may they, whose memory we keep on earth, be pleased to intercede for us in heaven: through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

He turns to the people, and says in a louder tone:

ray, brethren, that my sacrifice and yours may find acceptance with God the Father almighty. R. May the Lord receive the sacrifice from your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our welfare also, and that of all his holy Church. The priest says: Amen.

Secret

God, who for the sake of one perfect sacrifice hast ratified the manifold offerings of the old law, accept this sacrifice of thy devoted servants, as thou didst receive Abel's, and sanctify it with the same blessing, so that what each of us has offered to the honour of thy majesty, may further the salvation of all: through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, (in a clear voice) for ever and ever. R. Amen.

The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

Raise your hearts. R. They are raised to the Lord.

C. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

R. It is just and right.

Quod enim de tua gloria, revelante te, credimus, hoc de Filio tuo, hoc de Spiritu Sancto, sine differentia discretionis sentimus. Ut in confessione verae sempiternaeque Deitatis, et in personis proprietas, et in essentia unitas, et in majestate adoretur aequalitas. #### SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Preface of the Holy Trinity

Joining his hands, he bows and says:

oly, Holy, Holy Lord God of Hosts. Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

NOW TURN TO THE CANON

The priest continues the Mass:

Communion. Ps. 30, 3. Listen to my prayer, make haste to rescue me.

He kisses the altar and says:

C. The Lord be with you.

R. And with you also.

Let us pray.

Postcommunion

C. Go, the Mass is ended.

R. And with you also.

R. Thanks be to God.

The priest bows, and prays silently, saying:

Versus ad populum, benedicens, prosequitur:

Benedicat vos omnipotens Deus, Pater, et Filius, + et Spiritus Sanctus. R. Amen.

Sacerdos in cornu Evangelii, dicit:

- Gloria tibi, Domine.

Joann. 1, 1-14

n principio erat Verbum, et Verbum erat apud Deum, et Deus erat Verbum. Hoc erat in principio apud Deum. Omnia per ipsum facta sunt, et sine ipso factum est nihil, quod factum est: in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, et lux in tenebris lucet, et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. Fuit homo missus a Deo, cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine ejus, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. (Genuflectit dicens) Et Verbum caro factum est, (et surgens prosequitur) et habitavit in nobis: et vidimus gloriam ejus, gloriam quasi Unigeniti a Patre, plenum gratiae et veritatis.

Deo gratias.

Turning to the people, he says in blessing:

The priest goes to the Gospel corner, and says:

The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

The beginning of the holy Gospel according to John.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 1, 1-14

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God. and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. R. Thanks be to God.

Ait autem villicus intra se: Quid faciam, quia dominus meus aufert a me villicationem? fodere non valeo, mendicare erubesco. Scio quid faciam, ut, cum amotus fuero a villicatione, recipiant me in domos suas. Convocatis itaque singulis debitoribus domini sui, dicebat primo: Quantum debes domino meo? At ille dixit: Centum cados olei. Dixitque illi: Accipe cautionem tuam: et sede cito, scribe quinquaginta. Deinde alii dixit: Tu vero quantum debes? Qui ait: Centum coros tritici. Ait illi: Accipe litteras tuas, et scribe octoginta. Et laudavit dominus villicum iniquitatis, quia prudenter fecisset: quia filii hujus saeculi prudentiores filiis lucis in generatione sua sunt. May the Lord be in my heart and on my lips that I may announce his Gospel worthily and well. Amen.

Turning to the book, he says:

The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. A passage from \( \frac{1}{2} \) the holy Gospel according to Luke.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

Luke 16, 1-9

t that time: Jesus told his disciples this parable. A rich man had a steward who had been denounced to him for squandering his possessions. So he called the steward and said to him: What is this I hear about you? Give an account of your stewardship, because you can remain steward no longer. The steward said to himself: What am I going to do, now that my master is taking the stewardship away from me? I cannot dig, and I am ashamed to beg. I know what I shall do. I shall make sure that when I am removed from the stewardship, people will welcome me into their houses. So he summoned his master's debtors one by one. He asked the first: How much do you owe my master? and the man replied: A thousand gallons of oil. The steward said to him: Here is your account; sit down at once and write five hundred. Then he asked another: How much do you owe? He answered: A hundred bushels of wheat. The steward said to him: Here is your account; write eighty. Now the master praised his dishonest steward for the shrewdness of his action; for in dealing with the generation to which they belong, the sons of this world are shrewder than the sons of light. So I urge you to use your ill-gotten wealth to make friends who, when it is gone, will welcome you into their eternal homes.

R. Praise to thee, O Christ.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. R. Dignum et justum est.

EIGHTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Whilst washing his hands, the priest says: Ps. 25, 6-12

will wash my hands among the innocent and gather with them at thy altar, Lord:

To hear the song of praise and tell of all thy wonderful works. Lord, I have loved the beauty of thy house and the place where thy glory dwells.

Let not my soul, O God, be lost among the wicked nor my life with men of blood.

Their hands are steeped in evil; their right hands full of bribes. For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me. My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord, I will bless thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Bowing slightly and joining his hands, he says:

eceive, O holy Trinity, this offering which we make to thee in memory of the passion, resurrection and ascension of Jesus Christ our Lord, and in honour of the blessed Mary ever Virgin, of blessed John the Baptist, of the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, of those whose relics are here and of all the Saints; that it may bring honour to them and salvation to us; and may they, whose memory we keep on earth, be pleased to intercede for us in heaven: through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

He turns to the people, and says in a louder tone:

ray, brethren, that my sacrifice and yours may find acceptance with God the Father almighty. May the Lord receive the sacrifice from your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our welfare also, and that of all his holy Church. The priest says: Amen.

ccept we beg thee, Lord, the gifts that we offer thee from thy bounty, so that, through the working of thy grace, these holy mysteries may sanctify our conduct in this present life and lead us to everlasting joy: through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, (in a clear voice) for ever and ever. R. Amen.

The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

Raise your hearts. R. They are raised to the Lord.

C. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

R. It is just and right.

Praefatio de Sanctissima Trinitate

ere dignum et justum est, aequum et salutare, nos tibi semper et ubique gratias agere: Domine, sancte Pater, omnipotens aeterne Deus: Qui cum unigenito Filio tuo, et Spiritu Sancto, unus es Deus, unus es Dominus: non in unius singularitate personae sed in unius Trinitate substantiae. Quod enim de tua gloria, revelante te, credimus, hoc de Filio tuo, hoc de Spiritu Sancto, sine differentia discretionis sentimus. Ut in confessione verae sempiternaeque Deitatis, et in personis proprietas, et in essentia unitas, et in majestate adoretur aequalitas. #### EIGHTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Preface of the Holy Trinity

Joining his hands, he bows and says:

oly, Holy, Holy Lord God of Hosts. Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

NOW TURN TO THE CANON

The priest continues the Mass:

Communion. Ps. 33, 9. Taste and see that the Lord is sweet; blessed is the man who trusts in him.

He kisses the altar and says:

C. The Lord be with you.

R. And with you also.

Let us pray.

Postcommunion

ay this heavenly sacrament, Lord, renew us in mind and body, that we may feel the power of the mystery we celebrate: through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. R. Amen.

C. The Lord be with you. Go. the Mass is ended.

R. And with you also.

R. Thanks be to God.

The priest bows, and prays silently, saying:

Versus ad populum, benedicens, prosequitur:

C. Benedicat vos omnipotens Deus, Pater, et Filius, + et Spiritus Sanctus. R. Amen.

Sacerdos in cornu Evangelii, dicit:

- Dominus vobiscum. R. Et cum spiritu tuo.
- H Initium sancti Evangelii secundum Joannem.
- Gloria tibi, Domine.

Joann. 1, 1-14

n principio erat Verbum, et Verbum erat apud Deum, et Deus erat Verbum. Hoc erat in principio apud Deum. Omnia per ipsum facta sunt, et sine ipso factum est nihil, quod factum est: in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, et lux in tenebris lucet, et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. Fuit homo missus a Deo. cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine ejus, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. (Genuflectit dicens) Et Verbum caro factum est, (et surgens prosequitur) et habitavit in nobis: et vidimus gloriam ejus, gloriam quasi Unigeniti a Patre, plenum gratiae et veritatis.

Deo gratias.

NINTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Turning to the people, he says in blessing:

May Almighty God, Father, and Son, * and Holy Spirit. bless vou. R. Amen.

The priest goes to the Gospel corner, and says:

- The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.
- The beginning of the holy Gospel according to John.
- Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 1, 1-14

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God. and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world. and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

Thanks be to God.

ratres: Non simus concupiscentes malorum, sicut et illi concupierunt. Neque idololatrae efficiamini, sicut quidam ex ipsis: quemadmodum scriptum est. Sedit populus manducare et bibere, et surrexerunt ludere. Neque fornicemur, sicut quidam ex ipsis fornicati sunt, et ceciderunt una die viginti tria millia. Neque tentemus Christum, sicut quidam eorum tentaverunt, et a serpentibus perierunt. Neque murmuraveritis, sicut quidam eorum murmuraverunt, et perierunt ab exterminatore. #### NINTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Then in the middle of the altar he says:

lory to God in the heavens, and on earth peace to men of goodwill. We praise thee, we bless thee, we adore thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father almighty. Lord Jesus Christ the only-begotten Son, Lord God, Son of the Father, Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; who takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayers; who sittest at the Father's right hand, have mercy on us. For thou alone art holy, thou alone art Lord, thou alone art the most high: Jesus Christ with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

He kisses the altar and says:

C. The Lord be with you.

R. And with you also.

Let us pray.

Prayer

e attentive, Lord, in thy mercy, to the prayers of thy suppliant people, and make them ask what is pleasing to thee, that thou mayst grant what they desire: through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. R. Amen.

Epistle of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians.

rethren: We must not fix our desires on evil, as our fathers did; nor relapse into idolatry, as some of them did (for the Scripture says: The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play); nor commit fornication, as some of them did (and twenty-three thousand met their deaths on one day); nor tempt the Lord, as some of them did (and they were killed by snakes); nor grumble, as some of them did (and they were killed by the destroying angel). All those things which happened to them had a figurative sense, and were written down for the instruction of ourselves, who live at the end of the ages. The lesson is that the man who thinks that he stands secure must beware of a fall. So far you have encountered no temptation that is more than man can bear. And God is to be trusted: he will not allow you to be tempted beyond your strength. With temptation he will give you the means of escaping from it, so that you will be able to persevere. R. Thanks be to God.

Gradual. Ps. 8, 2. Lord, our Lord, how marvellous is thy name in all the earth! V. For thy glory is raised above the heavens. Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 58, 2. Deliver me, my God, from my enemies and set me free from those who come against me. Alleluia.

Sacerdos, inclinatus in medio, dicit:

unda cor meum, ac labia mea, omnipotens Deus, qui labia Isaiae Prophetae calculo mundasti ignito: ita me tua grata miseratione dignare mundare, ut sanctum Evangelium tuum digne valeam nuntiare. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

Jube, Domine, benedicere.

Dominus sit in corde meo, et in labiis meis: ut digne et competenter annuntiem Evangelium suum. Amen.

Deinde conversus ad librum dicit:

C. Dominus vobiscum. R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

C. Sequentia + sancti Evangelii secundum Lucam.

R. Gloria tibi, Domine.

Luc. 19, 41-47

n illo tempore: Cum appropinquaret Jesus Jerusalem, videns civitatem, flevit super illam, dicens: Quia si cognovisses et tu, et quidem in hac die tua, quae ad pacem tibi, nunc autem abscondita sunt ab oculis tuis. Quia venient dies in te: et circumdabunt te inimici tui vallo, et circumdabunt te: et coangustabunt te undique: et ad terram prosternent te, et filios tuos, qui in te sunt, et non relinquent in te lapidem super lapidem: eo quod non cognoveris tempus visitationis tuae. Et ingressus in templum, coepit ejicere vendentes in illo et ementes, dicens illis: Scriptum est: Quia domus mea domus orationis est. Vos autem fecistis illam speluncam latronum. Et erat docens quotidie in templo.

R. Laus tibi, Christe.

Sacerdos osculatur Evangelium, dicens:

Per evangelica dicta deleantur nostra delicta.

NINTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

The priest, bowing in the middle of the altar, says:

leanse my heart and my lips, almighty God, who didst cleanse the lips of the prophet Isaias with a glowing coal: in thy gracious mercy be pleased so to cleanse me, that I may worthily proclaim thy holy Gospel. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Pray, Lord, a blessing.

May the Lord be in my heart and on my lips that I may announce his Gospel worthily and well. Amen.

Turning to the book, he says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. A passage from * the holy Gospel according to Luke.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

Luke 19, 41-47

t that time: Jesus was approaching Jerusalem. When he saw the city, he wept over it: If you only knew today, he said, the things that make for peace. As it is, they are hidden from your eyes. The days will come when your enemies will erect a rampart against you, and encircle you and hem you in on every side. They will dash you to the ground, you and your children within you, and will not leave one stone upon another, because you did not recognise the day when the Lord visited you. Then he went into the temple, and drove out those who were trading there. He said to them: The Scripture says, My house shall be a house of prayer; but you have turned it into a den of thieves. Then, day by day, he was teaching in the temple.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in one,

baptisma in remissionem peccatorum. Et exspecto resurrectionem mortuorum. Et vitam venturi saeculi. Amen.

Deinde osculatur Altare et dicit:

C. Dominus vobiscum. R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

C. Oremus.

Sacerdos accipit Patenam cum Hostia, quam offerens dicit:

uscipe, sancte Pater, omnipotens aeterne Deus, hanc immaculatam hostiam, quam ego indignus famulus tuus offero tibi Deo meo vivo, et vero, pro innumerabilibus peccatis, et offensionibus, et negligentiis meis, et pro omnibus circumstantibus, sed et pro omnibus fidelibus christianis vivis atque defunctis: ut mihi, et illis proficiat ad salutem, in vitam aeternam. Amen.

Aquam benedicit signo Crucis, dicens:

eus, qui humanae substantiae dignitatem mirabiliter condidisti, et mirabilius reformasti: da nobis per hujus aquae et vini mysterium, ejus divinitatis esse consortes, qui humanitatis nostrae fieri dignatus est particeps, Jesus Christus Filius tuus Dominus noster: Qui tecum vivit et regnat in unitate Spiritus Sancti Deus: per omnia saecula saeculorum. Amen.

Accipit Calicem et offert, dicens:

fferimus tibi, Domine, calicem salutaris, tuam deprecantes clementiam: ut in conspectu divinae majestatis tuae, pro nostra et totius mundi salute cum odore suavitatis ascendat. Amen.

Aliquantulum inclinatus, dicit:

eni, sanctificator omnipotens aeterne Deus (benedicit oblata, prosequendo) et bene dic hoc sacrificium, tuo sancto nomini praeparatum.

Sacerdos lavat manus, dicens:

R. And with you also.

C. Let us pray.

Offertory. Ps. 18, 9, 10, 11, 12. The justice of the Lord is without bias, making glad our hearts, and his judgements are sweeter than honey and the honeycomb, for thy servant keepeth them.

The priest takes the paten with the Host, which he offers, saying:

He blesses the water with the sign of the Cross and says:

He takes the Chalice and offers it, saying:

e offer thee, O Lord, the chalice of salvation, beseeching thy gentle mercy, that for our own and the whole world's salvation it may ascend with a sweet fragrance in the sight of thy divine majesty. Amen.

Bowing slightly, he says:

ome, Sanctifier, almighty eternal God, (he blesses the offerings and continues) and he bless this sacrifice, prepared for thy holy name.

Whilst washing his hands, the priest says:

Ps. 25, 6-12

will wash my hands among the innocent and gather with them at thy altar, Lord;

Domine, dilexi decorem domus tuae: et locum habitationis gloriae tuae.

Ne perdas cum impiis, Deus, animam meam: et cum viris sanguinum vitam meam.

In quorum manibus iniquitates sunt: dextera eorum repleta est muneribus.

Ego autem in innocentia mea ingressus sum: redime me, et miserere mei.

Pes meus stetit in directo: in ecclesiis benedicam te, Domine. Gloria Patri et Filio, et Spiritui Sancto. Sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et semper, et in saecula saeculorum. Amen.

Aliquantulum inclinatus, junctis manibus, dicit:

Ouscipe, sancta Trinitas, hanc oblationem, quam tibi offerimus ob memoriam passionis, resurrectionis, et ascensionis Jesu Christi Domini nostri: et in honorem beatae Mariae semper Virginis, et beati Joannis Baptistae et sanctorum Apostolorum Petri et Pauli, et istorum, et omnium Sanctorum: ut illis proficiat ad honorem, nobis autem ad salutem: et illi pro nobis intercedere dignentur in caelis, quorum memoriam agimus in terris. Per eundem Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

Postea versus ad populum, voce paululum elevata, dicit:

rate fratres, ut meum ac vestrum sacrificium acceptabile fiat apud Deum Patrem omnipotentem.

John 1, 1-14

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God. and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world. and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saving) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. R. Thanks be to God.

Epistle of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians.

rethren: You remember that when you were Gentiles and went off to dumb idols, you followed any impulse that seized you. That is why I warn you that a man is not moved by the Spirit of God if he cries: Let Jesus be anathema; and nobody can say: Jesus is Lord, unless he is moved by the Holy Spirit. There are various kinds of spiritual gifts, but all are from the same Spirit; there are various kinds of ministry too, but all from the same Lord; and there are various kinds of good work, but all from the same God who is at work in all of us in our every action. Each man is given his own manifestation of the Spirit, for the common good. One man receives from the Spirit the gift of speaking with wisdom, another receives the gift of speaking with knowledge according to the same Spirit, another receives the charisma of believing, still from the same Spirit, another is given powers of healing, again by the same Spirit, another is given the gift of working miracles, another can prophesy, another can distinguish the good spirit from the bad, another can speak in strange languages, another can interpret these languages. All these gifts are the work of one and the same Spirit, who apportions them to each one separately, just as he wishes. R. Thanks be to God.

Gradual. Ps. 16, 8, 2. Keep me, Lord, as the apple of thine eye, shelter me in the shadow of thy wings. V. May my vindication come from thee, may thine eyes see the right.

The priest, bowing in the middle of the altar, says:

leanse my heart and my lips, almighty God, who didst cleanse the lips of the prophet Isaias with a glowing coal: in thy gracious mercy be pleased so to cleanse me, that I may worthily proclaim thy holy Gospel. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Pray, Lord, a blessing.

May the Lord be in my heart and on my lips that I may announce his Gospel worthily and well. Amen.

Turning to the book, he says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. A passage from \( \frac{1}{2} \) the holy Gospel according to Luke.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

Luke 18, 9-14

t that time: Jesus told this parable to certain self-righteous persons who deemed themselves just, and despised the rest. Two men went up into the temple to pray; one was a Pharisee, the other a tax-collector. The Pharisee stood there and prayed to himself like this: O God, I render thanks to thee that I am not like the rest of men: greedy, lawless, adulterers; or like this tax-collector here. I fast twice a week, and I pay tithes on the whole of my income. But the tax-collector stood at a distance and would not so much as raise his eyes to heaven, but kept beating his breast and repeating: O God, be merciful to me, sinner that I am. I tell you, he, rather than the other, went home justified. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted. R. Praise to thee, O Christ.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saving:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

baptisma in remissionem peccatorum. Et exspecto resurrectionem mortuorum. Et vitam venturi saeculi. Amen.

Amen.

Aquam benedicit signo Crucis, dicens:

Accipit Calicem et offert, dicens:

Amen.

He blesses the water with the sign of the Cross and says:

He takes the Chalice and offers it, saying:

Bowing slightly, he says:

ome, Sanctifier, almighty eternal God, (he blesses the offerings and continues) and bless this sacrifice, prepared for thy holy name.

Whilst washing his hands, the priest says:

John 1, 1-14

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God. and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world. and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

Thanks be to God.

Lectio Epistolae beati Pauli Apostoli ad Corinthios.

ratres: Notum vobis facio Evangelium, quod praedicavi vobis, quod et accepistis, in quo et statis, per quod et salvamini: qua ratione praedicaverim vobis, si tenetis, nisi frustra credidistis. Tradidi enim vobis in primis, quod et accepi: quoniam Christus mortuus est pro peccatis nostris secundum Scripturas: et quia sepultus est, et quia resurrexit tertia die secundum Scripturas: et quia visus est Cephae, et post hoc undecim. Deinde visus est plus quam quingentis fratribus simul, ex quibus multi manent usque adhuc, quidam autem dormierunt. Deinde visus est Jacobo, deinde Apostolis omnibus: novissime autem omnium tamquam abortivo, visus est et mihi. Ego enim sum minimus Apostolorum, qui non sum dignus vocari Apostolus, quoniam persecutus sum Ecclesiam Dei. Gratia autem Dei sum id quod sum, et gratia ejus in me vacua non fuit.

Graduale. Ps. 27, 7, 1. In Deo speravit cor meum, et adjutus sum: et refloruit caro mea, et ex voluntate mea confitebor illi. V. Ad te, Domine, clamavi: Deus meus, ne sileas, ne discedas a me. Alleluja, alleluja, V. Ps. 80, 2-3. Exsultate Deo adjutori nostro, jubilate Deo Jacob: sumite psalmum jucundum cum cithara. Alleluja.

Sacerdos, inclinatus in medio, dicit:

Epistle of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians.

1 Cor. 15, 1-10

rethren: Let me impress upon you the gospel which I preached to you and you accepted. You have placed your trust in it. and, as I told you in my preaching, if you remember, it is the means of your salvation, unless your belief in it has been fruitless. The substance of what I handed on to you, and what I had myself received, was that Christ died for our sins, as the Scriptures had foretold; that he was buried and then rose on the third day, again as the Scriptures had foretold; and that he was seen by Cephas. then by the Twelve, then by over five hundred brethren at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he was seen by James, then by all the apostles, and last of all by me, an ill-formed child, born suddenly. For I am the least of the apostles, and do not really deserve my title of apostle, because I once persecuted the church of God. And yet, by his grace I am that which I am, and his grace has not been wasted in me. R. Thanks be to God.

Gradual. Ps. 27, 7, 1. My heart hath trusted in God, and I am strengthened and my body is refreshed, and willingly I shall praise him. V. To thee, Lord, have I cried; be not deaf to me, do not leave me.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 80, 2-3. Cry with joy to God our help, hymn the God of Jacob, sing a joyful psalm to the harp. Alleluia.

The priest, bowing in the middle of the altar, says:

leanse my heart and my lips, almighty God, who didst cleanse the lips of the prophet Isaias with a glowing coal: in thy gracious mercy be pleased so to cleanse me, that I may worthily proclaim thy holy Gospel. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Jube, Domine, benedicere.

Dominus sit in corde meo, et in labiis meis: ut digne et competenter annuntiem Evangelium suum. Amen.

ELEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Pray, Lord, a blessing.

May the Lord be in my heart and on my lips that I may announce his Gospel worthily and well. Amen.

Turning to the book, he says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. A passage from \( \frac{1}{2} \) the holy Gospel according to Mark.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

Mark 7, 31-37

t that time: Jesus left the territory of Tyre and came back again by way of Sidon to the Sea of Galilee, through the middle of the territory of the Decapolis. They brought to him a man who was deaf and had a speech impediment, and begged him to lay his hands on him. Jesus took him aside from the crowd, put his fingers into the man's ears, and spat on his fingers and touched the man's tongue. Then looking up to heaven he sighed deeply and said to him: Ephphatha, that is, Be opened. At once the man's ears were opened and the impediment of his tongue was resolved, and he began to speak normally. Jesus charged them not to tell anyone about it; but the more he charged them, the more freely they continued to proclaim it. Their astonishment was unbounded, and they said: Everything he has done is wonderful: he makes the deaf hear and the dumb speak.

R. Praise to thee, O Christ.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world that is to come. Amen.

Deinde osculatur Altare et dicit:

C. Dominus vobiscum. R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

Amen.

Aquam benedicit signo Crucis, dicens:

Amen.

Accipit Calicem et offert, dicens:

Amen.

He blesses the water with the sign of the Cross and says:

Per eundem Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

Postea versus ad populum, voce paululum elevata, dicit:

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world. and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name. to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. R. Thanks be to God.

Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father almighty. Lord Jesus Christ the only-begotten Son, Lord God, Son of the Father, Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; who takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayers; who sittest at the Father's right hand, have mercy on us. For thou alone art holy, thou alone art Lord, thou alone art the most high: Jesus Christ with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

lmighty and merciful God, by whose gift thy faithful are able to serve and praise thee, grant, we beg thee, that we may run, without falling, towards thy promises: through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. Epistle of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians.

rethren: The confidence in God's sight which is given to me through Christ is of this sort: it does not mean that I am able to initiate any thought on my own account; my ability is from God, who has made me an able minister of the New Covenant, not a written Covenant but a spiritual one. Now the written Covenant brings death; it is the Spirit that brings life. If then Moses' death-bringing ministry of promulgating a Law written in letters on stone was surrounded with such splendour that the Israelites could not look him in the face, because of the glory of his countenance, a glory that was already passing away, will not the ministry by which we propagate the Spirit be far more glorious still? If a ministry which brought condemnation was glorious, the ministry which imparts justice must be immeasurably richer in glory. Thanks be to God.

Dico enim vobis quod multi prophetae et reges voluerunt videre quae vos videtis, et non viderunt: et audire quae auditis, et non audierunt. Et ecce quidam legisperitus surrexit, tentans illum, et dicens: Magister, quid faciendo vitam aeternam possidebo? At ille dixit ad eum: In lege quid scriptum est? quomodo legis? Ille respondens, dixit: Diliges Dominum Deum tuum ex toto corde tuo, et ex tota anima tua, et ex omnibus viribus tuis, et ex omni mente tua: et proximum tuum sicut teipsum. Dixitque illi: Recte respondisti: hoc fac, et vives. Ille autem volens justificare seipsum, dixit ad Jesum: Et quis est meus proximus? Suscipiens autem Jesus, dixit: Homo quidam descendebat ab Jerusalem in Jericho, et incidit in latrones, qui etiam despoliaverunt eum: et plagis impositis abierunt, semivivo relicto. Accidit autem ut sacerdos quidam descenderet eadem via: et viso illo praeterivit. Similiter et levita, cum esset secus locum et videret eum, pertransiit. Samaritanus autem quidam iter faciens, venit secus eum: et videns eum, misericordia motus est. Et appropians, alligavit vulnera eius, infundens oleum et vinum: et imponens illum in jumentum suum, duxit in stabulum, et curam ejus egit. Pray, Lord, a blessing.

Turning to the book, he says:

The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

A passage from + the holy Gospel according to Luke.

Glory to thee, O Lord.

Luke 10, 23-37

t that time: Jesus said to his disciples: Blessed are the eves that see what you are seeing. I tell you, many prophets and kings wanted to see the things that you are seeing and did not see them, and to hear the things that you are hearing and did not hear them. Then a lawyer rose and put a question to test him: Master, he asked, what must I do to gain eternal life? Jesus replied: In the law what is written? What do you read there? He answered: Love the Lord your God with your whole heart, and with your whole soul, and with your whole strength, and with your whole mind; and your neighbour as yourself. Jesus said to him: You have answered rightly; do this and you will have life. The lawyer, however, wishing to justify himself, said to Jesus: But who is my neighbour? Jesus gave him this answer: A man on his way down from Jerusalem to Jericho fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him and beat him and went away leaving him half dead. Now a priest happened to be going down that way; he saw him, and passed by. A Levite too came along the road; he saw him. and passed by. But a Samaritan on his travels came upon him, saw him, and was filled with pity. He went over to him, bound up his wounds and poured oil and wine on them, then put him astride his own mount and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. Next day, he took out two silver pieces and gave them to the inn-keeper. Look after him, he said, and anything that you spend over and above this, I will repay you on my return. Now which of these three, do you think, proved himself a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers? He said: The one who showed him pity. Jesus replied: Go and do as he did.

R. Praise to thee, O Christ. The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead: and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son: who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in one. holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world that is to come. Amen.

Offertory. Exodus 32, 11, 13, 14. Moses prayed in the sight of the Lord his God, and said: Why, Lord, art thou angry with thy people? Put thy wrath from thy heart: remember Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, to whom thou didst swear to give a land flowing with milk and honey. And the Lord was appeased and refrained from the mischief he said he would do to his people.

The priest takes the paten with the Host, which he offers, saying:

He blesses the water with the sign of the Cross and says:

Accipit Calicem et offert, dicens:

fferimus tibi, Domine, calicem salutaris, tuam deprecantes clementiam: ut in conspectu divinae majestatis tuae, pro nostra et totius mundi salute cum odore suavitatis ascendat.

Pes meus stetit in directo: in ecclesiis benedicam te, Domine. Gloria Patri et Filio, et Spiritui Sancto. Sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et semper, et in saecula saeculorum. Amen.

Aliquantulum inclinatus, junctis manibus, dicit:

Suscipe, sancta Trinitas, hanc oblationem, quam tibi offerimus ob memoriam passionis, resurrectionis, et ascensionis Jesu Christi Domini nostri: et in honorem beatae Mariae semper Virginis, et beati Joannis Baptistae et sanctorum Apostolorum Petri et Pauli, et istorum, et omnium Sanctorum: ut illis proficiat ad honorem, nobis autem ad salutem: et illi pro nobis intercedere dignentur in caelis, quorum memoriam agimus in terris. Per eundem Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

Postea versus ad populum, voce paululum elevata, dicit:

ome, Sanctifier, almighty eternal God, (he blesses the offerings and continues) and he bless this sacrifice, prepared for thy holy name.

Whilst washing his hands, the priest says:

Ps. 25, 6-12

will wash my hands among the innocent and gather with them at thy altar, Lord;

To hear the song of praise and tell of all thy wonderful works. Lord, I have loved the beauty of thy house and the place where thy glory dwells.

Let not my soul, O God, be lost among the wicked nor my life with men of blood.

Their hands are steeped in evil; their right hands full of bribes.

For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me. My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord, I will bless thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Bowing slightly and joining his hands, he says:

eceive, O holy Trinity, this offering which we make to thee in memory of the passion, resurrection and ascension of Jesus Christ our Lord, and in honour of the blessed Mary ever Virgin, of blessed John the Baptist, of the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, of those whose relics are here and of all the Saints; that it may bring honour to them and salvation to us; and may they, whose memory we keep on earth, be pleased to intercede for us in heaven: through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

He turns to the people, and says in a louder tone:

ray, brethren, that my sacrifice and yours may find acceptance with God the Father almighty.

R. May the Lord receive the sacrifice from your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our welfare also, and that of all his holy Church. The priest says: Amen.

Joining his hands, he bows and says:

In principio erat Verbum, et Verbum erat apud Deum, et Deus erat Verbum. Hoc erat in principio apud Deum. Omnia per ipsum facta sunt, et sine ipso factum est nihil, quod factum est: in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, et lux in tenebris lucet, et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. Fuit homo missus a Deo, cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Ouotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine ejus, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. #### TWELFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Let us pray.

Postcommunion

ay the reception of thy sacraments, Lord, we beg thee, give us life and bring us both forgiveness and protection: through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. R. Amen.

The Lord be with you.

And with you also.

Go, the Mass is ended. Thanks be to God.

The priest bows, and prays silently, saying:

ay the homage of my service, O holy Trinity, be pleasing to thee; and grant that the sacrifice, which I, though unworthy, have offered in the sight of thy majesty, may be acceptable to thee, and through thy mercy bring forgiveness to me and all for whom I have offered it. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Turning to the people, he says in blessing:

C. May Almighty God, Father, and Son, A and Holy Spirit, bless you. R. Amen.

The priest goes to the Gospel corner, and says:

The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

The beginning of the holy Gospel according to John.

Glory to thee, O Lord.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God. and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saving) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

R. Thanks be to God.

Epistle of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Galatians.

Gal. 3, 16-22

rethren: The promises were made to Abraham and to his seed. The Scripture does not say: To his seeds; which would suggest many heirs, but: To his seed; which points to one, namely Christ. What I mean is this: the Covenant was ratified by facta est lex, non irritum facit ad evacuandam promissionem. Nam si ex lege hereditas, jam non ex promissione. Abrahae autem per repromissionem donavit Deus. Quid igitur lex? Propter transgressiones posita est, donec veniret semen, cui promiserat, ordinata per Angelos in manu mediatoris. Mediator autem unius non est: Deus autem unus est. Lex ergo adversus promissa Dei? Absit. Si enim data esset lex quae posset vivificare, vere ex lege esset justitia. Sed conclusit Scriptura omnia sub peccato, ut promissio ex fide Jesu Christi daretur credentibus. R. Deo gratias.

Graduale. Ps. 73, 20, 19, 22. Respice, Domine, in testamentum tuum: et animas pauperum tuorum ne obliviscaris in finem. V. Exsurge, Domine, et judica causam tuam: memor esto opprobrii servorum tuorum.

Luc. 17, 11-19

n illo tempore: Dum iret Jesus in Jerusalem, transibat per mediam Samariam et Galilaeam. Et, cum ingrederetur quoddam castellum, occurrerunt ei decem viri leprosi, qui steterunt a longe; et levaverunt vocem dicentes: Jesu praeceptor, miserere nostri. Quos ut vidit, dixit: Ite, ostendite vos sacerdotibus. Et factum est, dum irent, mundati sunt. Unus autem ex illis, ut vidit quia mundatus est, regressus est, cum magna voce magnificans Deum, et cecidit in faciem ante pedes ejus, gratias agens: et hic erat Samaritanus. God: and the Law, which was given four hundred and thirty vears later, does not nullify the Covenant and thereby make the promise fruitless. For if coming into the inheritance depends on fulfilment of the Law, the inheritance is no longer given in fulfilment of a promise. But it is by way of a promise and as a free gift that God has given the inheritance to Abraham. What then is the purpose of the Law? It was added to make sins into transgressions, and to last until the coming of the Seed to whom the promise had been made. It was promulgated through angels, who in turn used a mediator; it was not given by God himself, for a mediator implies more than one, whereas God is one. Is then the Law a rival to God's promises? Heaven forbid. For if a Law had been given that had power to impart life, justice would in truth be from the Law. The written Law has but delivered up all men to Sin, and has done so in order that the promise may be given to believers through faith in Jesus Christ. R. Thanks be to God.

Gradual. Ps. 73, 20, 19, 22. Remember, Lord, thy covenant and desert not for ever the souls of thy poor. V. Arise, Lord, and defend thy cause, be mindful of the humiliations of thy servants. Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 89, 1. Thou, Lord, hast been our refuge from generation to generation.

The priest, bowing in the middle of the altar, says:

leanse my heart and my lips, almighty God, who didst cleanse the lips of the prophet Isaias with a glowing coal: in thy gracious mercy be pleased so to cleanse me, that I may worthily proclaim thy holy Gospel. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Pray, Lord, a blessing.

May the Lord be in my heart and on my lips that I may announce his Gospel worthily and well. Amen.

Turning to the book, he says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

A passage from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

Luke 17, 11-19

t that time: While Jesus was on his journey to Jerusalem, he passed between Samaria and Galilee. He was entering one of the villages, when he was met by ten lepers, who stood at a distance and raised their voices, crying: Jesus, Master, have pity on us. Jesus saw them and said: Go and show yourselves to the priests. They went; and on the way they were made clean. One of them, when he saw that he had been cured, came back praising God in a loud voice, and fell prostrate at Jesus' feet, and thanked him. Now this man was a Samaritan. So Jesus said: Were not all believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages: God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead. and the life of the world that is to come. Let not my soul, O God, be lost among the wicked nor my life with men of blood.

Their hands are steeped in evil; their right hands full of bribes.

For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me. My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord, I will bless thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Amen.

Postea versus ad populum, voce paululum elevata, dicit:

Joining his hands, he bows and says:

Gloria tibi, Domine.

Joann. 1, 1-14

n principio erat Verbum, et Verbum erat apud Deum, et Deus erat Verbum. Hoc erat in principio apud Deum. Omnia per ipsum facta sunt, et sine ipso factum est nihil, quod factum est: in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, et lux in tenebris lucet, et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. Fuit homo missus a Deo, cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine ejus, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. (Genuflectit dicens) Et Verbum caro factum est, (et surgens prosequitur) et habitavit in nobis: et vidimus gloriam ejus, gloriam quasi Unigeniti a Patre, plenum gratiae et veritatis.

R. Deo gratias.

The priest bows, and prays silently, saying:

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Turning to the people, he says in blessing:

C. May Almighty God, Father, and Son, A and Holy Spirit, bless you. R. Amen.

The priest goes to the Gospel corner, and says:

The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

The beginning of the holy Gospel according to John.

Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 1, 1-14

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saving) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

R. Thanks be to God.

flesh. These two are in conflict with each other, and that is why you do not always accomplish what you will. If you are guided by the Spirit, you are not under the Law. It is clear which are the works of the flesh: they are fornication, impurity, licentiousness, idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, fits of anger, quarrels, dissensions, factions, envy, drunkenness, orgies, and other such things. I warn you in advance, as I did before, that those who do things of that sort will not inherit the kingdom of God. But the fruits of the Spirit are charity, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, fidelity, gentleness, self-control. There is no law against things of this sort. Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. R. Thanks be to God.

Gradual. Ps. 117, 8-9. It is better to put trust in the Lord, rather than in men. V. It is better to put hope in the Lord rather than in princes.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 94, 1. Come, let us exult in the Lord and be jubilant in God our Saviour. Alleluia.

The priest, bowing in the middle of the altar, says:

leanse my heart and my lips, almighty God, who didst cleanse the lips of the prophet Isaias with a glowing coal: in thy gracious mercy be pleased so to cleanse me, that I may worthily proclaim thy holy Gospel. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Pray, Lord, a blessing.

May the Lord be in my heart and on my lips that I may announce his Gospel worthily and well. Amen.

Turning to the book, he says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. A passage from \( \frac{1}{2} \) the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

Glory to thee, O Lord.

Matth. 6, 24-33

t that time: Jesus said to his disciples: No one can serve two masters; he will either hate one and love the other, or be loyal to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and Money. This is why I say to you: do not be anxious about what you eat or drink for the support of your life, nor about what clothes you wear for the good of your body: is not your life something greater than its food, and your body something greater than its clothing? And look at the birds of heaven: they do not sow, or reap, or gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father looks after them. Are you not much more valuable than they are? And which of you, by careful thought, can add eighteen inches to his height? Why are you anxious about your dress? Consider how the lilies of the field grow: they do not labour, they do not spin; and agri, quod hodie est, et cras in clibanum mittitur, Deus sic vestit: quanto magis vos modicae fidei? Nolite ergo solliciti esse, dicentes: Quid manducabimus, aut quid bibemus, aut quo operiemur? Haec enim omnia gentes inquirunt. Scit enim Pater vester quia his omnibus indigetis. Quaerite ergo primum regnum Dei et justitiam eius: et haec omnia adjicientur vobis.

Sacerdos osculatur Evangelium, dicens:

Per evangelica dicta deleantur nostra delicta.

redo in unum Deum, Patrem omnipotentem, factorem caeli et terrae, visibilium omnium, et invisibilium. Et in unum Dominum Jesum Christum, Filium Dei unigenitum. Et ex Patre natum ante omnia saecula. Deum de Deo, lumen de lumine, Deum verum de Deo vero. Genitum, non factum, consubstantialem Patri: per quem omnia facta sunt. Qui propter nos homines, et propter nostram salutem descendit de caelis. (Hic genuflectitur) Et incarnatus est de Spiritu Sancto ex Maria Virgine: et homo factus est. Crucifixus etiam pro nobis: sub Pontio Pilato passus, et sepultus est. Et resurrexit tertia die, secundum Scripturas. Et ascendit in caelum: sedet ad dexteram Patris. Et iterum venturus est cum gloria judicare vivos, et mortuos: cujus regni non erit finis. Et in Spiritum Sanctum, Dominum, et vivificantem: qui ex Patre Filioque procedit. Qui cum Patre et Filio simul adoratur, et conglorificatur: qui locutus est per Prophetas. Et unam, sanctam, catholicam et apostolicam Ecclesiam. Confiteor unum baptisma in remissionem peccatorum. Et exspecto resurrectionem mortuorum. Et vitam venturi saeculi. Amen.

Deinde osculatur Altare et dicit:

C. Oremus.

Offertorium. Ps. 33, 8-9. Immittet Angelus Domini in circuitu timentium eum, et eripiet eos: gustate et videte quoniam suavis est Dominus.

Sacerdos accipit Patenam cum Hostia, quam offerens dicit:

uscipe, sancte Pater, omnipotens aeterne Deus, hanc immaculatam hostiam, quam ego indignus famulus tuus offero tibi Deo meo vivo, et vero, pro innumerabilibus peccatis, et offensionibus, et negligentiis meis, et pro omnibus circumstantibus, sed et pro omnibus fidelibus christianis vivis atque defunctis: ut mihi, et illis proficiat ad salutem, in vitam aeternam. Amen.

yet I tell you, not even Solomon in all his glory was dressed as splendidly as one of these. If then God clothes in this way the grass of the field which lives today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not do even more for you, you men of little faith? So do not ask, What are we going to eat? or what are we going to drink? or what are we going to wear? Those are the things that the Gentiles are bent upon. Do not be anxious, for your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. Seek first his kingdom and his justice; then all these things will be given to you in addition. R. Praise to thee, O Christ.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:
Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world that is to come. Amen.

He kisses the altar and says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. Let us pray.

Offertory, Ps. 33, 8-9. The Angel of the Lord will stand on guard about those who fear him and will rescue them; taste and see that the Lord is sweet.

The priest takes the paten with the Host, which he offers, saying:

Amen.

Accipit Calicem et offert, dicens:

fferimus tibi, Domine, calicem salutaris, tuam deprecantes clementiam: ut in conspectu divinae majestatis tuae, pro nostra et totius mundi salute cum odore suavitatis ascendat.

Aliquantulum inclinatus, junctis manibus, dicit:

Per eundem Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

He blesses the water with the sign of the Cross and says:

He takes the Chalice and offers it, saying:

e-offer thee, O Lord, the chalice of salvation, beseeching thy gentle mercy, that for our own and the whole world's salvation it may ascend with a sweet fragrance in the sight of thy divine majesty. Amen.

Bowing slightly, he says:

ome, Sanctifier, almighty eternal God, (he blesses the offerings and continues) and bless this sacrifice, prepared for thy holy name.

Whilst washing his hands, the priest says:

Ps. 25, 6-12

will wash my hands among the innocent and gather with them at thy altar, Lord;

To hear the song of praise and tell of all thy wonderful works. Lord, I have loved the beauty of thy house and the place where thy glory dwells.

Let not my soul, O God, be lost among the wicked nor my life with men of blood.

Their hands are steeped in evil; their right hands full of bribes.

For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me. My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord, I will bless thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Bowing slightly and joining his hands, he says:

Postea versus ad populum, voce paululum elevata, dicit:

rate fratres, ut meum ac vestrum sacrificium acceptabile fiat apud Deum Patrem omnipotentem.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

Joining his hands, he bows and says:

Gloria tibi, Domine.

Joann. 1, 1-14

n principio erat Verbum, et Verbum erat apud Deum, et Deus erat Verbum. Hoc erat in principio apud Deum. Omnia per ipsum facta sunt, et sine ipso factum est nihil, quod factum est: in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, et lux in tenebris lucet, et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. Fuit homo missus a Deo, cui nomen erat Joannes. Ĥic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine ejus, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Turning to the people, he says in blessing:

C. May Almighty God, Father, and Son, * and Holy Spirit, bless you. R. Amen.

The priest goes to the Gospel corner, and says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

The beginning of the holy Gospel according to John.

Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 1, 1-14

R. Thanks be to God.

gentleness, bearing in mind that you too may be tempted. Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfil the Law of Christ. If anyone thinks he is something, he is deceiving himself, because he is nothing. Let each man examine his own conduct: then, if he has any cause to boast, it will be in himself alone, and not in comparing himself to his neighbour. Each man must carry whatever load is assigned to himself. A man who is being instructed in the Word must share with his teacher all good things that he has. Do not deceive yourselves: God cannot be cheated. A man will reap whatever he sows. If he sows for his flesh, he will reap from the flesh a harvest of ruin: but if he sows for the Spirit, he will reap from the Spirit a harvest of eternal life. We must not weary of doing what is right. In due time we shall reap our harvest, if we do not weaken. Therefore, as opportunity offers, let us do good to all men, but especially to the members of the household of the faith. Thanks be to God.

When the Lord saw her, his heart was touched with pity for her, and he said to her: Do not weep. Then he went up and touched the bier. The bearers stopped, and Jesus said: Young man, I bid you, rise up. The dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him to his mother. All were

n principio erat Verbum, et Verbum erat apud Deum, et Deus erat Verbum. Hoc erat in principio apud Deum. Omnia per ipsum facta sunt, et sine ipso factum est nihil, quod factum est: in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, et lux in tenebris lucet, et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. Fuit homo missus a Deo, cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine ejus, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. The priest goes to the Gospel corner, and says:

C. The beginning of the holy Gospel according to John.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 1, 1-14

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

So Jesus said to the lawyers and Pharisees: Is it lawful to cure on the sabbath or not? But they remained silent. So he took the man, cured him and sent him away. Then he said to them: If your son or your ox falls into a well on the sabbath, is there any one of you who will not at once pull him out? And they had no answer to this. Then, as he had noticed how the guests chose the best seats for themselves, he told them a parable: When you have been invited by someone to a marriage feast, he said, do not sit down on the principal couch, because a guest more distinguished than yourself may have been invited, and the host, who invited you both, will come and say to you. believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit. Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in one. holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world that is to come. Amen.

He kisses the altar and says:

Let us pray.

Offertory. Ps. 39, 14, 15. Lord, grant me thine aid: may they tremble and be confounded who seek my life, to destroy it; Lord, grant me thine aid.

oly Father, almighty eternal God, receive the sacrifice of this perfect offering, which I thy unworthy servant make to thee, my living and true God, for my sins and offences and negligences without number, and for all who are present here as well as for all the Christian faithful living and dead: that it may prosper their salvation and mine unto life everlasting. Amen.

He blesses the water with the sign of the Cross and says:

He takes the Chalice and offers it, saying:

Bowing slightly, he says:

ome, Sanctifier, almighty eternal God, (he blesses the offerings and continues) and bless this sacrifice, prepared for thy holy name.

Whilst washing his hands, the priest says:

Ps. 25, 6-12

will wash my hands among the innocent and gather with them at thy altar, Lord;

To hear the song of praise and tell of all thy wonderful works. Lord, I have loved the beauty of thy house and the place where thy glory dwells.

Let not my soul, O God, be lost among the wicked nor my life with men of blood.

Their hands are steeped in evil; their right hands full of bribes.

For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me. My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord, I will bless thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Bowing slightly and joining his hands, he says:

Amen.

Postea versus ad populum, voce paululum elevata, dicit:

Ut in confessione verae sempiternaeque Deitatis, et in personis proprietas, et in essentia unitas, et in majestate adoretur aequalitas. # CANON MISSAE, UT SUPRA

Sacerdos prosequitur Missam:

Communio. Ps. 70, 16-17, 18. Domine, memorabor justitiae tuae solius: Deus, docuisti me a juventute mea: et usque in senectam et senium, Deus, ne derelinquas me.

Deinde osculatur Altare et dicit:

May the Lord receive the sacrifice from your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our welfare also, and that of all his holy Church. The priest says: Amen.

e beg thee, Lord, cleanse us through the power of today's sacrifice, and fulfil thy mercy in us, that we may share in it worthily: through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, (in a clear voice) for ever and ever. R. Amen.

The Lord be with you.

R. And with you also.

C. Raise your hearts. R. They are raised to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

R. It is just and right.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

t is truly just and right, fitting and for our good, always and everywhere to give thanks to thee, Lord, holy Father, almighty eternal God; who with thine only-begotten Son and the Holy Spirit art one God, one Lord, not in the singleness of one person. but in the one substance of the Trinity. For whatever through thy revelation we believe concerning thy glory, that also we hold both of thy Son and of the Holy Spirit, without distinction or difference: so that in confessing the true and everlasting Godhead, we adore each several person, and at the same time their one substance and their equal majesty; which the Angels praise and the Archangels, the Cherubim too and Seraphim, who never cease to cry out every day, saying with one voice:

Joining his hands, he bows and says:

oly, Holy, Holy Lord God of Hosts. Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

NOW TURN TO THE CANON

The priest continues the Mass:

Joann. 1, 1-14

n principio erat Verbum, et Verbum erat apud Deum, et Deus erat Verbum. Hoc erat in principio apud Deum. Omnia per ipsum facta sunt, et sine ipso factum est nihil, quod factum est: in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, et lux in tenebris lucet, et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. Fuit homo missus a Deo, cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. În mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine ejus, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. (Genuflectit dicens) Et Verbum caro factum est, (et surgens prosequitur) et habitavit in nobis: et vidimus gloriam ejus, gloriam quasi Unigeniti a Patre, plenum gratiae et veritatis.

R. Deo gratias.

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Let us pray.

Postcommunion

R. Amen.

The priest bows, and prays silently, saying:

ay the homage of my service, O holy Trinity, be pleasing to thee; and grant that the sacrifice, which I, though unworthy, have offered in the sight of thy majesty, may be acceptable to thee, and through thy mercy bring forgiveness to me and all for whom I have offered it. Through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Turning to the people, he says in blessing:

C. May Almighty God, Father, and Son, * and Holy Spirit. bless you. R. Amen.

The priest goes to the Gospel corner, and says:

The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

The beginning of the holy Gospel according to John.

Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 1, 1-14

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God. and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

Thanks be to God.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

Matth. 22, 34-46

Jesus answered: You shall love the Lord your God with your whole heart, and with your whole soul, and with your whole mind. That is the chief and most important commandment. The second resembles the first: You shall love your neighbour as yourself. The whole Law and the prophets depend on those two commandments. While the Pharisees were there in a body, Jesus put a question to them: What opinion do you hold about the Messias? Whose son is he? They answered: David's. He said to them: Then how is it that David was inspired to call him Lord, when he said: The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies your footstool? If David calls him Lord, how can he be his son? No one could give him any answer; and from that day no one ventured to put him any more questions. R. Praise to thee, O Christ. The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in one, holv, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world that is to come. Amen.

Amen.

He blesses the water with the sign of the Cross and says:

Joann. 1, 1-14

n principio erat Verbum, et Verbum erat apud Deum, et Deus erat Verbum. Hoc erat in principio apud Deum. Omnia per ipsum facta sunt, et sine ipso factum est nihil, quod factum est: in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, et lux in tenebris lucet, et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. Fuit homo missus a Deo, cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine ejus, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. (Genuflectit dicens) Et Verbum caro factum est, (et surgens prosequitur) et habitavit in nobis: et vidimus gloriam ejus, gloriam quasi Unigeniti a Patre, plenum gratiae et veritatis.

Turning to the people, he says in blessing:

C. May Almighty God, Father, and Son, & and Holy Spirit. bless you. R. Amen.

The priest goes to the Gospel corner, and says:

The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

The beginning of the holy Gospel according to John.

Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 1, 1-14

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

R. Thanks be to God.

Matth. 9, 1-8

t that time: Jesus went on board the boat, crossed over. and came to his own town. Some people brought him a paralytic lying in a bed. Jesus saw their faith and said to the paralytic: Courage, my child, your sins are forgiven. At this some of the scribes thought to themselves: This man is blaspheming. Jesus knew what they were thinking, and said: Why do you ponder evil in your hearts? Which is easier, to say: Your sins are forgiven; or to say: Rise up and walk? However, to show you that the Son of Man has power on earth to forgive sins (then he turned to the paralytic): Rise up, take your bed and go home. Whereupon he rose and went home. When the people saw this, they were struck with awe, and praised God for having given such power to men. R. Praise to thee, O Christ.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Bowing slightly and joining his hands, he says:

eceive, O holy Trinity, this offering which we make to thee in memory of the passion, resurrection and ascension of Jesus Christ our Lord, and in honour of the blessed Mary ever Virgin, of blessed John the Baptist, of the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, of those whose relics are here and of all the Saints; that it may bring honour to them and salvation to us; and may they, whose memory we keep on earth, be pleased to intercede for us in heaven: through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

He turns to the people, and says in a louder tone:

ray, brethren, that my sacrifice and yours may find acceptance with God the Father almighty.

May the Lord receive the sacrifice from your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our welfare also, and that of all his holy Church. The priest says: Amen.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

It is truly just and right, fitting and for our good, always and everywhere to give thanks to thee, Lord, holy Father, almighty eternal God; who with thine only-begotten Son and the Holy Spirit art one God, one Lord, not in the singleness of one person, but in the one substance of the Trinity. For whatever through thy revelation we believe concerning thy glory, that also we hold both of thy Son and of the Holy Spirit, without distinction or difference: so that in confessing the true and everlasting Godhead, we adore each several person, and at the same time their one substance and their equal majesty; which the Angels praise and the Archangels, the Cherubim too and Seraphim, who never cease to cry out every day, saving with one voice:

Joining his hands, he bows and says:

oly, Holy, Holy Lord God of Hosts. Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Gloria tibi, Domine.

Joann. 1, 1-14

n principio erat Verbum, et Verbum erat apud Deum, et Deus erat Verbum. Hoc erat in principio apud Deum. Omnia per ipsum facta sunt, et sine ipso factum est nihil, quod factum est: in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, et lux in tenebris lucet, et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. Fuit homo missus a Deo, cui nomen erat Joannes. Ĥic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine ejus, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. (Genuflectit dicens) Et Verbum caro factum est, (et surgens prosequitur) et habitavit in nobis: et vidimus gloriam ejus, gloriam quasi Unigeniti a Patre, plenum gratiae et veritatis.

R. Deo gratias.

The priest bows, and prays silently, saying:

ay the homage of my service, O holy Trinity, be pleasing to thee; and grant that the sacrifice, which I, though unworthy, have offered in the sight of thy majesty, may be acceptable to thee, and through thy mercy bring forgiveness to me and all for whom I have offered it. The beginning of the holy Gospel according to John.

Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 1, 1-14

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world. and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name. to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. Thanks be to God.

Epistle of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Ephesians.

rethren: Let yourselves be renewed in mind and spirit; lay aside your old, corrupt nature, whose deceitful desires lead to ruin, and put on the new nature, created in God's image, whose true aspirations are for justice and holiness. Put aside deceitful ways, and let everyone speak the truth to his neighbour, for we are all members of the same body. If you are angry, do not sin; let your anger fade before the sun goes down; do not give the devil his chance. If anyone has been a thief, he must steal no longer, but work instead. With what he earns by the honest work of his hands, he will then be able to help a neighbour in need.

Et misit servos suos vocare invitatos ad nuptias, et nolebant venire. Iterum misit alios servos, dicens: Dicite invitatis: Ecce prandium meum paravi, tauri mei et altilia occisa sunt, et omnia parata: venite ad nuptias. Illi autem neglexerunt: et abierunt, alius in villam suam, alius vero ad negotiationem suam: reliqui vero tenuerunt servos ejus, et contumeliis affectos occiderunt. Rex autem cum audisset, iratus est: et, missis exercitibus suis, perdidit homicidas illos, et civitatem illorum succendit. Tunc ait servis suis: Nuptiae quidem paratae sunt, sed qui invitati erant non fuerunt digni. Ite ergo ad exitus viarum, et quoscumque inveneritis vocate ad nuptias. Et egressi servi ejus in vias, congregaverunt omnes quos invenerunt, malos et bonos: et impletae sunt nuptiae discumbentium. Intravit autem rex, ut videret discumbentes, et vidit ibi hominem non vestitum veste nuptiali. Et ait illi: Amice, quomodo huc intrasti non habens vestem nuptialem? At ille obmutuit. ### The priest, bowing in the middle of the altar, says:

leanse my heart and my lips, almighty God, who didst cleanse the lips of the prophet Isaias with a glowing coal: in thy gracious mercy be pleased so to cleanse me, that I may worthily proclaim thy holy Gospel. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Pray, Lord, a blessing.

May the Lord be in my heart and on my lips that I may announce his Gospel worthily and well. Amen.

Turning to the book, he says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. A passage from + the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

Matth. 22, 1-14

t that time: Jesus spoke to the chief priests and Pharisees in parables. He said: The kingdom of heaven is like this. A king had prepared a marriage-feast for his son. He sent out his servants to call those who had been invited to the wedding, but they refused to come. So he sent more servants and told them: Give this message to those who were invited: I have already prepared the banquet; my bulls and fatted calves have been slaughtered and everything is ready: so come to the wedding. They, however, paid no attention; one went off to his farm, and another to his shop, and the rest seized his servants, ill-treated them and then killed them. The king, in his anger, sent out his army and destroyed the murderers and burned their city. Then he said to his servants: The marriage feast is ready, but those invited were not deserving of it. Go then to the gateways of the city, and invite to the wedding everyone you find there. So the servants went into the streets and gathered in everyone they could find, both good and bad: and the hall was filled with guests. Then the king went in to see the guests, and noticed a man there who was not wearing a wedding-garment. He said to him: My friend, how comes it that you are in here without a wedding-garment? But he had nothing to say. Then the king said to his servants: Tie him hand and foot, and throw him out into the darkness outside, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Many are called, but few are chosen. R. Praise to thee, O Christ.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is just and right.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

It is truly just and right, fitting and for our good, always and everywhere to give thanks to thee, Lord, holy Father, almighty eternal God; who with thine only-begotten Son and the Holy Spirit art one God, one Lord, not in the singleness of one person. but in the one substance of the Trinity. For whatever through thy revelation we believe concerning thy glory, that also we hold both of thy Son and of the Holy Spirit, without distinction or difference: so that in confessing the true and everlasting Godhead, we adore each several person, and at the same time their one substance and their equal majesty; which the Angels praise and the Archangels. the Cherubim too and Seraphim, who never cease to cry out every day, saving with one voice:

Joining his hands, he bows and says:

oly, Holy, Holy Lord God of Hosts. Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

John 1, 1-14

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God. and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name. to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. R. Thanks be to God.

John 4, 46-53

t that time: There was a royal official whose son was lying ill at Capharnaum. When he heard that Jesus had come up from Judea into Galilee, he came to him and begged him to go down and cure his son, who was at the point of death. Jesus said to him: Unless you people see signs and wonders, you refuse to believe. The ruler said to him: Lord, come down, before my boy dies. Jesus replied: Go home; your son is well. The man believed the word that Jesus had spoken, and went home. While he was still on his way down, his servants met him and reported that his child was better. He questioned them about the hour at which he had recovered, and they replied: Yesterday, at the seventh hour, the fever left him. Then the boy's father knew that he had recovered at the very hour when Jesus had said to him: Your son is well. So he and all his household became believers.

Praise to thee, O Christ.

For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. Lectio Epistolae beati Pauli Apostoli ad Ephesios.

Ephes. 6, 10-17 ratres: Confortamini in Domino, et in potentia virtutis ejus. Induite vos armaturam Dei, ut possitis stare adversus insidias diaboli. Quoniam non est nobis colluctatio adversus carnem et sanguinem: sed adversus principes et potestates, adversus mundi rectores tenebrarum harum, contra spiritualia nequitiae in caelestibus. Propterea accipite armaturam Dei, ut possitis resistere in die malo, et in omnibus perfecti stare. State ergo succincti lumbos vestros in veritate, et induti loricam justitiae, et calceati pedes in praeparatione Evangelii pacis: in omnibus sumentes scutum fidei, in quo possitis omnia tela nequissimi ignea exstinguere: et galeam salutis assumite: et gladium spiritus, quod est verbum Dei. uard thy family, we beg thee, Lord, with thy constant and fatherly care, that under thy protection it may be free from all adversities and by good actions give honour to thy name: through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. R. Amen.

Epistle of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Ephesians.

Ephes. 6, 10-17 rethren: Draw your strength from the Lord and from his mighty power. Put on the armour of God, and you will be able to stand firm against the crafty attacks of the devil. Since the combat in which we are engaged is not against flesh and blood, but against princedoms and powers, against the rulers of this dark world, against the spiritual powers of evil in the heavens. you must wear the complete suit of divine armour, if you are to hold your ground on the evil day and be still on your feet at the end of the fight. Stand fast, therefore, with the belt of truth around you, with justice as your breastplate, and with your feet shod in readiness to spread the gospel of peace. Above all, shield yourself with faith, and you will be able to extinguish all the fiery arrows of the evil one. Take, too, the helmet of victory, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. R. Thanks be to God.

Gradual, Ps. 89, 1-2. Thou, Lord, hast been our refuge from generation to generation. V. Before the mountains were made or the earth formed, from eternity to eternity, thou art God. Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 113, 1. When Israel went forth from Egypt, and the house of Jacob from an alien people. Alleluia.

The priest, bowing in the middle of the altar, says:

leanse my heart and my lips, almighty God, who didst cleanse the lips of the prophet Isaias with a glowing coal: in thy gracious mercy be pleased so to cleanse me, that I may Worthily proclaim thy holy Gospel. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Pray, Lord, a blessing.

Et, cum coepisset rationem ponere, oblatus est ei unus, qui debebat ei decem millia talenta. Cum autem non haberet unde redderet, jussit eum dominus ejus venumdari, et uxorem ejus, et filios, et omnia quae habebat, et reddi. Procidens autem servus ille orabat eum, dicens: Patientiam habe in me, et omnia reddam tibi. Misertus autem dominus servi illius, dimisit eum, et debitum dimisit ei. Egressus autem servus ille, invenit unum de conservis suis, qui debebat ei centum denarios: et tenens suffocabat eum, dicens: Redde quod debes. Et procidens conservus ejus rogabat eum, dicens: Patientiam habe in me, et omnia reddam tibi. Ille autem noluit: sed abiit, et misit eum in carcerem donec redderet debitum. Videntes autem conservi ejus quae fiebant, contristati sunt valde: et venerunt, et narraverunt domino suo omnia quae facta fuerant. Tunc vocavit illum dominus suus et ait illi: Serve nequam, omne debitum dimisi tibi, quoniam rogasti me: nonne ergo oportuit et te misereri conservi tui, sicut et ego tui misertus sum? Et iratus dominus ejus tradidit eum tortoribus, quoadusque redderet universum debitum. Sic et Pater meus caelestis faciet vobis, si non remiseritis unusquisque fratri suo de cordibus vestris.

R. Laus tibi, Christe.

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. A passage from + the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

Matth. 18, 23-35

t that time: Jesus spoke this parable to his disciples: The kingdom of heaven is like a king who wished to settle his accounts with his servants. When he began the reckoning, one man was brought to him who owed a million pounds. As he could not meet the debt, his master gave orders for him to be sold, with his wife and children and all his possessions, in order to make payment. The servant fell down at his feet and said: Be patient with me, and I will pay you the whole sum. The master's heart was touched with pity for his servant, and he let him go and remitted his debt. Then the servant went out and came upon one of his fellow-servants who owed him five pounds; he seized him by the throat and said: Pay back what you owe. His fellow-servant fell down and begged him: Be patient with me, and I will repay you. But he refused: instead he went and threw him into prison until he should pay the debt. When the other servants saw what had happened, they were greatly upset by it, and went and told their master the whole story. The master sent for the servant and said to him: Wretched servant that you are. I remitted the whole of that great debt of yours, because you asked me. Ought you not to have had pity on your fellow-servant, just as I had pity on you? Then in his anger he handed him over to the torturers until he should pay his whole debt. That is how my heavenly Father will deal with you if brother does not forgive brother from his heart. R. Praise to thee, O Christ.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneet) took fesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. will wash my hands among the innocent and gather with them at thy altar, Lord;

To hear the song of praise and tell of all thy wonderful works. Lord, I have loved the beauty of thy house and the place where thy glory dwells.

Let not my soul, O God, be lost among the wicked nor my life with men of blood.

Their hands are steeped in evil; their right hands full of bribes. For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me. My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord, I will bless thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Bowing slightly and joining his hands, he says:

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Preface of the Holy Trinity

It is truly just and right, fitting and for our good, always and everywhere to give thanks to thee, Lord, holy Father, almighty eternal God; who with thine only-begotten Son and the Holy Spirit art one God, one Lord, not in the singleness of one person, but in the one substance of the Trinity. For whatever through thy revelation we believe concerning thy glory, that also we hold both of thy Son and of the Holy Spirit, without distinction or difference: so that in confessing the true and everlasting Godhead, we adore each several person, and at the same time their one substance and their equal majesty; which the Angels praise and the Archangels, the Cherubim too and Seraphim, who never cease to cry out every day, saying with one voice:

Joining his hands, he bows and says:

oly, Holy, Holy Lord God of Hosts. Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Hosanna in the highest, Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

NOW TURN TO THE CANON

The priest continues the Mass:

Communion. Ps. 118, 81, 84, 86. In my heart I have hoped in thy salvation and thy word: when wilt thou judge my persecutors? The wicked have persecuted me; help me, Lord my God.

The Lord be with you. Go, the Mass is ended. R. And with you also.

R. Thanks be to God.

The priest bows, and prays silently, saying:

Versus ad populum, benedicens, prosequitur:

The beginning of the holy Gospel according to John.

Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 1, 1-14

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God. and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

Thanks be to God.

Then in the middle of the altar he says:

lory to God in the heavens, and on earth peace to men of goodwill. We praise thee, we bless thee, we adore thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father almighty. Lord Jesus Christ the only-begotten Son, Lord God, Son of the Father, Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, have mercy on us: who takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayers; who sittest at the Father's right hand, have mercy on us. Let us pray.

Prayer

God, our refuge and our strength, listen to the loving prayers of thy Church, and do thou, the author of all goodness, grant that what we seek in faith, we attain in deed: through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. R. Amen.

Epistle of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Philippians.

Philipp. 1, 6-11

rethren: I am confident that he who enabled you to begin your good work will move you to carry it to its completion on the Day of Christ Jesus. It is right that I should have such feelings about you, because you ever hold me in your hearts, and are ever sharers in the grace that is given me, whether I am in prison or defending and asserting the gospel. God is my witness that I long for you all with the love of the heart of Christ Jesus himself. And this is my prayer for you: May your charity be enlightened more and more with all knowledge and discernment, so that you will always recognise the greater good, and thus arrive at the Day of Christ's Coming faultless, blameless, and laden with fruits of justice, given through Jesus Christ, for the glory and praise of God. R. Thanks be to God.

Gradual. Ps. 132. 1-2. See what a good and joyful thing it is for brothers to live as one! V. It is like the fragant oil which flows from the head on to the beard, the beard of Aaron. Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 113, 11. Let those who fear the Lord,

Sacerdos, inclinatus in medio, dicit:

Jube, Domine, benedicere.

Et mittunt ei discipulos suos cum Herodianis, dicentes: Magister, scimus quia verax es, et viam Dei in veritate doces, et non est tibi cura de aliquo: non enim respicis personam hominum: dic ergo nobis quid tibi videtur, licet censum dare Caesari, an non? Cognita autem Jesus nequitia eorum, ait: Quid me tentatis, hypocritae? Ostendite mihi numisma census. At illi obtulerunt ei denarium. Et ait illis Jesus: Cujus est imago haec et superscriptio? Dicunt ei: Caesaris. Tunc ait illis: Reddite ergo quae sunt Caesaris, Caesari; et quae sunt Dei, Deo.

R. Laus tibi, Christe. Sacerdos osculatur Evangelium, dicens:

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

The priest, bowing in the middle of the altar, says:

leanse my heart and my lips, almighty God, who didst cleanse the lips of the prophet Isaias with a glowing coal: in thy gracious mercy be pleased so to cleanse me, that I may worthily proclaim thy holy Gospel. Through Christ our Lord.

Pray, Lord, a blessing.

May the Lord be in my heart and on my lips that I may announce his Gospel worthily and well. Amen.

Turning to the book, he says:

The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

A passage from \( \frac{1}{2} \) the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

Glory to thee, O Lord.

Matth. 22, 15-21

t that time: The Pharisees went away and plotted how to trap Jesus in argument. They sent their own disciples to him and with them some of Herod's courtiers. Master, they said, we know that you speak the truth, and truly teach the way of God, that you are afraid of no one, and are not swayed by human respect. Tell us, therefore, what is your view? Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar or not? Jesus saw their malice and said: Why do you try to trap me, you hypocrites? Show me the coin in which the tax is paid. They produced a silver coin, and he said to them: Whose is the image and inscription? Caesar's, they replied. He said to them: Then render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's. R. Praise to thee, O Christ. The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for Our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in

Omnia per ipsum facta sunt, et sine ipso factum est nihil, quod factum est: in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, et lux in tenebris lucet. et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. Fuit homo missus a Deo. cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Ouotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine ejus, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis. neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. #### TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST who takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayers; who sittest at the Father's right hand, have mercy on us. For thou alone art holy, thou alone art Lord, thou alone art the most high: Jesus Christ with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

He kisses the altar and says:

C. The Lord be with you.

R. And with you also.

Let us pray.

Prayer

beg thee, Lord, to absolve the wrongdoing of thy people, that by thy goodness we may be freed from the bonds of the sins committed in our human weakness: through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. Amen.

Epistle of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Philippians.

rethren: Unite in following my example, and keep your eyes on those who live according to the model which my own conduct set before you. There are many who follow a far different way. I have often told you before, and now I tell you with tears, they are enemies of the Cross of Christ, their end will be utter ruin, their god is their belly, and they glory in their shame. Their hearts are bent on earthly things; but as for us, our homeland is in heaven; it is to heaven that we look expectantly for the coming of Jesus Christ as our Saviour. By the power which he has to make all things obey him, he will transform our bodies from their present humble state into the likeness of the body he has in his glory. So then, my brethren whom I love and long for, you are my joy and will be my crown. Only persevere as you are in the Lord, my beloved. I beg of you, Evodia, and I beg of you, Syntyche, to agree with each other in the Lord. And I would ask you, my faithful comrade, to help them, for they shared my labours for the gospel, as also did Clement and my other helpers, whose names are inscribed in the Book of Life. R. Thanks be to God.

Gradual. Ps. 43, 8-9. Lord, thou hast saved us from those who afflict us; and those who hate us thou hast put to shame. V. All day we will glory in God and in thy name give thanks for ever. Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 129, 1-2. Out of the depths, O Lord, I have cried to thee: Lord, hear my voice. Alleluia.

The priest, bowing in the middle of the altar, says:

leanse my heart and my lips, almighty God, who didst cleanse the lips of the prophet Isaias with a glowing coal: in thy gracious mercy be pleased so to cleanse me, that I may tuum digne valeam nuntiare. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

Jube, Domine, benedicere.

Dominus sit in corde meo, et in labiis meis: ut digne et competenter annuntiem Evangelium suum. Amen.

Deinde conversus ad librum dicit:

C. Dominus vobiscum. R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

C. Sequentia * sancti Evangelii secundum Matthaeum.

R. Gloria tibi, Domine.

Matth. 9, 18-26

n illo tempore: Loquente Jesu ad turbas, ecce princeps unus accessit, et adorabat eum, dicens: Domine, filia mea modo defuncta est: sed veni, impone manum tuam super eam, et vivet. Et surgens Jesus sequebatur eum, et discipuli ejus. Et ecce mulier, quae sanguinis fluxum patiebatur duodecim annis, accessit, retro, et tetigit fimbriam vestimenti ejus. Dicebat enim intra se: Si tetigero tantum vestimentum ejus, salva ero. At Jesus conversus et videns eam dixit: Confide, filia, fides tua te salvam fecit. Et salva facta est mulier ex illa hora. Et, cum venisset Jesus in domum principis, et vidisset tibicines, et turbam tumultuantem, dicebat: Recedite: non est enim mortua puella, sed dormit. Et deridebant eum. Et, cum ejecta esset turba, intravit, et tenuit manum ejus. Et surrexit puella. Et exiit fama haec in universam terram illam.

Sacerdos osculatur Evangelium, dicens:

Per evangelica dicta deleantur nostra delicta.

redo in unum Deum, Patrem omnipotentem, factorem caeli et terrae, visibilium omnium, et invisibilium. Et in unum Dominum Jesum Christum, Filium Dei unigenitum. Et ex Patre natum ante omnia saecula. (Hic genuflectitur) Et incarnatus est de Spiritu Sancto ex Maria Virgine: et homo factus est. Crucifixus etiam pro nobis: sub Pontio Pilato passus, et sepultus est. Et resurrexit tertia die, secundum Scripturas. Et ascendit in caelum: sedet ad dexteram Patris. Et iterum venturus est cum gloria judicare vivos, et mortuos: cujus regni non erit finis. ## TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST worthily proclaim thy holy Gospel. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Pray, Lord, a blessing.

May the Lord be in my heart and on my lips that I may announce his Gospel worthily and well. Amen.

Turning to the book, he says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. A passage from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

Matth. 9, 18-26

t that time: While Jesus was speaking to the people, the president of one of the synagogues came up and knelt before him. My daughter has just died, he said; but if you come and lay your hand upon her, she will come to life. So Jesus and his disciples rose and went with him. Now a woman, who for twelve years had suffered from haemorrhages, came up behind Jesus and touched the fringe of his cloak; for she thought to herself: If only I touch his cloak, I shall be cured. Jesus turned round and looked at her: Courage, daughter, he said; your faith has cured you. And from that moment the woman was cured. When Jesus reached the ruler's house and saw the flute-players and the noisy crowd that was there, he said to them: Be off! The girl is not dead, but only asleep. The crowd laughed at him; but when they had been sent away, he went in and took the girl by the hand, and she rose to life. The news of it spread throughout that region. R. Praise to thee, O Christ.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in

baptisma in remissionem peccatorum. Et exspecto resurrectionem mortuorum. Et vitam venturi saeculi. Amen.

Deinde osculatur Altare et dicit:

Et cum spiritu tuo. Dominus vobiscum.

Oremus.

Offertorium. Ps. 129, 1-2. De profundis clamavi ad te, Domine: Domine, exaudi orationem meam: de profundis clamavi ad te. Domine.

Sacerdos accipit Patenam cum Hostia, quam offerens dicit:

uscipe, sancte Pater, omnipotens aeterne Deus, hanc immaculatam hostiam, quam ego indignus famulus tuus offero tibi Deo meo vivo, et vero, pro innumerabilibus peccatis, et offensionibus, et negligentiis meis, et pro omnibus circumstantibus, sed et pro omnibus fidelibus christianis vivis atque defunctis: ut mihi, et illis proficiat ad salutem, in vitam aeternam. Amen.

Aquam benedicit signo Crucis, dicens:

eus, qui humanae substantiae dignitatem mirabiliter condidisti, et mirabilius reformasti: da nobis per hujus aquae et vini mysterium, ejus divinitatis esse consortes, qui humanitatis nostrae fieri dignatus est particeps, Jesus Christus Filius tuus Dominus noster: Qui tecum vivit et regnat in unitate Spiritus Sancti Deus: per omnia saecula saeculorum. Amen.

Accipit Calicem et offert, dicens:

fferimus tibi, Domine, calicem salutaris, tuam deprecantes clementiam: ut in conspectu divinae maiestatis tuae, pro nostra et totius mundi salute cum odore suavitatis ascendat. Amen.

one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world that is to come. Amen.

He kisses the altar and says:

C. The Lord be with you. C. Let us pray.

R. And with you also.

Offertory. Ps. 129, 1-2. Out of the depths, O Lord, I have cried to thee: Lord, hear my voice: out of the depths I have cried to thee, O Lord.

The priest takes the paten with the Host, which he offers, saying:

He blesses the water with the sign of the Cross and says:

He takes the Chalice and offers it, saying:

e offer thee, O Lord, the chalice of salvation, beseeching thy gentle mercy, that for our own and the whole world's salvation it may ascend with a sweet fragrance in the sight of thy divine majesty. Amen.

Bowing slightly, he says:

ome, Sanctifier, almighty eternal God, (he blesses the offerings and continues) and 4 bless this sacrifice, prepared for thy holy name.

Whilst washing his hands, the priest says:

Ps. 25, 6-12

will wash my hands among the innocent and gather with them at thy altar, Lord; To hear the song of praise and tell of all thy wonderful works.

Domine, dilexi decorem domus tuae: et locum habitationis gloriae tuae.

Ne perdas cum impiis, Deus, animam meam: et cum viris sanguinum vitam meam.

In quorum manibus iniquitates sunt: dextera eorum repleta est muneribus.

Ego autem in innocentia mea ingressus sum: redime me, et miserere mei.

Pes meus stetit in directo: in ecclesiis benedicam te, Domine. Gloria Patri et Filio, et Spiritui Sancto. Sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et semper, et in saecula saeculorum. Amen.

Aliquantulum inclinatus, junctis manibus, dicit:

uscipe, sancta Trinitas, hanc oblationem, quam tibi offerimus ob memoriam passionis, resurrectionis, et ascensionis Jesu Christi Domini nostri: et in honorem beatae Mariae semper Virginis, et beati Joannis Baptistae et sanctorum Apostolorum Petri et Pauli, et istorum, et omnium Sanctorum: ut illis proficiat ad honorem, nobis autem ad salutem: et illi pro nobis intercedere dignentur in caelis, quorum memoriam agimus in terris. Per eundem Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

Postea versus ad populum, voce paululum elevata, dicit:

rate fratres, ut meum ac vestrum sacrificium acceptabile fiat apud Deum Patrem omnipotentem. Suscipiat Dominus sacrificium de manibus tuis, ad laudem et gloriam nominis sui, ad utilitatem quoque nostram, totiusque Ecclesiae suae sanctae. Sacerdos dicit: Amen.

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Lord, I have loved the beauty of thy house and the place where thy glory dwells.

Let not my soul, O God, be lost among the wicked nor my life with men of blood.

Their hands are steeped in evil: their right hands full of bribes.

For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me. My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord, I will bless thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Bowing slightly and joining his hands, he says:

eceive, O holy Trinity, this offering which we make to thee in memory of the passion, resurrection and ascension of Jesus Christ our Lord, and in honour of the blessed Mary ever Virgin, of blessed John the Baptist, of the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, of those whose relics are here and of all the Saints; that it may bring honour to them and salvation to us; and may they, whose memory we keep on earth, be pleased to intercede for us in heaven: through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

He turns to the people, and says in a louder tone:

ray, brethren, that my sacrifice and yours may find acceptance with God the Father almighty.

R. May the Lord receive the sacrifice from your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our welfare also, and that of all his holy Church. The priest says: Amen.

e offer thee, Lord, this sacrifice of praise for thy greater service, that thou mayst follow with thy blessings what thou hast bestowed without our deserving: through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, (in a clear voice) for ever and ever. R. Amen.

The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

Raise your hearts. R. They are raised to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is just and right.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

personae sed in unius Trinitate substantiae. Quod enim de tua gloria, revelante te, credimus, hoc de Filio tuo, hoc de Spiritu Sancto, sine differentia discretionis sentimus. Ut in confessione verae sempiternaeque Deitatis, et in personis proprietas, et in essentia unitas, et in majestate adoretur aequalitas. Quam laudant Angeli, atque Archangeli, Cherubim quoque ac Seraphim: qui non cessant clamare quotidie, una voce dicentes:

Sacerdos inclinat se, et dicit secreté:

laceat tibi, sancta Trinitas, obsequium servitutis meae: et praesta: ut sacrificium, quod oculis tuae majestatis indignus obtuli, tibi sit acceptabile, mihique, et omnibus pro quibus illud obtuli, sit, te miserante, propitiabile. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

but in the one substance of the Trinity. For whatever through thy revelation we believe concerning thy glory, that also we hold both of thy Son and of the Holy Spirit, without distinction or difference: so that in confessing the true and everlasting Godhead, we adore each several person, and at the same time their one substance and their equal majesty; which the Angels praise and the Archangels. the Cherubim too and Seraphim, who never cease to cry out every day, saying with one voice:

Joining his hands, he bows and says:

oly, Holy Holy Lord God of Hosts. Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

NOW TURN TO THE CANON

- The Lord be with you. Go, the Mass is ended.
- And with you also.
- Thanks be to God.

The priest bows, and prays silently, saying:

ay the homage of my service, O holy Trinity, be pleasing to thee; and grant that the sacrifice, which I, though unworthy, have offered in the sight of thy majesty, may be acceptable to thee, and through thy mercy bring forgiveness to me and all for whom I have offered it. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Turning to the people, he says in blessing:

C. May Almighty God, Father, and Son, A and Holy Spirit, bless you. R. Amen.

Sacerdos in cornu Evangelii, dicit:

R. Et cum spiritu tuo. Dominus vobiscum.

🛧 Initium sancti Evangelii secundum Joannem.

Gloria tibi, Domine.

n principio erat Verbum, et Verbum erat apud Deum, et Deus erat Verbum. Hoc erat in principio apud Deum. Omnia per ipsum facta sunt, et sine ipso factum est nihil, quod factum est: in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, et lux in tenebris lucet, et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. Fuit homo missus a Deo, cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine ejus, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. (Genuflectit dicens) Et Verbum caro factum est, (et surgens prosequitur) et habitavit in nobis: et vidimus gloriam ejus, gloriam quasi Unigeniti a Patre, plenum gratiae et veritatis.

Deo gratias.

THIRD SUNDAY OMITTED AFTER EPIPHANY

The priest goes to the Gospel corner, and says:

The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

The beginning of the holy Gospel according to John.

Glory to thee, O Lord.

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world. and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. R. Thanks be to God.

If there are more than 24 Sundays after Pentecost, the Masses of those Sundays omitted after the Epiphany are resumed after the 23rd Sunday, as below. And the Mass of the 24th Sunday always comes last, page 478 below.

THIRD SUNDAY OMITTED AFTER EPIPHANY

Then in the middle of the altar he says:

lory to God in the heavens, and on earth peace to men of goodwill. We praise thee, we bless thee, we adore thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father almighty. Lord Jesus Christ the only-begotten Son, Lord God, Son of the Father, Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; who takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayers; who sittest at the Father's right hand, have mercy on us. For thou alone art holy, thou alone art Lord, thou alone art the most high: Jesus Christ with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

He kisses the altar and says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

Let us pray.

Prayer

Imighty and eternal God, look with mercy on our weakness and stretch out the right hand of thy majesty to protect us: through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. R. Amen.

Epistle of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Romans.

Rom. 12, 16-21

rethren: Do not be wise in your own estimation. Do not repay evil with evil. Make sure that all men recognise the rectitude of your conduct. If possible, live at peace with all men, I mean, so far as depends on you. Do not avenge yourselves, brethren; leave room for God's anger, for the Scripture says: Vengeance is mine; I shall repay, says the Lord. Rather, if your enemy is hungry, give him food; if thirsty, give him a drink, for by so doing you will heap burning coals upon his head. Do not succumb to evil, but overcome it by goodness.

R. Thanks be to God.

Gradual. Ps. 43, 8–9. Lord, thou hast saved us from those who afflict us; and those who hate us thou hast put to shame. V. All day we will glory in God and in thy name give thanks for ever. n illo tempore: Cum descendisset Jesus de monte, secutae sunt eum turbae multae: et ecce leprosus veniens, adorabat eum, dicens: Domine, si vis, potes me mundare. Et extendens Jesus manum tetigit eum dicens: Volo: mundare. Et confestim mundata est lepra ejus. Et ait illi Jesus: Vide, nemini dixeris: sed vade. ostende te sacerdoti, et offer munus quod praecepit Moyses, in testimonium illis. Cum autem introisset Capharnaum, accessit ad eum centurio, rogans eum et dicens: Domine, puer meus jacet in domo paralyticus et male torquetur. Et ait illi Jesus: Ego veniam et curabo eum. Et respondens centurio, ait: Domine, non sum dignus ut intres sub tectum meum: sed tantum dic verbo, et sanabitur puer meus. Nam et ego homo sum sub potestate constitutus habens sub me milites, et dico huic: Vade, et vadit: et alii: Veni, et venit: et servo meo: Fac hoc, et facit. Audiens autem Jesus miratus est, et sequentibus se dixit: Amen dico vobis, non inveni tantam fidem in Israel. Dico autem vobis, quod multi ab Oriente et Occidente venient, et recumbent cum Abraham et Isaac et Jacob in regno caelorum: filii autem regni ejicientur in tenebras exteriores: ibi erit fletus et stridor dentium. Et dixit Jesus centurioni: Vade, et sicut credidisti, fiat tibi. Et sanatus est puer in illa hora. R. Laus tibi, Christe.

THIRD SUNDAY OMITTED AFTER EPIPHANY

Pray, Lord, a blessing.

May the Lord be in my heart and on my lips that I may announce his Gospel worthily and well. Amen.

Turning to the book, he says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. A passage from + the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

Matth. 8, 1-13

t that time: When Jesus came down from the mountain. large crowds followed him. A leper came and knelt before him and said: Lord, if it is your will, you can make me clean. Jesus stretched out his hand and touched him: It is my will, he said; be made clean. And at once his leprosy was cleansed. Then Jesus said to him: See that you tell no one, but go and show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift which Moses prescribed. for the priests' information. When he entered Capharnaum, a centurion came to him and begged of him: Lord, my servant is stricken down in my house with paralysis, and is in great pain. Jesus said to him: I will come and cure him. But the centurion answered: Lord, I am not worthy to receive you under my roof: you have only to say a word, and my servant will be cured. I myself am a man under authority, and I have soldiers under me: I say to this one. Go. and he goes, and to another, Come, and he comes, and to my slave, Do this, and he does it. Jesus was amazed when he heard this, and he said to his followers: I tell you truly, I have not found such great faith in anyone in Israel. I tell you, many will come from East and West and recline with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven; and the heirs of the kingdom will be exiled in the darkness outside, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Then Jesus said to the centurion: Go. as you have believed so let it be done for you. And the servant was cured at that very hour. R. Praise to thee, O Christ.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of

will wash my hands among the innocent and gather with them at thy altar, Lord:

To hear the song of praise and tell of all thy wonderful works. Lord, I have loved the beauty of thy house and the place where thy glory dwells.

Let not my soul, O God, be lost among the wicked nor my life with men of blood.

Their hands are steeped in evil; their right hands full of bribes. For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me.

My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord, I will bless thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Bowing slightly and joining his hands, he says:

Amen.

He turns to the people, and says in a louder tone:

THIRD SUNDAY OMITTED AFTER EPIPHANY

Preface of the Holy Trinity

Joining his hands, he bows and says:

The priest bows, and prays silently, saying:

Joann. 1, 1-14

n principio erat Verbum, et Verbum erat apud Deum, et Deus erat Verbum. Hoc erat in principio apud Deum. Omnia per ipsum facta sunt, et sine ipso factum est nihil, quod factum est: in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, et lux in tenebris lucet, et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. Fuit homo missus a Deo, cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine ejus, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. (Genuflectit dicens) Et Verbum caro factum est, (et surgens prosequitur) et habitavit in nobis: et vidimus gloriam ejus, gloriam quasi Unigeniti a Patre, plenum gratiae et veritatis.

The priest goes to the Gospel corner, and says:

The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

The beginning of the holy Gospel according to John. Glory to thee, O Lord.

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him: but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

Matth. 8, 23-27

t this time: Jesus went on board the boat, accompanied by his disciples. Suddenly a violent storm arose on the sea, and the boat was hidden from view by the waves. Jesus was asleep. So they went and awakened him, crying: Lord, save us, our lives are in peril. He said to them: Why are you faint-hearted? How little faith you have! Then he stood up and rebuked the winds and the sea, and there came a great calm. The men were amazed, and said: What kind of man is this? Even the winds and the sea obey him. Praise to thee, O Christ.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world that is to come. Amen.

He kisses the altar and says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. Let us pray.

Offertory. Ps. 129, 1-2. Out of the depths, O Lord, I have cried to thee; Lord, hear my voice; out of the depths I have cried to thee, O Lord.

FOURTH SUNDAY OMITTED AFTER EPIPHANY

The priest takes the paten with the Host, which he offers, saying:

He blesses the water with the sign of the Cross and says:

He takes the Chalice and offers it, saying:

e offer thee, O Lord, the chalice of salvation, beseeching thy gentle mercy, that for our own and the whole world's salvation it may ascend with a sweet fragrance in the sight of thy divine majesty. Amen.

Bowing slightly, he says:

ome, Sanctifier, almighty eternal God, (he blesses the offerings and continues) and bless this sacrifice, prepared for thy holy name.

Whilst washing his hands, the priest says:

Ps. 25, 6-12

will wash my hands among the innocent and gather with them at thy altar, Lord;

To hear the song of praise and tell of all thy wonderful works. Lord, I have loved the beauty of thy house and the place where thy glory dwells.

Let not my soul, O God, be lost among the wicked nor my life with men of blood.

Their hands are steeped in evil; their right hands full of bribes. For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me. My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord, I will bless thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Aliquantulum inclinatus, junctis manibus, dicit:

uscipe, sancta Trinitas, hanc oblationem, quam tibi offerimus ob memoriam passionis, resurrectionis, et ascensionis Jesu Christi Domini nostri: et in honorem beatae Mariae semper Virginis, et beati Joannis Baptistae et sanctorum Apostolorum Petri et Pauli, et istorum, et omnium Sanctorum: ut illis proficiat ad honorem, nobis autem ad salutem: et illi pro nobis intercedere dignentur in caelis, quorum memoriam agimus in terris. Per eundem Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

Postea versus ad populum, voce paululum elevata, dicit:

rate fratres, ut meum ac vestrum sacrificium acceptabile fiat apud Deum Patrem omnipotentem.

Quod enim de tua gloria, revelante te, credimus, hoc de Filio tuo, hoc de Spiritu Sancto, sine differentia discretionis sentimus. Ut in confessione verae sempiternaeque Deitatis, et in personis proprietas, et in essentia unitas, et in majestate adoretur aequalitas. # FOURTH SUNDAY OMITTED AFTER EPIPHANY

Bowing slightly and joining his hands, he says:

eceive, O holy Trinity, this offering which we make to thee in memory of the passion, resurrection and ascension of Jesus Christ our Lord, and in honour of the blessed Mary ever Virgin, of blessed John the Baptist, of the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, of those whose relics are here and of all the Saints; that it may bring honour to them, and salvation to us; and may they, whose memory we keep on earth, be pleased to intercede for us in heaven: through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

He turns to the people, and says in a louder tone:

R. May the Lord receive the sacrifice from your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our welfare also, and that of all his holy Church. The priest says: Amen.

R. Amen.

C. The Lord be with you.

R. And with you also.

C. Raise your hearts.

R. They are raised to the Lord.

C. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

R. It is just and right.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

t is truly just and right, fitting and for our good, always and everywhere to give thanks to thee, Lord, holy Father, almighty eternal God; who with thine only-begotten Son and the Holy Spirit art one God, one Lord, not in the singleness of one person, but in the one substance of the Trinity. For whatever through thy revelation we believe concerning thy glory, that also we hold both of thy Son and of the Holy Spirit, without distinction or difference; so that in confessing the true and everlasting Godhead, we adore each several person, and at the same time their one substance and their equal majesty; which the Angels praise and the Archangels, the Cherubim too and Seraphim, who never cease to cry out every day, saying with one voice:

Joining his hands, he bows and says:

Joann. 1, 1-14

In principio erat Verbum, et Verbum erat apud Deum, et Deus erat Verbum. Hoc erat in principio apud Deum. Omnia per ipsum facta sunt, et sine ipso factum est nihil, quod factum est: in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, et lux in tenebris lucet, et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. Fuit homo missus a Deo, cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit.

C. The Lord be with you.

C. Go, the Mass is ended.

The priest bows, and prays silently, saying:

Lord Jesus Christ, thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. R. Amen.

Epistle of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Colossians.

Col. 3, 12-17 rethren: Since you are God's chosen ones, his holy and loved ones, dress yourselves accordingly. Put on the garments of compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, patience; be tolerant of one another; and be generous in forgiving, if you have any grievances against one another. As the Lord has forgiven you. so you must forgive one another. But above all these virtues put on charity, which gathers them to perfection. Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, that peace in which you were called to share as members of one body. And be grateful. Let Christ's word that dwells in you display its wealth: admonish and correct one another with all wisdom, and show to God the gratitude of your hearts by singing psalms, hymns and spiritual canticles. Whatever you do and whatever you say, let it always be done in the name of the Lord Jesus, and offer your thanks to God the Father through Jesus Christ our Lord. R. Thanks be to God.

Gradual. Ps. 43, 8-9. Lord, thou hast saved us from those who afflict us; and those who hate us thou hast put to shame. V. All day we will glory in God and in thy name give thanks for ever. Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 129, 1-2. Out of the depths, O Lord, I have cried to thee: Lord, hear my voice, Alleluia.

The priest, bowing in the middle of the altar, says:

leanse my heart and my lips, almighty God, who didst cleanse the lips of the prophet Isaias with a glowing coal: in thy gracious mercy be pleased so to cleanse me, that I may worthily proclaim thy holy Gospel. Through Christ our Lord. Amen

Pray, Lord, a blessing.

May the Lord be in my heart and on my lips that I may announce his Gospel worthily and well. Amen.

Turning to the book, he says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

A passage from * the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

Glory to thee, O Lord.

Matth. 13, 24-30

t that time: Jesus put another parable before the people: The kingdom of heaven, he said, is like a man who sowed good seed in his field. While everybody was asleep an enemy of his came and over-sowed weeds among the wheat, and made off.

Cum autem crevisset herba, et fructum fecisset, tunc apparuerunt et zizania. Accedentes autem servi patrisfamilias, dixerunt ei: Domine, nonne bonum semen seminasti in agro tuo? Unde ergo habet zizania? Et ait illis: Inimicus homo hoc fecit. Servi autem dixerunt ei: Vis, imus, et colligimus ea? Et ait: Non: ne forte colligentes zizania, eradicetis simul cum eis et triticum. Sinite utraque crescere usque ad messem, et in tempore messis dicam messoribus: Colligite primum zizania, et alligate ea in fasciculos ad comburendum, triticum autem congregate in horreum meum.

Sacerdos osculatur Evangelium, dicens: Per evangelica dicta deleantur nostra delicta.

redo in unum Deum, Patrem omnipotentem, factorem caeli et terrae, visibilium omnium, et invisibilium. Et in unum Dominum Jesum Christum, Filium Dei unigenitum. Et ex Patre natum ante omnia saecula. Deum de Deo, lumen de lumine, Deum verum de Deo vero: Genitum, non factum, consubstantialem Patri: per quem omnia facta sunt. Qui propter nos homines, et propter nostram salutem descendit de caelis. (Hic genuflectitur) Et incarnatus est de Spiritu Sancto ex Maria Virgine: et homo factus est. Crucifixus etiam pro nobis: sub Pontio Pilato passus, et sepultus est. Et resurrexit tertia die, secundum Scripturas. Et ascendit in caelum: sedet ad dexteram Patris. Et iterum venturus est cum gloria judicare vivos, et mortuos: cujus regni non erit finis. Et in Spiritum Sanctum, Dominum, et vivificantem: qui ex Patre Filioque procedit. Qui cum Patre et Filio simul adoratur, et conglorificatur: qui locutus est per Prophetas. Et unam, sanctam, catholicam et apostolicam Ecclesiam. Confiteor unum baptisma in remissionem peccatorum. Et exspecto resurrectionem mortuorum. Et vitam venturi saeculi. Amen.

When the blade came up and the ear was filled, the weed showed itself as well. So the servants went to the owner and said: Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? How then does it come to have weeds in it? He answered: Some enemy has done this. The servants asked him: Do you want us to go out and collect the weeds? But he said: No, because in collecting the weeds you may root up the wheat at the same time. Let them both grow together till the harvest. At harvest-time I shall say to the reapers: Collect the weed first, and tie it in bundles for burning: then gather the wheat into my barn. R. Praise to thee, O Christ.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead. and the life of the world that is to come. ## He takes the Chalice and offers it, saying:

Their hands are steeped in evil; their right hands full of bribes.

For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me. My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord, I will bless thee.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

t is truly just and right, fitting and for our good, always and everywhere to give thanks to thee, Lord, holy Father, almighty eternal God; who with thine only-begotten Son and the Holy Spirit art one God, one Lord, not in the singleness of one person, but in the one substance of the Trinity. For whatever through thy revelation we believe concerning thy glory, that also we hold both of thy Son and of the Holy Spirit, without distinction or difference; so that in confessing the true and everlasting Godhead, we adore each several person, and at the same time their one substance and their equal majesty; which the Angels praise and the Archangels, the Cherubim too and Seraphim, who never cease to cry out every day, saying with one voice:

Joining his hands, he bows and says:

Joann. 1, 1-14

n principio erat Verbum, et Verbum erat apud Deum, et Deus erat Verbum. Hoc erat in principio apud Deum. Omnia per ipsum facta sunt, et sine ipso factum est nihil, quod factum est: in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, et lux in tenebris lucet, et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. Fuit homo missus a Deo, cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine ejus, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. (Genuflectit dicens) Et Verbum caro factum est, (et surgens prosequitur) et habitavit in nobis: et vidimus gloriam ejus, gloriam quasi Unigeniti a Patre, plenum gratiae et veritatis.

The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

The beginning of the holy Gospel according to John.

Glory to thee, O Lord.

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, John 1, 1-14 and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. R. Thanks be to God.

chosen, because when our gospel reached you, it was not a thing of mere words; it was invested with the power of the Holy Spirit and produced full conviction. And just as we adopted your ways, you remember, for your sakes, so you in turn have become like us. and so, like the Lord; for you endured great suffering with joy in the Holy Spirit when you received the Word. In this way you have set an example for all believers in Macedonia and Greece. For from you the Word of God has sent out its echo, and not only through Macedonia and Greece. Your faith in God has spread its message everywhere, so much so that there is nothing left for us to add. When we speak, our hearers tell us the story of what happened when we first came among you: how you turned away from idols to serve the true and living God and to await the coming of his Son from heaven, the Son whom he raised from the dead, Jesus, who will save us from the coming wrath. Of all seeds it is the smallest; but when it has grown up it is larger than any garden plant and becomes a tree, so that the birds of heaven can come and make a home in its branches. Another parable he told them was this: The kingdom of heaven is like leaven, which a woman takes and covers over with three measures of flour, until the whole is leavened. believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man, He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me. My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord, I will bless thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Bowing slightly and joining his hands, he says:

Amen.

Postea versus ad populum, voce paululum elevata, dicit:

Quod enim de tua gloria, revelante te, credimus, hoc de Filio tuo, hoc de Spiritu Sancto, sine differentia discretionis sentimus. #### SIXTH SUNDAY OMITTED AFTER EPIPHANY

He turns to the people, and says in a louder tone:

pray, brethren, that my sacrifice and yours may find acceptance with God the Father almighty.

May the Lord receive the sacrifice from your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our welfare also, and that of all his holy Church. The priest says: Amen.

Secret

ay this sacrifice, O God, we beseech thee, cleanse and renew, govern and protect us: through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, (in a clear voice) for ever and ever. R. Amen.

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. Raise your hearts. R. They are raised to the Lord. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is just and right.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

t is truly just and right, fitting and for our good, always and everywhere to give thanks to thee, Lord, holy Father, almighty eternal God; who with thine only-begotten Son and the Holy Spirit art one God, one Lord, not in the singleness of one person, but in the one substance of the Trinity. For whatever through thy revelation we believe concerning thy glory, that also we hold both of thy Son and of the Holy Spirit, without distinction or difference; so that in confessing the true and everlasting Godhead, we adore each several person, and at the same time their one substance and their equal majesty; which the Angels praise and the Archangels, the Cherubim too and Seraphim, who never cease to cry out every day, saying with one voice:

Joining his hands, he bows and says:

oly, Holy, Holy Lord God of Hosts. Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

NOW TURN TO THE CANON

The priest continues the Mass:

Communion. Mark 11, 24. Therefore I say to you, whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it, and you will have it.

He kisses the altar and says:

C. The Lord be with you.

And with you also.

Oremus.

Dominus vobiscum. Ite, missa est.

Et cum spiritu tuo.

Deo gratias.

Sacerdos inclinat se, et dicit secrete:

laceat tibi, sancta Trinitas, obsequium servitutis meae: et praesta: ut sacrificium, quod oculis tuae majestatis indignus obtuli, tibi sit acceptabile, mihique, et omnibus pro quibus illud obtuli, sit, te miserante, propitiabile. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

Versus ad populum, benedicens, prosequitur:

C. Benedicat vos omnipotens Deus, Pater, et Filius, ret Spiritus Sanctus. R. Amen.

Sacerdos in cornu Evangelii, dicit:

Dominus vobiscum. R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

C. Initium sancti Evangelii secundum Joannem.

Gloria tibi, Domine.

Joann. 1, 1-14

n principio erat Verbum, et Verbum erat apud Deum, et Deus erat Verbum. Hoc erat in principio apud Deum. Omnia per ipsum facta sunt, et sine ipso factum est nihil, quod factum est: in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, et lux in tenebris lucet, et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. Fuit homo missus a Deo, cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine eius, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. (Genuflectit dicens) Et Verbum caro factum est, (et surgens prosequitur) et habitavit in nobis: et vidimus gloriam ejus, gloriam quasi Unigeniti a Patre, plenum gratiae et veritatis.

R. Deo gratias.

SIXTH SUNDAY OMITTED AFTER EPIPHANY

Let us pray.

Postcommunion

hou hast fed us, Lord, at the heavenly banquet: grant that we may ever hunger for the things by which we truly live: through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. R. Amen.

The Lord be with you. Go, the Mass is ended.

And with you also.

Thanks be to God.

The priest bows, and prays silently, saying:

ay the homage of my service, O holy Trinity, be pleasing to thee: and grant that the sacrifice, which I, though unworthy, have offered in the sight of thy majesty may be acceptable to thee, and through thy mercy bring thy favour on me and all for whom I have offered it. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Turning to the people, he says in blessing:

C. May Almighty God, Father, and Son, * and Holy Spirit, bless you. R. Amen.

The priest goes to the Gospel corner, and says:

The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

The beginning of the holy Gospel according to John.

Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 1, 1-14

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. R. Thanks be to God.

I pray that through his glorious power God will fill you with all strength to face the future with endurance, with fortitude, and with joyful gratitude to the Father, who has made us fit to share the inheritance of the saints in the kingdom of light. Turning to the book, he says:

The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

A passage from * the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

Glory to thee, O Lord.

Matth. 24, 15-35 t that time: Jesus said to his disciples: When you see the abomination of desolation, of which the prophet Daniel spoke, standing in a holy place (let the reader mark this well), then those who are in Judea must seek refuge in the mountains; the man who is on the housetop, when he comes down, must not fetch anything from his house; and the man who is in the fields must not turn back to fetch his coat. It will go hard with women who are with child or have babes at their breast in those days. Pray that your flight may not be in winter or on the sabbath, for it will be a day of misery greater than has ever been since the beginning of the world, or ever will be again. Indeed, if the number of those days had not been shortened, not one human being would survive; but for the sake of the elect they will be shortened. If anyone then says to you, Look, here is the Messias, or, There he is, do not believe it. False Messiases and false prophets will appear and work great signs and wonders, to mislead, if that were possible, even the elect. Observe, I have forewarned you. If, then, you are told, He is out in the desert, do not go out; if you sol obscurabitur, et luna non dabit lumen suum, et stellae cadetn de caelo, et virtutes caelorum commovebuntur: et tunc parebit signum Filii hominis in caelo: et tunc plangent omnes tribus terrae: et videbunt Filium hominis venientem in nubibus caeli cum virtute multa, et majestate. Et mittet Angelos suos cum tuba et voce magna: et congregabunt electos ejus a quatuor ventis, a summis caelorum usque ad terminos eorum. Ab arbore autem fici discite parabolam: cum jam ramus ejus tener fuerit, et folia nata, scitis quia prope est aestas: ita et vos cum videritis haec omnia, scitote quia prope est in januis. Amen dico vobis, quia non praeteribit generatio haec, donec omnia haec fiant. Caelum et terra transibunt, verba autem mea non praeteribunt. R. Laus tibi, Christe.

Sacerdos osculatur Evangelium, dicens:

Per evangelica dicta deleantur nostra delicta.

redo in unum Deum, Patrem omnipotentem, factorem caeli et terrae, visibilium omnium, et invisibilium. Et in unum Dominum Jesum Christum, Filium Dei unigenitum. Et ex Patre natum ante omnia saecula. Deum de Deo, lumen de lumine, Deum verum de Deo vero. Genitum, non factum, consubstantialem Patri: per quem omnia facta sunt. Qui propter nos homines, et propter nostram salutem descendit de caelis. (Hic genuflectitur) Et incarnatus est de Spiritu Sancto ex Maria Virgine: et homo factus est. Crucifixus etiam pro nobis: sub Pontio Pilato passus, et sepultus est. Et resurrexit tertia die, secundum Scripturas. Et ascendit in caelum: sedet ad dexteram Patris. Et iterum venturus est cum gloria judicare vivos, et mortuos: cujus regni non erit finis. Et in Spiritum Sanctum, Dominum, et vivificantem: qui ex Patre Filioque procedit. Qui cum Patre et Filio simul adoratur, et conglorificatur: qui locutus est per Prophetas. Et unam, sanctam, catholicam et apostolicam Écclesiam. Confiteor unum baptisma in remissionem peccatorum. Et exspecto resurrectionem mortuorum. Et vitam venturi saeculi. Amen.

are told. He is lurking in hiding, do not believe it. For the coming of the Son of Man will be as clearly seen as lightning flashing across from the East to the West. Wherever the corpse is, there the eagles will gather. As soon as the distress of those days is over, the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give her light, stars will fall from the heavens, and the powers on high will be rocked. Then the sign of the Son of Man will be seen in the heavens; and all the peoples of the earth will beat their breasts, as they behold the Son of Man coming upon the clouds of heaven with great power and glory. With a great trumpet blast he will send out his angels, who will gather in his elect from the four winds, and from the furthest regions under the heaven. Let the fig-tree teach you a lesson. As soon as its branches grow tender and break into leaf, you know that summer is near. In the same way, when you see all this, know that the end is at hand, at your very door. I tell you truly, this generation will not have passed away before all these things happen. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will remain. R. Praise to thee. O Christ.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

LAST SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

The priest takes the paten with the Host, which he offers, saying:

He blesses the water with the sign of the Cross and says:

He takes the Chalice and offers it, saying:

re offer thee, O Lord, the chalice of salvation, beseeching thy gentle mercy, that for our own and the whole world's salvation it may ascend with a sweet fragrance in the sight of thy divine majesty. Amen.

Bowing slightly, he says:

th humble soul and repentant heart may we be received by thee, Lord; and may our sacrifice be so offered in thy sight this day that it may please thee, Lord God.

ome, Sanctifier, almighty eternal God, (he blesses the offerings and continues) and * bless this sacrifice, prepared for thy holy name.

Whilst washing his hands, the priest says:

Ps. 25, 6-12

will wash my hands among the innocent and gather with them at thy altar, Lord:

To hear the song of praise and tell of all thy wonderful works. Lord, I have loved the beauty of thy house and the place where thy glory dwells.

Let not my soul, O God, be lost among the wicked nor my life with men of blood.

Their hands are steeped in evil; their right hands full of bribes. For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me. My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord, I will bless thee.

Aliquantulum inclinatus, junctis manibus, dicit:

In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enerat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine ejus, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. he Lord possessed me in the beginning of his ways, before he made anything, from the beginning. I was set up from eternity, and of old, before the earth was made. The depths were not as yet, and I was already conceived; neither had the fountains of waters as yet sprung out; the mountains with their huge bulk had not as yet been established: before the hills I was brought forth; he had not yet made the earth, nor the rivers, nor the poles of the world. When he prepared the heavens, I was there; when with a certain law and compass he enclosed the depths; when he established the sky above, and poised the fountains of waters; when he compassed the sea with its bounds, and set a law to the waters that they should not pass their limits; when he balanced the foundations of the earth; I was with him, forming all things, and was delighted every day, playing before him at all times, playing in the world: and my delight is to be with the children of men. Now therefore, ye children, hear me: blessed are they that keep my ways. Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not. Blessed is the man that heareth me, and that watcheth daily at my gates, and waiteth at the posts of my doors. He that shall find me shall find life, and shall have salvation from the Lord. R. Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages: God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world that is to come. believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

R. Thanks be to God.

FEBRUARY 2 THE PURIFICATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

The priest, with the servers, proceeds with the blessing of the candles. He stands facing the altar with hands joined and says:

C. The Lord be with you.

R. And with you also.

Let us pray.

Prayer

ord, holy Father, almighty eternal God, who didst create all things from nothing, and by thy disposition hast, through the industry of bees, given wax to be made into candles: and who this day didst grant the prayer of Simeon the just: we humbly beg thee, through our invocation of thy most holy name and the intercession of the blessed Mary ever Virgin, whose feast we devoutly keep this day, and by the prayers of all thy saints. graciously to  $\frac{1}{2}$  bless and  $\frac{1}{2}$  sanctify these candles for the service of men, and for the health of their bodies and souls, whether they are on land or on the sea. And from thy holy heaven where thou art enthroned in majesty, hear the voice of thy people, who desire in thy honour to carry these candles in their hand and to praise thee with song. And be merciful to all who cry out to thee, whom thou hast redeemed with the precious blood of thy Son: who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. R. Amen.

Let us pray.

Prave

Imighty eternal God, who this day didst present thine only-begotten Son in thy holy temple to be received in the arms of holy Simeon, we humbly beg thy goodness to beless and sanctify and kindle with the light of thy heavenly blessing these candles which thy servants receive and desire to light and carry for the glory of thy name. May we thus be made worthy to present them to thee, our Lord God, and may we ourselves, set aflame with the holy fire of thy most sweet charity, deserve to be presented in the holy temple of thy glory: through the same Jesus Christ thy Son, our Lord, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. R. Amen.

Let us pray.

Praye

ord Jesus Christ, true light that enlighteneth every man entering this world, pour thy blessing on these candles and sanctify them with the light of thy grace, and mercifully grant that as these lights, lit with visible fire, disperse the darkness

Per te, Christe Jesu, Salvator mundi, qui in Trinitate perfecta vivis et regnas Deus: per omnia saecula saeculorum. R. Amen.

Oremus. Oratio

mnipotens sempiterne Deus, qui per Moysen famulum tuum purissimum olei liquorem ad luminaria ante conspectum tuum jugiter concinnanda praeparari jussisti: bene \(\frac{1}{2}\) dictionis tuae gratiam super hos cereos benignus infunde; quatenus sic administrent lumen exterius, ut, te donante, lumen Spiritus tui nostris non desit mentibus interius. Oremus.

omine Jesu Christe, qui hodierna die in nostrae carnis substantia inter homines apparens, a parentibus in templo es praesentatus: quem Simeon venerabilis senex, lumine Spiritus tui irradiatus, agnovit, suscepit et benedixit: praesta propitius; ut ejusdem Spiritus Sancti gratia illuminati atque edocti, te veraciter agnoscamus et fideliter diligamus: Qui cum Deo Patre in unitate ejusdem Spiritus Sancti vivis et regnas Deus: per omnia saecula saeculorum, R. Amen.

Finitis Orationibus, sacerdos ponit incensum in thuribulum: deinde ter aspergit candelas aqua benedicta, dicendo antiphonam Asperges me, sine cantu, et sine psalmo: et ter adolet incenso. Postea sacerdos stans in medio ante Altare, versus ad populum, distribuit candelas per ordinem: omnibus genuflectentibus, candelam et manum sacerdotis osculantibus. Et cum inceperit distribuere candelas, a Choro cantatur:

Antiphona. Luc. 2, 32. Lumen ad revelationem gentium: et gloriam plebis tuae Israel.

Canticum. Ibid., 29-31. Nunc dimittis servum tuum, Domine, secundum verbum tuum in pace.

Deinde repetitur tota antiphona Lumen ad revelationem gentium, quae similiter repetitur post quemlibet versum.

Quia viderunt oculi mei salutare tuum. Ant. Lumen.

Ouod parasti ante faciem omnium populorum. Ant. Lumen.

of the night, so may our hearts, lit by the invisible fire of the splendour of the Holy Spirit, be freed from the blindness of all sin: so that with the sight of our minds made clear, we may be able to see the things that are pleasing to thee and helpful to our salvation. Thus, after the darkness and dangers of this world, we may be worthy to obtain unfailing light. Through thee, Christ Jesus, Saviour of the world, who art God, living and reigning in perfect Trinity, world without end. R. Amen.

Let us pray.

lmighty eternal God, who by thy servant Moses didst command the purest oil to be prepared for lamps to burn continually before thee, graciously pour forth the grace of thy H blessing on these candles; and as they give us outward light, so grant that the light of thy Spirit may be present inwardly in our minds. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the same Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. R. Amen.

Let us pray.

ord Jesus Christ, who didst appear this day in the substance of our flesh and wert presented by thy parents in the temple; whom the aged and venerable Simeon, enlightened by the light of the Holy Spirit, didst recognise, take in his hands and bless: mercifully grant that, enlightened and taught by the grace of the same Holy Spirit, we may truly recognise and faithfully love thee, who art God, living and reigning with God the Father in the unity of the same Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. R. Amen.

After the Prayers, the priest puts incense in the thurible: then he sprinkles the candles three times with holy water, saying the antiphon Thou shalt sprinkle me, without singing and without the psalm: and he incenses the candles three times. Then the priest stands in the centre before the altar, facing the people, and distributes the candles: all genuflect and kiss first the candle, then the priest's hand. When the distribution of candles begins, the choir sings:

Antiphon. Luke 2, 32. A light of revelation for the Gentiles and of glory for thy people Israel.

Canticle. Ibid., 29-31. Now, O Lord, thou dost let thy servant go in peace, according to thy promise.

The whole antiphon A light of revelation is then sung again, and is Because my eyes have beheld the salvation. Ant. A light. Thou hast made ready for the sight of all peoples. Ant. A light.

IN PURIFICATIONE B.M.V.

Gloria Patri, et Filio, et Spiritui Sancto. Ant. Lumen. Sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et semper, et in saecula saeculorum, Amen, Ant. Lumen.

xaudi, quaesumus, Domine, plebem tuam: et, quae extrinsecus annua tribuis devotione venerari, interius assegui gratiae tuae luce concede. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. R. Amen.

Deinde fit Processio.

C. Procedamus in pace.

In nomine Christi. Amen.

Et cantantur antiphonae sequentes:

Ant. Adorna thalamum tuum, Sion, et suscipe Regem Christum: amplectere Mariam, quae est caelestis porta: ipsa enim portat Regem gloriae novi luminis: subsistit Virgo, adducens manibus Filium ante luciferum genitum: quem accipiens Simeon in ulnas suas, praedicavit populis Dominum eum esse vitae et mortis et Salvatorem mundi.

Alia Ant. Luc. 2, 26, 27, 28-29. Responsum accepit Simeon a Spiritu Sancto, non visurum se mortem, nisi videret Christum Domini: et cum inducerent puerum in templum, accepit eum in ulnas suas, et benedixit Deum, et dixit: Nunc dimittis servum tuum, Domine, in pace. V. Cum inducerent puerum Jesum parentes ejus, ut facerent secundum consuetudinem legis pro eo, ipse accepit eum in ulnas suas.

Et ingrediendo Ecclesiam, cantantur: V. Obtulerunt pro eo Domino par turturum, aut duos pullos columbarum: Sicut scriptum est in lege Domini. V. Postquam impleti sunt dies purgationis Mariae secundum legem Moysi, tulerunt Jesum in Jerusalem, ut sisterent eum Domino. Sicut scriptum est in lege Domini. V. Gloria Patri, et Filio, et Spiritui Sancto. Sicut scriptum est in lege Domini.

Finita Processione, sacerdos et ministri, accipiunt paramenta alba pro Missa, et candelae tenentur in manibus accensae, dum legitur Evangelium, et iterum ab incepto Canone usque ad expletam Communionem.

THE PURIFICATION

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. Ant. A light.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Ant. A light.

Then the priest says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also,

Let us pray.

Prayer

ear thy people, Lord, and by the light of thy grace make us understand in our hearts what we celebrate each year, at thy bidding, in these external rites. Through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

Then the procession begins.

C. Let us go our way in peace. R. In the name of Christ. Amen.

And the following antiphons are sung:

Ant. Make ready thy dwelling Sion, and welcome Christ the King. Open thine arms to Mary, she is the gate of heaven; for she carries the king of glory, the new light. The Virgin stands offering in her arms the Son born before the dawn star. And Simeon taking the child in his arms, proclaims to all the people that here is the Lord of life and death, the Saviour of the world.

Alternative Ant. Luke 2, 26, 27, 28-29. Simeon had received a revelation from the Holy Spirit that he would not see death until he had seen the Lord's Anointed: and when they brought the child into the temple, he took him in his arms and blessed God with the words: Now, O Lord, thou dost let thy servant go in peace. When Jesus' parents brought in their child, to carry out the custom of the Law in his regard, Simeon took the child in his arms.

On entering the church, they sing: V. They offered on his behalf to the Lord a pair of turtle-doves or two young pigeons: for it is prescribed in the law of the Lord. V. After Mary's days of purification had been completed as required by the law of Moses, they took Jesus up to Jerusalem to present him before the Lord, for it is prescribed in the law of the Lord. V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. For it is prescribed in the law of the Lord.

When the procession is over the priest and sacred ministers put on white vestments for the Mass. The candles are lit and held in the hand during the Gospel, and again from the beginning of the Canon until after Communion.

believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead: and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in one. holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world that is to come. ### Preface for Christmas

Joann. 1, 1-14

n principio erat Verbum, et Verbum erat apud Deum, et Deus erat Verbum. Hoc erat in principio apud Deum. Omnia per ipsum facta sunt, et sine ipso factum est nihil, quod factum est: in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, et lux in tenebris lucet, et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. Fuit homo missus a Deo, cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Ouotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine ejus, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. (Genuflectit dicens) Et Verbum caro factum est, (et surgens prosequitur) et habitavit in nobis: et vidimus gloriam ejus, gloriam quasi Unigeniti a Patre, plenum gratiae et veritatis.

R. Deo gratias.

Let us pray.

Postcommunion

R. Amen.

The priest bows, and prays silently, saying:

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Turning to the people, he says in blessing:

C. May Almighty God, Father, and Son, + and Holy Spirit, bless you. R. Amen.

The priest goes to the Gospel corner, and says:

The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

The beginning of the holy Gospel according to John.

Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 1, 1-14

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. R. Thanks be to God.

Lord Jesus Christ the only-begotten Son, Lord God, Son of the Father, Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; who takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayers; who sittest at the Father's right hand, have mercy on us. He kisses the altar and says:

Prayer

God, who wert pleased to send the blessed Patrick, Bishop and Confessor, to preach thy glory to the heathen, grant by his merits and intercession that we may be able through thy mercy to accomplish all thou dost command us to do: through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. R. Amen.

Epistle of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Romans.

rethren: If a man believes in his heart, and confesses his faith with his lips, he will be justified, he will be saved. For the Scripture says: No man who believes in him will ever have nam idem Dominus omnium, dives in omnes, qui invocant illum. Omnis enim quicumque invocaverit nomen Domini, salvus erit. Ouomodo ergo invocabunt, in quem non crediderunt? Aut quomodo credent ei, quem non audierunt? Quomodo autem audient sine praedicante? Quomodo vero praedicabunt, nisi mittantur? sicut scriptum est: Quam speciosi pedes evangelizantium bona! Sed non omnes obediunt Evangelio. Isaias enim dicit: Domine, quis credidit auditui nostro? Ergo fides ex auditu, auditus autem per verbum Christi. Sed dico: Numquid non audierunt? Et quidem in omnem terram exivit sonus eorum, et in fines orbis terrae verba eorum. R. Deo gratias.

Graduale. Ps. 104, 17, 19. Misit ante eos virum: in servum venumdatus est Joseph. V. Donec veniret verbum ejus. Eloquium Domini inflammavit eum.

Tractus. Is. 42, 6-8. Ego Dominus vocavi te in justitia, et apprehendi manum tuam et servavi te. Et dedi te in foedus populi, in lucem gentium. V. Ut aperires oculos caecorum, et educeres de conclusione vinctum, de domo carceris sedentes in tenebris. V. Ego Dominus, hoc est nomen meum: gloriam meam alteri non dabo, et laudem meam sculptilibus.

Sacerdos, inclinatus in medio, dicit:

unda cor meum, ac labia mea, omnipotens Deus, qui labia Isaiae Prophetae calculo mundasti ignito: ita me tua grata Imiseratione dignare mundare, ut sanctum Evangelium tuum digne valeam nuntiare. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

Jube, Domine, benedicere.

Dominus sit in corde meo, et in labiis meis: ut digne et competenter annuntiem Evangelium suum. Amen.

Deinde conversus ad librum dicit:

R. Et cum spiritu tuo. Dominus vobiscum.

Sequentia * sancti Evangelii secundum Lucam.

Gloria tibi Domine.

Luc. 10, 1-9

n illo tempore: Designavit Dominus et alios septuaginta duos: et misit illos binos ante faciem suam in omnem civitatem et locum, quo erat ipse venturus. Et dicebat illis: Messis quidem multa, operarii autem pauci. Rogate ergo dominum messis, ut mittat operarios in messem suam. Ite: ecce, ego mitto vos sicut cause for regret. There is no distinction between Jew and Greek. for the same Lord is over all, and has wealth in abundance for all who call upon him; for everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord will be saved. Now men cannot call upon one in whom they have not believed, nor can they believe in one whose word they have not heard, nor can they hear the word without a preacher, nor can men preach it if they are not sent; that is why the Scripture says: How welcome are the feet of those who preach good news. But some have not heeded the good news which they have heard. for Isaias says: Lord, who has believed what he has heard from us? Faith is from hearing, and hearing comes from the word of Christ. I ask then: Have the Jews not heard it? Of course they have, for the preachers' voice has gone out through the whole world, and their words to the ends of the earth. R. Thanks be to God.

Gradual. Ps. 104, 17, 19. He sent a man ahead of them. Joseph. who was sold as a slave. V. When his word came to pass: the Lord's eloquence inspired him.

Tract. Is. 42, 6-8. I, the Lord, called you in justice and have held your hand and preserved you, and I have given you for a covenant to the people, for a light to the nations. V. That you may open the eyes of the blind man and free the shackled from his fetters, and those that sit in darkness from their prison-house. V. I am the Lord, that is my name; I will give my glory to none other, nor my praise to idols.

The priest, bowing in the middle of the altar, says:

leanse my heart and my lips, almighty God, who didst cleanse the lips of the prophet Isaias with a glowing coal: in thy gracious mercy be pleased so to cleanse me, that I may worthily proclaim thy holy Gospel, Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Pray, Lord, a blessing.

May the Lord be in my heart and on my lips that I may announce his Gospel worthily and well. Amen.

Turning to the book, he says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

A passage from \( \frac{1}{2} \) the holy Gospel according to Luke.

Glory to thee, O Lord.

Luke 10, 1-9

t that time: The Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them ahead of him in pairs to every village and town which he intended to visit himself. He said to them: The harvest is abundant, but the labourers are few; so pray the Lord who owns the harvest to send labourers to reap his harvest. Be agnos inter lupos. Nolite portare sacculos, neque peram, neque calceamenta: et neminem per viam salutaveritis. In quamcumque domum intaveritis, primum dicite: Pax huic domui: et si ibi fuerit filius pacis, requiescet super illum pax vestra: sin autem, ad vos revertetur. In eadem autem domo manete, edentes, et bibentes quae apud illos sunt: dignus est enim operarius mercede sua. Nolite transire de domo in domum. Et in quamcumque civitatem intraveritis, et susceperint vos, manducate, quae apponuntur vobis: et curate infirmos, qui in illa sunt, et dicite illis: Appropinquavit in vos regnum Dei.

Sacerdos osculatur Evangelium, dicens: Per evangelica dicta deleantur nostra delicta.

Sacerdos accipit Patenam cum Hostia, quam offerens dicit:

Suscipe, sancte Pater, omnipotens aeterne Deus, hanc immaculatam hostiam, quam ego indignus famulus tuus offero tibi Deo meo vivo, et vero, pro innumerabilibus peccatis, et offensionibus, et negligentiis meis, et pro omnibus circumstantibus, sed et pro omnibus fidelibus christianis vivis atque defunctis: ut mihi, et illis proficiat ad salutem, in vitam aeternam. on your way now; I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. Take no purse, or wallet, or sandals. Do not greet anyone on the way; but when you go into a house, begin by saying, Peace be upon this house. If a son of peace lives there, your peace will rest upon him; but if not, it will return to you. Stay in that same house; and eat and drink what they provide, for the labourer has a right to receive his keep. Do not move from house to house. Whenever you enter a town and its people make you welcome, eat what is set before you; and cure the sick there, and say to them: The kingdom of God has come near to you. R. Praise to thee, O Christ.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world that is to come. Amen.

He kisses the altar and says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.
C. Let us pray.

Offertory. Gen. 15, 5. He brought him out and said to him: Look up at the sky, and if you can, count the stars; and he said to him: so shall your descendants be.

The priest takes the paten with the Host, which he offers, saying:

Aquam benedicit signo Crucis, dicens:

eus, qui humanae substantiae dignitatem mirabiliter condidisti, et mirabilius reformasti: da nobis per hujus aquae et vini mysterium, ejus divinitatis esse consortes, qui humanitatis nostrae fieri dignatus est particeps, Jesus Christus Filius tuus Dominus noster: Qui tecum vivit et regnat in unitate Spiritus Sancti Deus: per omnia saecula saeculorum. Amen.

Accipit Calicem et offert, dicens:

eni, sanctificator omnipotens aeterne Deus (benedicit oblata, prosequendo) et bene dic hoc sacrificium, tuo sancto nomini praeparatum.

Sacerdos lavat manus, dicens:

Ps. 25, 6-12

avabo inter innocentes manus meas: et circumdabo altare tuum, Domine.

Ut audiam vocem laudis, et enarrem universa mirabilia tua. Domine, dilexi decorem domus tuae: et locum habitationis gloriae tuae.

Ne perdas cum impiis, Deus, animam meam: et cum viris sanguinum vitam meam.

Aliquantulum inclinatus, junctis manibus, dicit:

Ouscipe, sancta Trinitas, hanc oblationem, quam tibi offerimus ob memoriam passionis, resurrectionis, et ascensionis Jesu Christi Domini nostri: et in honorem beatae Mariae semper Virginis, et beati Joannis Baptistae et sanctorum Apostolorum Petri et Pauli, et istorum, et omnium Sanctorum: ut illis proficiat ad honorem, nobis autem ad salutem: et illi pro nobis intercedere

He blesses the water with the sign of the Cross and says:

He takes the Chalice and offers it, saying:

thy gentle mercy, that for our own and the whole world's salvation it may ascend with a sweet fragrance in the sight of thy divine majesty. Amen.

Bowing slightly, he says:

ome, Sanctifier, almighty eternal God, (he blesses the offerings and continues) and bless this sacrifice, prepared for thy holy name.

Whilst washing his hands, the priest says:

Ps. 25, 6-12

will wash my hands among the innocent and gather with them at thy altar, Lord;

To hear the song of praise and tell of all thy wonderful works. Lord, I have loved the beauty of thy house and the place where thy glory dwells.

Let not my soul, O God, be lost among the wicked nor my life with men of blood.

Their hands are steeped in evil; their right hands full of bribes. For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me.

My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord, I will bless thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Bowing slightly and joining his hands, he says:

Postea versus ad populum, voce paululum elevata, dicit:

eceive, Lord of hosts, this perfect sacrifice. Thou didst will that through the labours of the blessed Patrick it should be offered among the nations, from the rising to the setting of the sun, to the honour of thy great name: through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, (in a clear voice) for ever and ever. R. Amen.

The Lord be with you.

R. And with you also.

C. Raise your hearts.

R. They are raised to the Lord.

C. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

R. It is just and right.

The Common Preface

It is truly just and right, fitting and for our good, always and everywhere to give thanks to thee, Lord, holy Father, almighty eternal God, through Christ our Lord. Through him thy majesty is praised by Angels, adored by Dominations, revered by Powers. The heavens also, the Virtues and the holy Seraphim in exultant harmony proclaim it. Grant, we implore thee, that our voices also may be joined with theirs, in homage and supplication saving:

Joining his hands, he bows and says:

oly, Holy, Holy Lord God of Hosts. Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

NOW TURN TO THE CANON

R. And with you also.

Initium sancti Evangelii secundum Joannem.

Gloria tibi, Domine.

Joann. 1, 1-14

In principio erat Verbum, et Verbum erat apud Deum, et Deus erat Verbum. Hoc erat in principio apud Deum. Omnia per lipsum facta sunt, et sine ipso factum est nihil, quod factum est: in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, et lux in tenebris lucet, et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. Fuit homo missus a Deo, cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Ouotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine ejus, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. (Genuflectit dicens) Et Verbum caro factum est, (et surgens prosequitur) et habitavit in nobis: et vidimus gloriam ejus, gloriam quasi Unigeniti a Patre, plenum gratiae et veritatis.

R. Deo gratias.

Let us pray.

Postcommunion

God, who didst institute the sacrament of thy body and blood as a pledge of love between all nations, graciously grant that those whom thou hast sanctified by this divine mystery, may each day be joined most closely in bonds of peace and unity: who art God, living and reigning with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. R. Amen.

The Lord be with you.

And with you also.

Go, the Mass is ended.

Thanks be to God.

The priest bows, and prays silently, saying:

ay the homage of my service, O holy Trinity, be pleasing to thee; and grant that the sacrifice, which I, though unworthy, have offered in the sight of thy majesty, may be acceptable to thee, and through thy mercy bring forgiveness to me and all for whom I have offered it. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Turning to the people, he says in blessing:

May Almighty God, Father, and Son, + and Holy Spirit. bless you. R. Amen.

The priest goes to the Gospel corner, and says:

The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

The beginning of the holy Gospel according to John.

Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 1, 1-14

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. R. Thanks be to God.

The priest, bowing in the middle of the altar, says:

leanse my heart and my lips, almighty God, who didst cleanse the lips of the prophet Isaias with a glowing coal: in thy gracious mercy be pleased so to cleanse me, that I may worthily proclaim thy holy Gospel. Through Christ our Lord.

Pray, Lord, a blessing.

May the Lord be in my heart and on my lips that I may announce his Gospel worthily and well. Amen.

Turning to the book, he says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. A passage from * the holy Gospel according to Matthew. R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

hile Mary the mother of Jesus was betrothed to Joseph, before they came together, she was found to be with child by the Holy Spirit. Her husband, Joseph, being a kind man and not wishing to disgrace her publicly, meant to put her away privately. He was still pondering this, when an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said: Joseph, son of David, do not shrink from taking Mary as your wife; for the child conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit. She will bear a Son, and you shall call him Jesus, because it is he that will save his people from their sins. R. Praise to thee, O Christ.

Sacerdos osculatur Evangelium, dicens:

Per evangelica dicta deleantur nostra delicta.

(Hic genuflectitur) Et incarnatus est de Spiritu Sancto ex Maria Virgine: et homo factus est. Crucifixus etiam pro nobis: sub Pontio Pilato passus, et sepultus est. Et resurrexit tertia die, secundum Scripturas. Et ascendit in caelum: sedet ad dexteram Patris. Et iterum venturus est cum gloria judicare vivos, et mortuos: cujus regni non erit finis. Et in Spiritum Sanctum, Dominum, et vivificantem: qui ex Patre Filioque procedit. Qui cum Patre et Filio simul adoratur, et conglorificatur: qui locutus est per Prophetas. Et unam, sanctam, catholicam et apostolicam Ecclesiam. Confiteor unum baptisma in remissionem peccatorum. Et exspecto resurrectionem mortuorum. Et vitam venturi saeculi. Amen.

Offertorium. Ps. 88, 25. Veritas mea et misericordia mea cum ipso: et in nomine meo exaltabitur cornu ejus. (T. P. Alleluja.)

Sacerdos accipit Patenam cum Hostia, quam offerens dicit:

Suscipe, sancte Pater, omnipotens aeterne Deus, hanc immaculatam hostiam, quam ego indignus famulus tuus offero tibi Deo meo vivo, et vero, pro innumerabilibus peccatis, et offensionibus, et negligentiis meis, et pro omnibus circumstantibus, sed et pro omnibus fidelibus christianis vivis atque defunctis: ut mihi, et illis proficiat ad salutem, in vitam aeternam. Amen.

Aquam benedicit signo Crucis, dicens:

The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world that is to come. Amen.

He kisses the altar and says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

Offertory. Ps. 88, 25. My mercy and truth shall be with him, and in my name his horn shall be exalted. (P.T. Alleluia.)

The priest takes the paten with the Host, which he offers, saying:

He blesses the water with the sign of the Cross and says:

God, who in a wonderful manner hast formed the noble nature of man and even more wonderfully re-formed it, have fellowship in his Godhead, who deigned to share our manhood, Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. Amen.

Accipit Calicem et offert, dicens:

Let not my soul. O God, be lost among the wicked nor my life with men of blood.

Their hands are steeped in evil: their right hands full of bribes. For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me.

My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord, I will bless thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Bowing slightly and joining his hands, he says:

R. Deo gratias.

Let us pray.

Postcommunion tand by us, we beg thee, merciful God, and with the blessed confessor Joseph interceding on our behalf, graciously preserve the gifts thou hast given us: through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. R. Amen.

The Lord be with you. Go, the Mass is ended.

And with you also. R. Thanks be to God.

The priest bows, and prays silently, saying:

ay the homage of my service, O holy Trinity, be pleasing to thee; and grant that the sacrifice, which I, though unworthy, have offered in the sight of thy majesty, may be acceptable to thee, and through thy mercy bring forgiveness to me and all for whom I have offered it. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Turning to the people, he says in blessing:

C. May Almighty God, Father, and Son, * and Holy Spirit, bless you. R. Amen.

The priest goes to the Gospel corner, and says:

* The beginning of the holy Gospel according to John.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. R. Thanks be to God.

t that time: The angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town Luke 1, 26-38 in Galilee called Nazareth, to a maiden betrothed to a man called Joseph of the house of David. The maiden's name was Mary. Gabriel went into her home and said to her: Hail, full of grace! The Lord is with you. Blessed you are beyond all women.

turbata est in sermone ejus: et cogitabat qualis esset ista salutatio. Et ait Angelus ei: Ne timeas, Maria, invenisti enim gratiam apud Deum: ecce concipies in utero, et paries filium, et vocabis nomen ejus Jesum. Hic erit magnus, et Filius Altissimi vocabitur, et dabit illi Dominus Deus sedem David patris ejus: et regnabit in domo Jacob in aeternum, et regni ejus non erit finis. Dixit autem Maria ad Angelum: Quomodo fiet istud, quoniam virum non cognosco? Et respondens Angelus, dixit ei: Spiritus Sanctus superveniet in te, et virtus Altissimi obumbrabit tibi. Ideoque et quod nascetur ex te Sanctum vocabitur Filius Dei. Et ecce Elisabeth cognata tua, et ipsa concepit filium in senectute sua: et hic mensis sextus est illi, quae vocatur sterilis: quia non erit impossibile apud Deum omne verbum. Dixit autem Maria: Ecce ancilla Domini, fiat mihi secundum verbum tuum.

Mary was much troubled by his words and wondered what this greeting might mean. Then the angel said to her: Have no fear, Mary; you have found favour with God. See, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you must name him Jesus. He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High; and the Lord God will give him the throne of David his forefather; and he will rule over the house of Jacob for ever, and his kingdom shall have no end. Mary said to the angel: How will this be, since I have no knowledge of man? The angel answered her: The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; that is why the holy child to be born of you will be called God's Son. And now, your cousin Elizabeth too has conceived a son, old as she is: she who is believed to be barren is now in her sixth month, for nothing shall be impossible to God. And Mary said: Behold the handmaid of the Lord! Be it done to me according to your word.

R. Praise to thee, O Christ. The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

And he said to me: Thou art my servant Israel, for in thee will I glory. And now saith the Lord, that formed me from the womb to be his servant: Behold I have given thee to be the light of the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation even to the farthest part of the earth. Kings shall see and princes shall rise up, and adore for the Lord's sake, and for the Holy One of Israel, who hath chosen thee. R. Thanks be to God.

When her neighbours and relations heard of the great mercy which the Lord had shown her, they joined in her rejoicing; and on the eighth day, when they came for the child's circumcision, they wanted him called Zachary, after his father. But his mother said: No; he is to be called John. Why, they said, there is nobody among your relations who bears that name. Then they asked his father, by signs, what he wished him to be called. He asked for a writing-tablet and, to the wonder of all, wrote on it: John is his name. Then at once his mouth was opened and his tongue was loosed, and he began to speak and to bless God. The neighbours were all struck with awe, and the matter was talked about in the whole of the hill-country of Judea. All who heard of

believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world that is to come. Amen.

Let not my soul, O God, be lost among the wicked nor my life with men of blood.

Their hands are steeped in evil; their right hands full of bribes.

For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me. My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord, I will bless thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Bowing slightly and joining his hands, he says:

Preface of the Holy Trinity

t is truly just and right, fitting and for our good, always and everywhere to give thanks to thee, Lord, holy Father, almighty eternal God; who with thine only-begotten Son and the Holy Spirit art one God, one Lord, not in the singleness of one person, but in the one substance of the Trinity. For whatever through thy revelation we believe concerning thy glory, that also we hold both of thy Son and of the Holy Spirit, without distinction or difference; so that in confessing the true and everlasting Godhead, we adore each several person, and at the same time their one substance and their equal majesty; which the Angels praise and the Archangels, the Cherubim too and Seraphim, who never cease to cry out every day, saying with one voice:

Joining his hands, he bows and says:

oly, Holy, Holy Lord God of Hosts. Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Gloria tibi, Domine.

Joann. 1, 1-14

n principio erat Verbum, et Verbum erat apud Deum, et Deus erat Verbum. Hoc erat in principio apud Deum. Omnia per lipsum facta sunt, et sine ipso factum est nihil, quod factum est: in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, et lux în tenebris lucet, et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. Fuit homo missus a Deo, cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine ejus, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. (Genuflectit dicens) Et Verbum caro factum est, (et surgens prosequitur) et habitavit in nobis: et vidimus gloriam ejus, gloriam quasi Unigeniti a Patre, plenum gratiae et veritatis. He kisses the alter and says:

ST JOHN THE BAPTIST

Let us pray. Postcommunion ay thy Church, Lord, find joy in the birth of blessed John the Baptist, for through him it recognised the author of its redemption, our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God. living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. R. Amen.

Through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Turning to the people, he says in blessing: with other ni same?

C. May Almighty God, Father, and Son, & and Holy Spirit, bless you. R. Amen.

The priest goes to the Gospel corner, and says:

The beginning of the holy Gospel according to John.

Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 1, 1-14

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God. and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genufleets, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

R. Thanks be to God.

further and arrested Peter too, during the time of the Unleavened Bread. He seized him and kept him in prison with four watches of four soldiers to guard him, and meant to bring him out after the Passover, to gratify the people. While Peter was kept in prison. earnest prayer was being offered to God by the Church on his behalf. The night before Herod meant to bring him out, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, and guards were keeping watch at the prison gates, when suddenly an angel of the Lord stood beside him, and light shone in the cell. The angel struck Peter's side and said to him: Get up quickly; and the chains fell from his wrists. Then the angel said to him: Do up your girdle, and put on your sandals; and Peter did so. Now put your cloak on, he said, and follow me. Peter followed him out, but he did not realise that what the angel was doing was really happening; he thought he was seeing a vision. They passed the first guard, then the second, and came to the iron gate leading to the city, which opened for them by itself. They went through, and along one street; then suddenly the angel disappeared. Peter came to himself, and said: Now I am sure that the Lord has really sent his angel and rescued me from Herod's power and from all that the Jewish people were expecting. R. Thanks be to God.

Respondens autem Jesus, dixit ei: Beatus es, Simon Bar Jona: quia caro et sanguis non revelavit tibi, sed Pater meus, qui in caelis est. #### SS PETER AND PAUL

And you, who do you say that I am? Simon Peter answered: You are the Messias, the Son of the living God. Jesus replied: Simon bar Jonah, you are blessed indeed! For it was not flesh and blood that revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven. Now in my turn I say to you: You are Peter, the Rock; and on this rock I shall build my Church; and the powers of Hell will not prevail against her. To you I shall give the keys of the kingdom of heaven; what you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and what you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.

R. Praise to thee, O Christ.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

Omnia per ipsum facta sunt, et sine ipso factum est nihil, quod factum est: in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, et lux in tenebris lucet, et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. Fuit homo missus a Deo, cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine ejus, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. (Genuflectit dicens) Et Verbum caro factum est, (et surgens prosequitur) et habitavit in nobis: et vidimus gloriam ejus, gloriam quasi Unigeniti a Patre, plenum gratiae et veritatis.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 1, 1-14

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. R. Thanks be to God.

Heb. 9, 11-15

rethren: Christ has appeared as High Priest, to gain for us blessings in the future. His is a greater and more perfect Tabernacle, not made by human hands and not part of this creation; and the blood which he offers is not the blood of goats or calves, but his own; with this he has entered once and for all into the Sanctuary, and has gained for us a redemption that is eternal. For if the blood of goats and bulls, or the ash of a heifer, when sprinkled on those who are ceremonially defiled, sanctifies and purifies the flesh, how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself as an unblemished victim to God, purify our consciences of deeds of death, and fit us to serve the living God. So then Christ is the Mediator of a new covenant. His death took place to make amends for the transgressions committed under the former covenant, so that those who have been called may enter into the eternal inheritance that has been promised them: in Jesus Christ our Lord.

So the soldiers came, and broke the legs of the first man and then of the other who had been crucified with him. believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. Elias. While he was still speaking, there above them was a bright cloud overshadowing them; and a voice came from the cloud: This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; listen to him. When the disciples heard this, they fell on their faces and were very much afraid. But Jesus came near and touched them, and said: Rise up and do not be afraid. Then they looked up and saw no one but Jesus alone. On their way down the mountain Jesus laid this charge on them: Do not tell anyone about the vision, until after the Son of Man has risen from the dead.

R. Praise to thee, O Christ.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages: God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in one. holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world that is to come. Amen.

He kisses the altar and says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. Let us pray.

Offertory. Ps. 111, 3. Glory and riches are in his house, and his justice remains for ever, alleluia.

THE TRANSFIGURATION

He blesses the water with the sign of the Cross and says:

ome, Sanctifier, almighty eternal God, (he blesses the offerings and continues) and bless this sacrifice, prepared for thy holy name.

Whilst washing his hands, the priest says:

Ps. 25, 6-12

will wash my hands among the innocent and gather with them at thy altar, Lord;

To hear the song of praise and tell of all thy wonderful works. Lord, I have loved the beauty of thy house and the place where thy glory dwells.

Let not my soul, O God, be lost among the wicked nor my life with men of blood.

Their hands are steeped in evil; their right hands full of bribes. For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me. My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord,

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Bowing slightly and joining his hands, he says:

Ut in confessione verae sempiternaeque Deitatis, et in personis proprietas, et in essentia unitas, et in majestate adoretur aequalitas. Secret anctify, we beseech thee, Lord, our gifts by the glorious transfiguration of thine only-begotten Son; and by the splendour of his brightness cleanse us from the stains of our sins: through the same Jesus Christ thy Son, our Lord, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, (in a clear voice) for ever and ever. R. Amen.

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

Raise your hearts. R. They are raised to the Lord.

C. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is just and right.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

t is truly just and right, fitting and for our good, always and everywhere to give thanks to thee, Lord, holy Father, almighty eternal God; who with thine only-begotten Son and the Holy Spirit art one God, one Lord, not in the singleness of one person, but in the one substance of the Trinity. For whatever through thy revelation we believe concerning thy glory, that also we hold both of thy Son and of the Holy Spirit, without distinction or difference; so that in confessing the true and everlasting Godhead, we adore each several person, and at the same time their one substance and their equal majesty; which the Angels praise and the Archangels, the Cherubim too and Seraphim, who never cease to cry out every day, saying with one voice:

Joining his hands, he bows and says:

oly, Holy, Holy Lord God of Hosts. Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

NOW TURN TO THE CANON

C. 🛧 Initium sancti Evangelii secundum Joannem.

R. Gloria tibi, Domine.

Joann. 1, 1-14

n principio erat Verbum, et Verbum erat apud Deum, et Deus erat Verbum. Hoc erat in principio apud Deum. Omnia per ipsum facta sunt, et sine ipso factum est nihil, quod factum est: in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, et lux in tenebris lucet, et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. Fuit homo missus a Deo, cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine ejus, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. (Genuflectit dicens) Et Verbum caro factum est, (et surgens prosequitur) et habitavit in nobis: et vidimus gloriam eius, gloriam quasi Unigeniti a Patre, plenum gratiae et veritatis.

R. Deo gratias.

Let us pray.

Postcommunion

rant, we beseech thee, almighty God, that with minds made pure we may come to understand the sacred mysteries of thy Son's transfiguration, which we solemnly celebrate: through the same Jesus Christ thy Son, our Lord, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. R. Amen.

C. The Lord be with you.C. Go, the Mass is ended.

R. And with you also.
R. Thanks be to God.

ied. R.

The priest bows, and prays silently, saying:

ay the homage of my service, O holy Trinity, be pleasing to thee; and grant that the sacrifice, which I, though unworthy, have offered in the sight of thy majesty, may be acceptable to thee, and through thy mercy bring forgiveness to me and all for whom I have offered it. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Turning to the people, he says in blessing:

C. May Almighty God, Father, and Son, And Holy Spirit, bless you. R. Amen.

The priest goes to the Gospel corner, and says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. The beginning of the holy Gospel according to John.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 1, 1-14

Yes, when your voice fell upon my ears in greeting, the babe in my womb leapt for joy. Blessed is she who has believed that the Lord's message to her would be fulfilled. And Mary said: My soul gives glory to the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour, for he has looked on his lowly handmaid, and from this day forth all generations will call me blessed. For he who is mighty has done great things for me, holy is his name. His mercy abides from generation to generation over those who fear him. R. Praise to thee, O Christ.

believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world that is to come. Omnia per ipsum facta sunt, et sine ipso factum est nihil, quod factum est: in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, et lux in tenebris lucet, et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. Fuit homo missus a Deo. cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine eius, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. (Genuflectit dicens) Et Verbum caro factum est, (et surgens prosequitur) et habitavit in nobis: et vidimus gloriam ejus, gloriam quasi Unigeniti a Patre, plenum gratiae et veritatis.

The priest bows, and prays silently, saying:

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 1, 1-14

Gal. 6, 14

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world. and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name. to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. R. Thanks be to God.

The people answered: We have been taught by the Law that the Messias is to remain with us for ever; how then can you say that the Son of Man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of Man? Amen.

Preface of the Holy Cross

ST MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

The priest goes to the Gospel corner, and says:

The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

The beginning of the holy Gospel according to John.

Glory to thee, O Lord.

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God. and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world. and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name. to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us: and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. R. Thanks be to God.

Reading from the Apocalypse of blessed John the Apostle.

n those days: God made known events that must happen soon. He sent one of his angels to his servant John, who hereby declares all that he has seen, a message from God attested by Jesus Christ. Blessed is he who reads and blessed are those who hear these words of prophecy, if they heed what is written here. For the appointed time is at hand. John to the seven churches in Asia: Grace to you and peace from the One who is and was and is to come, from the seven spirits before his throne, and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the first of the dead to be reborn, the ruler of the kings of the earth, who so loved us as to free us from our sins with his own life's blood.

Et advocans Jesus parvulum, statuit eum in medio eorum, et dixit: Amen dico vobis. nisi conversi fueritis, et efficiamini sicut parvuli, non intrabitis in regnum caelorum. Quicumque ergo humiliaverit se sicut parvulus iste, hic est major in regno caelorum. Et qui susceperit unum parvulum talem in nomine meo, me suscipit. Qui autem scandalizaverit unum de pusillis istis, qui in me credunt, expedit ei, ut suspendatur mola asinaria in collo eius, et demergatur in profundum maris. Vae mundo a scandalis. Necesse est enim ut veniant scandala: verumtamen vae homini illi, per quem scandalum venit. Si autem manus tua, vel pes tuus scandalizat te, abscide eum, et projice abs te: bonum tibi est ad vitam ingredi debilem, vel claudum, quam duas manus, vel duos pedes habentem, mitti in ignem aeternum. Et si oculus tuus scandalizat te, erue eum, et projice abs te: bonum tibi est cum uno oculo in vitam intrare, quam duos oculos habentem mitti in gehennam ignis. Turning to the book, he says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. A passage from ★ the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

Matth. 18, 1-10

t that time: The disciples came to Jesus, and asked: Who then is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven? Jesus called a little child to him and placed him in the middle of the disciples, and said: I tell you truly, if you do not change back and become like children, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven at all. He who humbles himself like this little child, is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. Whoever receives one such child in my name, receives me. And whoever scandalises one of these little ones who believe in me would have been better off with a great millstone hung about his neck and sunk in the depths of the sea. Woe to the world because of its scandals. Come they must, vet woe to the man through whom scandal comes. If your hand or your foot scandalises you, chop it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life lame or crippled, than to keep your two hands and two feet but be thrown into everlasting fire. And if your eye scandalises you, out with it, throw it away. It is better for you to enter life with only one eye than to be thrown into hell fire with two. See that you do not despise any of these little ones; for I tell you, their guardian angels on high always look upon the face of my Father in heaven. R. Praise to thee, O Christ.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

Epistle of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Colossians.

rethren: We give thanks with joy to the Father who has made us fit to share in the inheritance of the saints in his light. He has rescued us from the domain of darkness and set us instead in the kingdom of his beloved Son. Through his Son we have received redemption, the forgiveness of our sins. He is the visible likeness of the invisible God, born before all creation: for through him everything in heaven and on earth was created, things visible and invisible, thrones, lordships, powers and authorities, all these were created through him and for him. Before all things were, he is; and all things are held in being by him. He is, moreover, the head of the body, which is the Church; he is its beginning, the first of the dead to be reborn. So in everything his rank is preeminent. It pleased God to place the fullness of being in him, and through him to reconcile the universe to himself, all that is on earth and all that is in heaven, when he made peace through the blood shed on the Cross by Christ Jesus our Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

John 18, 33-37

t that time: Pilate said to Jesus: So you are the king of the Jews? Jesus answered: Is this question your own, or what others have told you about me? Pilate answered: Am I a Jew? Your own people and the high priests have handed you over to me. What have you done? Jesus replied: My kingdom is not of this world; if my kingdom were of this world, soldiers of mine would have fought to save me from falling into the hands of the Jews. As it is, my kingdom is not of this world. But Pilate exclaimed: So you are a king then? Jesus replied: If you put it so, I am a king. I was born and I came into the world for this purpose: to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is on the side of truth listens to my voice.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world. and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. Reading from the Apocalypse of blessed John the Apostle.

Apoc. 7, 2-12

In those days: I. John, saw another angel coming up from the east, bringing the seal of the living God; and he cried out in a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to ravage land and sea: Do no harm to land or sea or any tree, he said, until we have set a seal on the foreheads of those who serve our God. I heard, too, the number of those marked with the seal: a hundred and forty-four thousand were sealed, from all the tribes of the sons of Israel. There were marked with the seal: of the tribe of Judah twelve thousand, of the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand, of the tribe of Gad twelve thousand, of the tribe of Aser twelve thousand, of the tribe of Nephthali twelve thousand, of the tribe of Manasse twelve thousand, of the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand, of the tribe of Levi twelve thousand, of the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand, of the tribe of Zabulon twelve thousand, of the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand, and of the tribe of Benjamin twelve thousand were marked with the seal. Then my vision continued, and before my eyes there was a great throng, beyond all counting, of every nation and tribe and people and tongue, standing before the throne and the Lamb. All were robed in white, with palm branches in their hands, and cried out in a loud voice: Victory belongs to our God who sits enthroned, and to the Lamb! And all the angels that stood round the throne, round the elders and the four living creatures, fell prostrate before the throne and adored God crying: Amen. Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and strength belong to our God for ever and ever. Amen. R. Thanks be to God.

Gradual. Ps. 33, 10, 11. Fear the Lord, all his saints: for they that fear him want for nothing. V. They who seek the Lord shall never lack good things.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. Matth. 11, 28. Come to me, all you that are weary and over-burdened, and I will give you rest. Alleluia.

The priest, bowing in the middle of the altar, says:

tuum digne valeam nuntiare. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

t that time: When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up on to the mountain. He sat down, and when his disciples had gathered about him, he gave them this teaching: Blessed are the poor in spirit: theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who grieve: they will be comforted. Blessed are the gentle: they will inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for justice: they will be satisfied. Blessed are the merciful: they will be treated with mercy. Blessed are the pure of heart: they will see God. Blessed are the peace-makers: they will be called God's sons. Blessed are those who have suffered persecution in the cause of right: theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Count yourselves blessed when men insult you and persecute you, and speak all kinds of calumny against you, because of me: welcome it with joy, for you will have a great reward in heaven.

R. Praise to thee, O Christ.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. R. Thanks be to God.

God, who year by year dost re-enact for us the dedication day of this holy temple and ever bring us safe to share its sacred mysteries, hear the prayers of thy people and grant that whoever enters this temple to seek thy gifts may rejoice in receiving all that he asks: through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. R. Amen.

Reading from the Apocalypse of blessed John the Apostle.

Apoc. 21, 2-5

n those days: I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, perfect as a bride adorned for her husband. Then I heard a loud voice proclaiming from the throne: This is where God will dwell among men! He will dwell with them and they will be his people. God himself will be with them, and will wipe away every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and weeping and sorrow will cease; for the old order is over and gone. Then he who sits enthroned said: See, I am making all things new. R. Thanks be to God.

Et cum venisset ad locum, suspiciens Jesus vidit illum, et dixit ad eum: Zachaee, festinans descende; quia hodie in domo tua oportet me manere. Et festinans descendit, et excepit illum gaudens. Et cum viderent omnes, murmurabant, dicentes, quod ad hominem peccatorem divertisset. Stans autem Zachaeus, dixit ad Dominum: Ecce dimidium bonorum meorum, Domine, do pauperibus: et si quid aliquem defraudavi, reddo quadruplum. Ait Jesus ad eum: Quia hodie salus domui huic facta est: eo quod et ipse filius sit Abrahae. Venit enim Filius hominis quaerere, et salvum facere, quod perierat. R. Laus tibi, Christe. Sacerdos osculatur Evangelium, dicens:

When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him: Zacchaeus, come down quickly! I must stay in your house today. So he came down at once, and gladly made him welcome. All those who were looking on were disgruntled and said: He has gone to lodge with a sinner. But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord: I wish to say this, Lord: I mean to give half my property to the poor, and if I have defrauded anyone, I will repay him four times over. Jesus said to him: Today salvation has come to this house, for this man too has proved himself a son of Abraham. The Son of Man has come to seek and save what was lost.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saving:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

believe in one God, the almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, one in substance with the Father: through whom all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (here all kneel) took flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. He was also crucified for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate and was buried. On the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead; and his reign will have no end. I believe also in the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke through the Prophets. And I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world that is to come. t is truly just and right, fitting and for our good, always and everywhere to give thanks to thee, Lord, holy Father, almighty eternal God; who with thine only-begotten Son and the Holy Spirit art one God, one Lord, not in the singleness of one person, but in the one substance of the Trinity. For whatever through thy revelation we believe concerning thy glory, that also we hold both of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, without distinction or difference; so that in confessing the true and everlasting Godhead, we adore each several person, and at the same time their one substance and their equal majesty; which the Angels praise and the Archangels, the Cherubim too and Seraphim, who never cease to cry out every day, saying with one voice:

In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which en-

Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine ejus, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. (Genuflectit dicens) Et Verbum caro factum est, (et surgens prosequitur) et habitavit in nobis: et vidimus gloriam ejus, gloriam quasi Unigeniti a Patre, plenum gratiae et veritatis.

lmighty and merciful God, hear us, so that what is done by our ministry may be made perfect by thy blessing: through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. R. Amen.

Epistle of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Ephesians.

Ephes. 5, 22-33

rethren: Wives must be subject to their husbands as to Christ, because as Christ is the head and Savicur of the Church which is his body, so the husband is the head of his wife. Therefore, as the Church is subject to Christ, so wives must be subject to their husbands in everything. Husbands must love their wives in the same way as Christ loved his Church: he sacrificed aquae in verbo vitae, ut exhiberet ipse sibi gloriosam Ecclesiam, non habentem maculam, aut rugam, aut aliquid hujusmodi, sed ut sit sancta et immaculata. Ita et viri debent diligere uxores suas, ut corpora sua. Qui suam uxorem diligit, seipsum diligit. Nemo enim umquam carnem suam odio habuit: sed nutrit, et fovet eam, sicut et Christus Ecclesiam: quia membra sumus corporis ejus, de carne ejus, et de ossibus ejus. Propter hoc relinquet homo patrem et matrem suam, et adhaerebit uxori suae: et erunt duo in carne una. Sacramentum hoc magnum est, ego autem dico in Christo, et in Ecclesia. Verumtamen et vos singuli, unusquisque uxorem suam sicut seipsum diligat: uxor autem timeat virum suum.

Graduale. Ps. 127, 3. Uxor tua sicut vitis abundans in lateribus domus tuae. V. Filii tui sicut novellae olivarum in circuitu mensae tuae.

Alleluja, alleluja. V. Ps. 19, 3. Mittat vobis Dominus auxilium de sancto: et de Sion tueatur vos. Alleluja.

Post Septuagesimam, omissis Alleluja et versu sequenti, dicitur:

Tractus. Ps. 127, 4-6. Ecce sic benedicetur omnis homo, qui timet Dominum. V. Benedicat tibi Dominus ex Sion: et videas bona Jerusalem omnibus diebus vitae tuae. V. Et videas filios filiorum tuorum: pax super Israel.

Tempore autem Paschali omittitur Graduale, et ejus loco dicitur:

lleluja, alleluja. V. Ps. 19, 3. Mittat vobis Dominus auxilium de sancto: et de Sion tueatur vos. Alleluja. V. Ps. 133, 3. Benedicat vobis Dominus ex Sion: qui fecit caelum et terram. Alleluja.

Sacerdos, inclinatus in medio, dicit:

unda cor meum, ac labia mea, omnipotens Deus, qui labia Isaiae Prophetae calculo mundasti ignito: ita me tua grata miseratione dignare mundare, ut sanctum Evangelium tuum digne valeam nuntiare. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

Jube, Domine, benedicere.

R. Deo gratias.

Dominus sit in corde meo, et in labiis meis: ut digne et competenter annuntiem Evangelium suum. Amen.

Deinde conversus ad librum dicit:

C. Dominus vobiscum. R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

C. Sequentia + sancti Evangelii secundum Matthaeum.

R. Gloria tibi, Domine.

himself for her, so as to be able to make her holy and pure by a bathing with water and by the uttering of a word. His design was to prepare a Church for himself, free from blemish or wrinkle or other disfigurement, radiantly holy and faultless. That is how a husband ought to love his wife: no less than he loves his own body. The man who loves his wife is loving a part of himself. No one ever hates his own body; he nourishes it and treats it with loving care. That is how Christ treats the Church, because it is his body and we are its members. For this reason, the Scripture says, a man shall leave his father and mother, and be joined to his wife, and the two will become one flesh. These words contain a high mystery (I mean as applied to Christ and the Church as a whole). But also individually, each of you must love his wife as himself, and the wife must hold her husband in reverence.

Gradual. Ps. 127, 3. Your wife shall be like the fruitful vine on the walls of your house. V. Your children around your table like the olive shoots.

Alleluia, alleluia.  $\checkmark$ . Ps. 19, 3. May the Lord send you help from his holy place: and watch over you from Sion. Alleluia.

After Septuagesima, there is said in place of the Alleluia and its Tract. Ps. 127, 4-6. Even so shall every man be blessed who fears the Lord.

↑. The Lord bless you from Sion: and may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem every day of your life.

↑. And may you see your children's children, and peace in Israel.

In Paschal Time, in place of the Gradual and Alleluia, there is said:

Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 19, 3. May the Lord send you help from his holy place: and watch over you from Sion. Alleluia. V. Ps. 133, 3. May the Lord bless you from Sion; he who made heaven and earth. Alleluia.

The priest, bowing in the middle of the altar, says:

Pray, Lord, a blessing.

May the Lord be in my heart and on my lips that I may announce his Gospel worthily and well. Amen.

Turning to the book, he says:

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. A passage from * the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

Matth. 19, 3-6

n illo tempore: Accesserunt ad Jesum Pharisaei tentantes eum, et dicentes: Si licet homini dimittere uxorem suam quacumque ex causa? Qui respondens, ait eis: Non legistis, quia qui fecit hominem ab initio, masculum et feminam fecit eos? et dixit: Propter hoc dimittet homo patrem et matrem, et adhaerebit uxori suae, et erunt duo in carne una. Itaque jam non sunt duo, sed una caro. Quod ergo Deus conjunxit, homo non separet.

Sacerdos osculatur Evangelium, dicens:

Per evangelica dicta deleantur nostra delicta.

Deinde osculatur Altare et dicit:

C. Dominus vobiscum. R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

Offertorium. Ps. 30, 15-16. In te speravi, Domine: dixi: Tu es Deus meus: in manibus tuis tempora mea. (T. P. Alleluja.)

Sacerdos accipit Patenam cum Hostia, quam offerens dicit:

uscipe, sancte Pater, omnipotens aeterne Deus, hanc immaculatam hostiam, quam ego indignus famulus tuus offero tibi Deo meo vivo, et vero, pro innumerabilibus peccatis, et offensionibus, et negligentiis meis, et pro omnibus circumstantibus, sed et pro omnibus fidelibus christianis vivis atque defunctis: ut mihi, et illis proficiat ad salutem, in vitam aeternam. Amen.

Aquam benedicit signo Crucis, dicens:

eus, qui humanae substantiae dignitatem mirabiliter condidisti, et mirabilius reformasti: da nobis per hujus aquae et vini mysterium, ejus divinitatis esse consortes, qui humanitatis nostrae fieri dignatus est particeps, Jesus Christus Filius tuus Dominus noster: Qui tecum vivit et regnat in unitate Spiritus Sancti Deus: per omnia saecula saeculorum. Amen.

Accipit Calicem et offert, dicens:

fferimus tibi, Domine, calicem salutaris, tuam deprecantes clementiam: ut in conspectu divinae majestatis tuae, pro nostra et totius mundi salute cum odore suavitatis ascendat. Amen.

Aliquantulum inclinatus, dicit:

n spiritu humilitatis, et in animo contrito suscipiamur a te, Domine: et sic fiat sacrificium nostrum in conspectu tuo hodie, ut placeat tibi, Domine Deus. t that time: Some Pharisees came to Jesus, and put a question to test him: Can a man lawfully divorce his wife for any reason whatever? He answered: Have you not read that from the beginning the Creator made them male and female and said: For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother, and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh? That means that in body they are no longer two but one. Therefore, what God has united, man must not part.

R. Praise to thee, O Christ.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be forgiven.

He kisses the altar and says:

C. The Lord be with you.

R. And with you also.

C. Let us pray.

Offertory. Ps. 30, 15-16. Lord, I have trusted in thee; I have said: Thou art my God, my days are in thy hands. (P. T. Alleluia.)

The priest takes the paten with the Host, which he offers, saying:

He blesses the water with the sign of the Cross and says:

He takes the Chalice and offers it, saying:

thy gentle mercy, that for our own and the whole world's salvation it may ascend with a sweet fragrance in the sight of thy divine majesty. Amen.

Bowing slightly, he says:

Sacerdos lavat manus, dicens:

sancto nomini praeparatum.

Ps. 25, 6-12

Pes meus stetit in directo: in ecclesiis benedicam te, Domine. Gloria Patri et Filio, et Spiritui Sancto. Sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et semper, et in saecula saeculorum. Amen.

Per eundem Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

Postea versus ad populum, voce paululum elevata, dicit:

ome, Sanctifier, almighty eternal God, (he blesses the offerings and continues) and bless this sacrifice, prepared for thy holy name.

Whilst washing his hands, the priest says:

Ps. 25, 6-12

will wash my hands among the innocent and gather with them at thy altar, Lord;

To hear the song of praise and tell of all thy wonderful works. Lord, I have loved the beauty of thy house and the place where thy glory dwells.

Let not my soul, O God, be lost among the wicked nor my life with men of blood.

Their hands are steeped in evil; their right hands full of bribes. For myself, I walk in innocence; redeem me and be merciful to me. My feet are set in the straight path: where men gather, Lord, I will bless thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Bowing slightly and joining his hands, he says:

eceive, O holy Trinity, this offering which we make to thee in memory of the passion, resurrection and ascension of Jesus Christ our Lord, and in honour of the blessed Mary ever Virgin, of blessed John the Baptist, of the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, of those whose relics are here and of all the Saints; that it may bring honour to them and salvation to us; and may they, whose memory we keep on earth, be pleased to intercede for us in heaven: through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

He turns to the people, and says in a louder tone:

Pray, brethren, that my sacrifice and yours may find acceptance with God the Father almighty.

May the Lord receive the sacrifice from your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our welfare also, and that of all his holy Church. The priest says: Amen.

The Common Preface

t is truly just and right, fitting and for our good, always and everywhere to give thanks to thee, Lord, holy Father, almighty eternal God, through Christ our Lord. Through him thy majesty is praised by Angels, adored by Dominations, revered by Powers. The heavens also, the Virtues and the holy Seraphim in exultant harmony proclaim it. Grant, we implore thee, that our voices also may be joined with theirs, in homage and supplication saying:

Joining his hands, he bows and says:

oly, Holy, Holy Lord God of Hosts. Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

CANON OF THE MASS

o thee, most merciful Father, we make our humble prayer, asking through Jesus Christ thy Son, our Lord, he kisses the altar and joining his hands says: that thou wouldst receive and bless, he makes the sign of the Cross three times over the Host and Chalice, saying: these # gifts, these # presents, these # holy, spotless offerings. We offer them to thee first and foremost for thy holy catholic Church: be pleased, throughout the whole world, to give her peace, to protect, gather into one, and govern her. We offer them too for thy servant N. our Pope and for N. our Bishop and for all those who, faithful to the true teaching, are guardians of the catholic and apostolic faith.

The Commemoration of the Living

emember, Lord, thy servants, men and women N. and N. he joins his hands and prays a little while for those for whom he intends to pray: then, extending his hands, he continues: and all those here around us: thou knowest their faith and proven loyalty. For them we offer thee this sacrifice of praise, or they offer it to thee for themselves, for all their own: to obtain redemption of their souls, the salvation they hope for and freedom from all danger: and they make their prayers to thee, the eternal, living and true God.

The Action

nited in one communion, we venerate before all others the memory of the glorious ever-virgin Mary, Mother of God, our Lord Jesus Christ: and the memory too of thy blessed Apostles and Martyrs, Peter and Paul, Andrew, James, John, Thomas, James, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Simon and Thaddeus, Linus, Cletus, Clement, Xystus, Cornelius, Cyprian, Laurence, Chrysogonus, John and Paul, Cosmas and Damian, and of tuorum; quorum meritis, precibusque concedas, ut in omnibus protectionis tuae muniamur auxilio. Jungit manus. Per eundem Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

Tenens manus expansas super oblata, dicit:

anc igitur oblationem servitutis nostrae, sed et cunctae familiae tuae, quaesumus, Domine, ut placatus accipias: diesque nostros in tua pace disponas, atque ab aeterna damnatione nos eripi, et in electorum tuorum jubeas grege numerari. Jungit manus. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

uam oblationem tu, Deus, in omnibus, quaesumus, Signat ter super oblata, bene dictam, adscrip tam, ra tam, rationabilem, acceptabilemque facere digneris: Signat semel super Hostiam, ut nobis Cor pus, et semel super Calicem, et San guis fiat dilectissimi Filii tui, Jungit manus, Domini nostri Jesu Christi.

ui pridie quam pateretur, Accipit Hostiam, accepit panem in sanctas ac venerabiles manus suas, Elevat oculos ad caelum, et elevatis oculis in caelum ad te Deum Patrem suum omnipotentem, Caput inclinat, tibi gratias agens, Signat super Hostiam, bene dixit, fregit, deditque discipulis suis, dicens: Accipite, et manducate ex hoc omnes.

Tenens ambabus manibus Hostiam inter indices et pollices, profert verba consecrationis secrete, distincte, et attente super Hostiam, et simul super omnes, si plures sint consecrandae.

Hoc est enim Corpus meum.

Quibus verbis prolatis, statim Hostiam consecratam genuflexus adorat: surgit, ostendit populo, reponit super Corporale, et genuflexus iterum adorat: nec amplius pollices et indices disjungit, nisi quando Hostia tractanda est, usque ad ablutionem digitorum.

Tunc, detecto Calice, dicit:

simili modo postquam coenatum est, Ambabus manibus accipit Calicem, accipiens et hunc praeclarum Calicem in sanctas ac venerabiles manus suas: item, Caput inclinat, tibi gratias agens, Sinistra tenens Calicem, dextera signat super eum, bene dixit, deditque discipulis suis, dicens: Accipite, et bibite ex eo omnes.

all thy Saints. Through their merits and prayers, defend us in all circumstances by thine aid and protection. He joins his hands. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Holding his hands outstretched over the offerings, he says:

e pleased then, Lord, to accept this offering from us thy servants and from thy whole family too; let it be thy will to dispose all our days in thy peace and to snatch us from eternal damnation and count us among the number of your chosen ones. He joins his hands. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

ay it seem fitting to thee, O God, to make this offering in every way, he makes the sign of the Cross three times over the offerings, a blessed offering, an acceptable offering, an approved offering, perfect and pleasing to thee: so that it may become for us, he makes the sign of the Cross once over the Host, the Body and once over the Chalice, and Blood to thy well-beloved Son, he joins his hands, our Lord Jesus Christ.

e it was who on the eve of his Passion, he takes the Host, took bread in his holy and adorable hands, he raises his eyes to heaven, and looking up to heaven to thee, God, his almighty Father, he bows his head, giving thanks to thee, he makes the sign of the Cross over the Host, he blessed the bread, broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat of this, all of you.

Holding the Host with both hands, between the index finger and thumb, he pronounces quietly, distinctly and attentively the words of consecration over the Host, and at the same time over all other Hosts, if there are others to be consecrated.

For this is my Body.

When he has pronounced these words, he genuflects immediately and adores the Sacred Host: he rises, shows It to the people, replaces It on the corporal, and genuflecting adores It a second time: and he keeps together the index finger and the thumb of either hand, except when the Host is to be touched, until the washing of his fingers.

Then, uncovering the Chalice, he says:

n like manner after the Supper, he takes the Chalice in both hands, he took this noble Chalice in his holy and adorable hands: he bows his head, and giving thanks to thee, holding the Chalice with his left hand, he makes the sign of the Cross over it with his right, he blessed it and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and drink of this, all of you.

Profert verba consecrationis super Calicem, attente, continuate, et secrete, tenens illum parum elevatum.

Hic est enim Calix Sanguinis mei, novi et aeterni testamenti: mysterium fidei: qui pro vobis et pro multis effundetur in remissionem peccatorum.

Quibus verbis prolatis, deponit Calicem super Corporale, et dicens secrete: Haec quotiescumque feceritis, in mei memoriam facietis. Genuflexus adorat: surgit, ostendit populo, deponit, cooperit, et genuflexus iterum adorat.

Deinde disjunctis manibus dicit:

nde et memores, Domine, nos servi tui, sed et plebs tua sancta, ejusdem Christi Filii tui Domini nostri tam beatae passionis, nec non et ab inferis resurrectionis, sed et in caelos gloriosae ascensionis: offerimus praeclarae majestati tuae de tuis donis ac datis, Jungit manus, et signat ter super Hostiam, et Calicem simul, dicens: hostiam puram, hostiam sanctam, hostiam sanctum vitae aeternae, et semel super Hostiam, dicens: Panem sanctum vitae aeternae, et semel super Calicem, dicens: et Calicem salutis perpetuae.

Extensis manibus prosequitur:

upra quae propitio ac sereno vultu respicere digneris, et accepta habere, sicuti accepta habere dignatus es munera pueri tui justi Abel, et sacrificium Patriarchae nostri Abrahae: et quod tibi obtulit summus sacerdos tuus Melchisedech, sanctum sacrificium, immaculatam hostiam.

Profunde inclinatus, junctis manibus, et super Altare positis, dicit:

upplices te rogamus, omnipotens Deus: jube haec perferri per manus sancti Angeli tui in sublime altare tuum, in conspectu divinae majestatis tuae: ut quotquot, Osculatur Altare, ex hac altaris participatione sacrosanctum Filii tui, Jungit manus, et signat semel super Hostiam, et semel super Calicem, Cor + pus et San + guinem sumpserimus, Seipsum signat, dicens: omni benedictione caelesti et gratia repleamur. Jungit manus. Per eundem Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

He pronounces the words of consecration over the Chalice, attentively, consecutively and in a quiet voice, holding it slightly elevated.

For this is the Chalice of my Blood of the new and eternal testament: the mystery of the faith: which shall be shed for you and for the multitude of mankind so that sins may be forgiven.

When he has pronounced these words he replaces the Chalice on the corporal, and says quietly: As often as you shall do this, you shall do it in memory of me. Making a genuflection, he adores: he rises, shows the Chalice to the people, replaces it, covers it, and genuflecting adores again.

Then with his hands apart he says:

or that reason, Lord, in memory of the blessed Passion of the same Christ, thy Son, our Lord, of his resurrection from the place of the dead, and of his ascension into the glory of heaven, we thy servants, together with thy holy people, present thy glorious majesty with this offering, taken from thine own good gifts, he joins his hands and makes the sign of the Cross three times over the Host and Chalice together, saying: the perfect \(\frac{1}{2}\) victim, the holy \(\frac{1}{2}\) victim, the unblemished \(\frac{1}{2}\) victim, he makes the sign of the Cross once over the Host, saying: the holy \(\frac{1}{2}\) Bread of eternal life, and once over the Chalice, saying: and the Chalice \(\frac{1}{2}\) of eternal salvation.

With hands outstretched he continues:

urn thy face, in favour and kindliness, to these our offerings. Accept them as thou wert pleased to accept the gifts of thy servant Abel the Just, and the sacrifice of Abraham the Father of our race, and that which thy high priest Melchisedech offered thee, a holy offering, a victim without blemish.

Bowing profoundly, with hands joined and placed upon the altar, he says:

bear these gifts in his hands to thine altar on high, into the presence of thy divine majesty: so that when, he kisses the altar, in the communion of this altar, we shall receive the infinitely holy, he joins his hands and makes the sign of the Cross once over the Host and once over the Chalice, \(\frac{1}{2}\) Body and \(\frac{1}{2}\) Blood of thy Son, he makes the sign of the Cross over himself, saying: we may all be filled with every blessing and grace from heaven. He joins his hands. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Commemoration of the Dead

emember also, Lord, thy servants, men and women, N. and N., who have gone before us marked with the seal of the faith and sleep in the sleep of peace.

He joins his hands, prays a short while for the dead for whom he intends to pray; then with hands outstretched he continues: To those, Lord, and to all who take their rest in Christ, grant, we beg thee, the place of consolation, of light, and of peace. He joins his hands and bows his head, saying: Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

He strikes his breast with his right hand, saying in a slightly louder voice:

o us also, who are sinners, with outstretched hands held as before, he continues quietly: thy servants, trusting in thine infinite mercy, grant of thy goodness a place in the fellowship of thy holy Apostles and Martyrs: with John, Stephen, Matthias, Barnabas, Ignatius, Alexander, Marcellinus, Peter, Felicity, Perpetua, Agatha, Lucy, Agnes, Cecilia, Anastasia, and with all thy Saints. Admit us to their company, we beg thee, not weighing what we deserve but generously pardoning us. He joins his hands. Through Christ our Lord.

hrough him, Lord, thou dost ever create, he makes the sign of the Cross three times over the Host and Chalice together, saying: and make Holy, infuse Hwith life and bless Hall these good things, thy gifts to us.

He uncovers the Chalice, genuflects, takes the Host between the thumb and index finger of his right hand: and holding the Chalice with his left hand, he makes the sign of the Cross with the Host from rim to rim of the Chalice, saying: Through \( \frac{1}{2} \) him, and with \( \frac{1}{2} \) him, and with \( \frac{1}{2} \) him, be makes the sign of the Cross twice with the Host, between himself and the Chalice, saying: be given to thee God, Father \( \frac{1}{2} \) Almighty, in the unity of the Holy \( \frac{1}{2} \) Spirit, raising slightly the Chalice with the Host, he says: all honour and all glory.

He lays down the Host, covers the Chalice with the pall, genuflects, rises and says or sings, so that all may understand: World without end. R. Amen.

He joins his hands.

et us pray. Instructed by our Saviour's commands and trained by God's teaching we dare to say:

He stretches out his hands.

Pater noster, qui es in caelis: sanctificetur nomen tuum. Adveniat regnum tuum. Fiat voluntas tua, sicut in caelo, et in terra. Panem nostrum quotidianum da nobis hodie. Et dimitte nobis debita nostra, sicut et nos dimittimus debitoribus nostris. Et ne nos inducas in tentationem.

R. Sed libera nos a malo.

Sacerdos secrete dicit: Amen.

Sacerdos stans in cornu Epistolae versus Sponsum et Sponsam ante Altare genuflexos, dicit super eos sequentes Orationes:

R. But deliver us from evil.

The priest says in a quiet voice: Amen.

The priest stands at the Epistle corner facing the bridegroom and bride, who kneel before the altar, and says the following prayers over them:

Let us pray.

Prayer

ercifully hear our prayers, O Lord, and graciously bless the rites thou hast ordained for the increase of the human race, so that they whom thou dost join together may be aided by thy grace: through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. R. Amen.

Let us pray.

God, who in thy mighty power hast made all things from nothing, and who, when from its beginnings thou hadst ordered the world for man who was created according to God's image, didst so fashion woman his inseparable partner, that out of the flesh of man the first woman might receive her body, teaching us that it is never lawful to separate what thou hast been pleased to establish as one: God, who has made sacred the bond of marriage in such a surpassing mystery as to prefigure in that pledge the union between Christ and his Church; God, through whom woman is joined to man and through whom this partnership, ordained from the beginning, is given the blessing that was not forfeited merely as the punishment of original sin or as the judgement of the flood: look graciously upon thy handmaid who seeks the shelter of thy protection as she enters into marriage. May her yoke be a yoke of love and peace, her marriage faithful and chaste in Christ; may she ever be like those holy women, as loving to her husband as Rachel, as wise as Rebecca, as long-lived and loyal as Sara; may the father of lies have no dominion over her actions, but may she stand fast in her pledge and in thy commandments; faithful to her vows, may she shun all unlawful love, and support her own frailty with firm discipline; may her behaviour be grave, her modesty respected, and her knowledge of heavenly doctrine well-founded. May her offspring be plentiful, may she be virtuous and innocent, and may she come to rest among the blessed in thy omnia saecula saeculorum. R. Amen.

Tunc sacerdos reversus ad medium Altaris manu dextera accipit inter indicem et medium digitos Patenam, quam tenens super Altare erectam, dicit secrete:

ibera nos, quaesumus, Domine, ab omnibus malis, praeteritis, praesentibus et futuris: et, intercedente beata et gloriosa semper Virgine Dei Genitrice Maria, cum beatis Apostolis tuis Petro et Paulo, atque Andrea, et omnibus Sanctis, Signat se cum Patena a fronte ad pectus, da propitius pacem in diebus nostris: Patenam osculatur, ut ope misericordiae tuae adjuti, et a peccato simus semper liberi et ab omni perturbatione securi.

Submittit Patenam Hostiae, discooperit Calicem, genuflectit, surgit, accipit Hostiam, et eam super Calicem tenens utraque manu, frangit per medium, dicens:

Per eundem Dominum nostrum Jesum Christum Filium tuum.

Et mediam partem, quam in dextera manu tenet, ponit super Patenam. Deinde ex parte, quae in sinistra remanserat, frangit particulam, dicens:

Qui tecum vivit et regnat in unitate Spiritus Sancti Deus.

Aliam mediam partem, quam in sinistra manu habet, adjungit mediae super Patenam positae, et particulam parvam dextera retinens super Calicem, quem sinistra per nodum infra cuppam tenet, dicit intelligibili voce, vel cantat:

Per omnia saecula saeculorum. R. Amen.

Cum ipsa particula signat ter super Calicem, dicens:
Pax + Domini sit + semper vobis + cum.
R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

Particulam ipsam immittit in Calicem, dicens secrete:

aec commixtio et consecratio Corporis et Sanguinis Domini nostri Jesu Christi, fiat accipientibus nobis in vitam aeternam. Amen.

heavenly kingdom. May both see their children's children to the third and fourth generation, and reach the years that they desire; through the same Jesus Christ thy Son, our Lord, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the holy Spirit, for ever and ever. R. Amen.

eliver us, Lord, we beg thee, from evils past, present and future: and through the intercession of the blessed and glorious ever-virgin Mary, Mother of God, and of the blessed Apostles Peter and Paul and Andrew, and of all the Saints, he signs himself with the paten, grant peace in our days: he kisses the paten, so that helped by the workings of thy mercy we may be always free from sin and unshaken by any disturbance.

He places the paten under the Host, uncovers the Chalice, genuflects, rises, takes the Host and holding It in both hands over the Chalice, breaks It in half, saying:

Through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, thy Son.

Then he places on the paten the part of the Host which he holds in his right hand. He then breaks off a particle from the part that remains in his left hand, saying:

Who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit.

The other half, which he holds in his left hand, he sets beside the half on the paten; and with his right hand holding the small particle over the Chalice, taken in his left hand between the cup and the node, says or sings in an audible voice:

World without end. R. Amen.

With the particle itself he makes the sign of the Cross three times over the Chalice, saying:

The peace ★ of the Lord ★ be always ★ with you.

R. And with you also.

He puts the particle into the Chalice, saying quietly:

ay this sacramental mingling of the Body and of the Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, which we are about to receive, bring us eternal life. Amen.

Cooperit Calicem, genuflectit, surgit, et inclinatus Sacramento, junctis manibus, et ter pectus percutiens, intelligibili voce dicit:

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi: miserere nobis.

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi: miserere nobis.

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi: dona nobis pacem.

Deinde, junctis manibus super Altare, inclinatus dicit secrete sequentes Orationes:

omine Jesu Christe, qui dixisti Apostolis tuis: Pacem relinquo vobis, pacem meam do vobis: ne respicias peccata mea, sed fidem Ecclesiae tuae: eamque secundum voluntatem tuam pacificare et coadunare digneris: Qui vivis et regnas Deus per omnia saecula saeculorum. Amen.

omine Jesu Christe, Fili Dei vivi, qui ex voluntate Patris, cooperante Spiritu Sancto, per mortem tuam mundum vivificasti: libera me per hoc sacrosanctum Corpus et Sanguinem tuum ab omnibus iniquitatibus meis, et universis malis: et fac me tuis semper inhaerere mandatis, et a te numquam separari permittas: Qui cum eodem Deo Patre, et Spiritu Sancto vivis et regnas Deus in saecula saeculorum. Amen.

erceptio Corporis tui, Domine Jesu Christe, quod ego indignus sumere praesumo, non mihi proveniat in judicium et condemnationem: sed pro tua pietate prosit mihi ad tutamentum mentis et corporis, et ad medelam percipiendam: Qui vivis et regnas cum Deo Patre in unitate Spiritus Sancti Deus, per omnia saecula saeculorum. Amen.

Genuflectit, surgit, et dicit:

anem caelestem accipiam, et nomen Domini invocabo. Deinde parum inclinatus, accipit ambas partes Hostiae inter pollicem et indicem sinistrae manus, et Patenam inter eundem indicem et medium supponit, et dextera tribus vicibus percutiens pectus, elata aliquantulum voce, ter dicit devote et humiliter:

omine, non sum dignus, Et secrete prosequitur: ut intres sub tectum meum: sed tantum dic verbo, et sanabitur anima mea.

He covers the Chalice, genuflects, rises, and with hands joined, bowing to the Sacrament, he strikes his breast three times, saying in an audible voice:

Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, give us peace.

Then with his hands joined on the altar, bowing down, he says quietly the following prayers:

ord Jesus Christ, who hast said to thine Apostles: I leave you with peace, it is my peace I give you: turn not thy gaze upon my sins but upon the faith of thy Church, and because it is thy will, grant her that peace and gather her together in unity: who livest and reignest God, world without end. Amen.

ord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, who, in fulfilment of the Father's will, in a common work with the Holy Spirit, hast by thy death brought life to the world, deliver me by this thine infinitely holy Body and Blood from all my sins and from every evil. Make me always cleave to thy commandments and never let me become separated from thee: who art God, living and reigning with God the Father and the Holy Spirit, world without end. Amen.

nworthy as I am, Lord Jesus Christ, I dare to receive thy Body; do not let that bring down upon me thy judgement and condemnation; through thy loving kindness let it be a safeguard and a healing remedy for my soul and body: who with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit livest and reignest, God for ever and ever. Amen.

He genuflects, rises, and says:

will take the Bread of heaven and I will call upon the name of the Lord. Bowing slightly, he takes both parts of the Host between the thumb and first finger of his left hand, and places the paten beneath, between the first finger and second: then with his right hand he strikes his breast three times and says humbly and devoutly, three times, in a slightly raised voice:

ord, I am not worthy, and continues quietly: that thou shouldst enter under my roof: but say only the word and my soul shall be healed.

NUPTIAL MASS

Postea dextera se signans cum Hostia super Patenam, dicit:

orpus Domini nostri Jesu Christi custodiat animam meam in vitam aeternam. Amen.

Et se inclinans, reverenter sumit ambas partes Hostiae: quibus sumptis, deponit Patenam super Corporale, et erigens se jungit manus, et quiescit aliquantulum in meditatione Sanctissimi Sacramenti.

Deinde discooperit Calicem, genuflectit, colligit fragmenta, si quae sint, extergit Patenam super Calicem, interim dicens:

uid retribuam Domino pro omnibus quae retribuit mihi? Calicem salutaris accipiam, et nomen Domini invocabo. Laudans invocabo Dominum, et ab inimicis meis salvus ero.

Accipit Calicem manu dextera, et eo se signans, dicit:

anguis Domini nostri Jesu Christi custodiat animam meam in vitam aeternam. Amen.

DEt sinistra supponens Patenam Calici, reverenter sumit totum Sanguinem cum particula. Quo sumpto, si qui sunt communicandi, eos communicet, antequam se purificet.

Postea dicit:

uod ore sumpsimus, Domine, pura mente capiamus: et de munere temporali fiat nobis remedium sempiternum. Interim porrigit Calicem ministro, qui infundit in eo parum vini, quo se purificat.

Deinde prosequitur:

orpus tuum, Domine, quod sumpsi, et Sanguis, quem potavi, adhaereat visceribus meis: et praesta: ut in me non remaneat scelerum macula, quem pura et sancta refecerunt sacramenta: Qui vivis et regnas in saecula saeculorum. Amen.

Abluit et extergit digitos, ac sumit ablutionem: extergit os et Calicem, quem, plicato Corporali, operit et collocat in Altari ut prius: deinde prosequitur Missam.

Communio. Ps. 127, 4, 6. Ecce sic benedicetur omnis homo, qui timet Dominum: et videas filios filiorum tuorum: pax super Israel. (T. P. Alleluja.)

Afterwards, he makes the sign of the Cross with the Host over the paten, saying:

he Body of our Lord Jesus Christ be my soul's protection for life eternal. Amen.

And bowing down, he reverently consumes both parts of the Host: and when he has consumed them, he puts down the paten on the corporal and, standing upright, joins his hands and stays some time in meditation on the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Then he uncovers the Chalice, genuflects, collects the fragments if there are any, and purifies the paten over the Chalice, saying:

hat shall I give to God in return for all his gifts to me? I will take the Chalice of salvation and I will call upon the name of the Lord. I will praise the Lord as I call upon him, and I shall be safe from my enemies.

Taking the Chalice in his right hand, he signs himself with it, saying:

a y the Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ be my soul's protection for life eternal. Amen.

With the paten in his left hand, beneath the Chalice, he reverently consumes all the Precious Blood with the particle. Having consumed It, if there are any communicants, he communicates them before the purification.

Afterwards he says:

hat our mouths have eaten, Lord, may our souls receive with purity and may the gift we receive in this life be for us a remedy for life eternal. Meanwhile he holds out the Chalice to the server who pours a little wine into it, and he purifies himself.

Then he continues:

ay thy Body which I have eaten, Lord, and thy Blood which I have drunk, cleave to my innermost being: and grant that nothing of sin's defilement may remain in me, now that I have been renewed by this Sacrament so pure and holy: who livest and reignest world without end. Amen.

He washes and dries his fingers, and consumes the ablution; he wipes his mouth, and the Chalice, and folding the corporal covers it and places it on the altar as before: then he continues the Mass.

Communion. Ps. 127, 4, 6. Even so shall every man be blessed who fears the Lord: and may you see your children's children, and peace in Israel. (P. T. Alleluia.)

Deinde osculatur Altare et dicit:

Go, the Mass is ended. R. Thanks be to God.

Before blessing the people the priest turns to the bridegroom and bride and says:

he God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob be with you, and may he fulfil his blessing in you, that you may see your children's children to the third and fourth generation, and then have eternal and unending life: with the help of our Lord Jesus Christ, who with the Father and the Holy Spirit liveth and reigneth, God for ever. R. Amen.

Then he sprinkles them with holy water.

The priest bows, and prays silently, saying:

ay the homage of my service, O holy Trinity, be pleasing to thee; and grant that the sacrifice, which I, though unworthy, have offered in the sight of thy majesty, may be acceptable to thee, and through thy mercy bring forgiveness to me and all for whom I have offered it. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Turning to the people, he says in blessing:

C. May Almighty God, Father, and Son, * and Holy Spirit, bless you. R. Amen.

The priest goes to the Gospel corner, and says:

C. The beginning of the holy Gospel according to John.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 1, 1-14

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine ejus, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. (Genuflectit dicens) Et Verbum caro factum est, (et surgens prosequitur) et habitavit in nobis: et vidimus gloriam ejus, gloriam quasi Unigeniti a Patre, plenum gratiae et veritatis.

He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuficts, saying) And the Word became flesh (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

R. Thanks be to God.

ratres: Ecce mysterium vobis dico: Omnes quidem resurgemus, sed non omnes immutabimur. In momento, in ictu oculi, in novissima tuba: canet enim tuba, et mortui resurgent incorrupti: et nos immutabimur. Oportet enim corruptibile hoc induere incorruptionem: et mortale hoc induere immortalitatem. Cum autem mortale hoc induerit immortalitatem, tunc fiet sermo, qui scriptus est: Absorpta est mors in victoria. Ubi est, mors, victoria tua? Ubi est, mors, stimulus tuus? Stimulus autem mortis peccatum est: virtus vero peccati lex. Deo autem gratias, qui dedit nobis victoriam per Dominum nostrum Jesum Christum.

Brethren: Mark well the mystery I declare to you: not all of us will die, but we shall all undergo a change. It will happen in a flash, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. The trumpet will sound, the dead will rise, delivered from corruption, and we ourselves shall undergo a change. For this perishable body must be clothed with imperishable life, and this mortal body with immortality. And when this perishable and mortal body has been clothed with imperishable and immortal life, then the Scripture will have been fulfilled which says: Death is swallowed up in victory. Where, O Death, is your victory? Where, O Death, is your victory? Where, O Death, is your sting? Sin is the sting of Death, and Sin draws its strength from the Law. But thanks be to God, victory is with us, through our Lord Jesus Christ. R. Thanks be to God.

ay of wrath, dread day of wonder, Crumbling worlds shall roll asunder, Prophets say, mid fire and thunder. O! the terror then befalling! When the judge to judgement calling, Dooms to life or death appalling. Hark! the trumpet's blast astounding, Through the realms of death rebounding, Summons to the judgement sounding. Death shall start and nature shiver. As in answer life shall quiver And the graves their dead deliver. Forth is brought the Book of Ages, All the world's doom on its pages, Man's reward, sin's awful wages. There shall sit the Judge revealing Every secret deed and feeling, Unto each strict justice dealing.

Pie Jesu Domine,

Dona eis requiem.

In that blaze of revelation, Who would heed my supplication? E'en the just scarce find salvation. King of awful might and splendour, Free salvation thou dost render, Save me. Fount of pity tender. Think, kind Jesus, my salvation Made thee seek life's desolation; Spare me final reprobation. Weary seeking, thou hast wandered, My redemption planned and pondered, Shall thy Cross and pains be squandered? Righteous Judge of retribution, Grant my sins full absolution, Ere that day of restitution. Tears of crimson shame surge o'er me, At my sins that flaunt before me, Spare me. Lord, to grace restore me. With sweet Mary of the garden, With the Thief sin failed to harden, From thee I, too, hope for pardon. Worthless are my prayers ascending, Yet, kind Lord, on thee depending, May I 'scape the fires unending. With thy Saints assign my station, Not with outcasts of damnation, At thy right lies my salvation. When the accurst are speechless stricken, Plunged in fires that scorch and sicken, Call me with thy Saints and quicken. Crushed in dust, before thee bending, Grief and shame my bosom rending, Lord have mercy on mine ending. Day of tears, of dread surprises, When from crumbling worlds man rises, Summoned to the great assizes, Spare him, Lord, thy just reprises. God of mercy, Jesu blest, Give to them eternal rest. Amen.

n principio erat Verbum, et Verbum erat apud Deum, et Deus erat Verbum. Hoc erat in principio apud Deum. Omnia per ipsum facta sunt, et sine ipso factum est nihil, quod factum est: in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, et lux in tenebris lucet, et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. Fuit homo missus a Deo. cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera. quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Ouotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine ejus, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. (Genuflectit dicens) Et Verbum caro factum est, (et surgens prosequitur) et habitavit in nobis: et vidimus gloriam ejus, gloriam quasi Unigeniti a Patre, plenum gratiae et veritatis.

C. The Lord be with you. R. And with you also.

C. The beginning of the holy Gospel according to John.

R. Glory to thee, O Lord.

John 1, 1-14

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

Fuit homo missus a Deo. cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his qui credunt in nomine eius, qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. John 1, 1-14

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God. and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony to the light. The Word was the true Light, which enlightens every man who comes into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognise him. He came to his own, and his own did not receive him; but to all who did receive him, and who believe in his name, to these he gave power to become children of God, born not of blood, nor by the will of flesh, nor by the will of man, but of God. (He genuflects, saying) And the Word became flesh, (and rising continues) and dwelt among us; and we saw his glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

God, whose nature is ever to grant mercy and pardon, we humbly begthee on behalf of the soul of thy servant N., whom today thou hast called from this world: do not hand him (her) over to the power of the enemy or forget him (her) for ever, but at thy command let thy holy angels welcome and lead him (her) home in paradise, so that as he (she) has hoped and believed in thee, he (she) may not suffer the pains of hell, but possess everlasting happiness: through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who is God, living and reigning with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. R. Amen.

Epistle of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Thessalonians.

1 Thess. 4, 13–18

rethren: We wish you to know the truth about those who have fallen asleep in death; then you will not grieve over them as other men do who have no hope. We believe that Jesus died and rose again; and in the same way God will bring back to life with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him. We tell you this on the word of the Lord: those of us who are still alive, who survive until the Lord's coming, will have no advantage over those who have fallen asleep. A word of command, the voice of an archangel, the trumpet of God, and the Lord himself will come down from heaven. Then first of all those who have died in Christ will rise; and afterwards those of us who are still living will be swept aloft on clouds to meet the Lord in the air. Then we shall be with the Lord for ever. Remind one another of all this for your consolation. R. Thanks be to God.

Rather may thy grace come to the aid of one who in this life was marked with the sign of the Holy Trinity, and spare him thy just retribution: who livest and reignest, for ever and ever. R. Amen.

Then the Responsory follows:

eliver me, Lord, from eternal death on that dread day, when heaven and earth will be shaken, when thou wilt come to judge the world by fire. V. I tremble and fear seizes me, as the day of trial approaches, before the wrath that is to come; when heaven and earth will be shaken. V. That is the day of wrath, calamity and helplessness, the day full of bitterness; when thou wilt come to judge the world by fire. V. Eternal rest give unto them, O Lord: and let perpetual light shine upon them. Deliver me, Lord is repeated as far as V. I tremble.

- C. Lord, have mercy.
- R. Christ, have mercy.
- C. Lord, have mercy.
- C. Our Father.

It is said silently by all. Meanwhile the priest walks round the coffin and sprinkles it with holy water. Then he takes the thurible and incenses the coffin in the same manner.

Oratio Oremus.

eus, cui proprium est misereri semper et parcere, te supplices exoramus pro anima famuli tui N. (famulae tuae N.). quam hodie de hoc saeculo migrare jussisti: ut non tradas eam in manus inimici, neque obliviscaris in finem, sed jubeas eam a sanctis Angelis suscipi, et ad patriam paradisi perduci; ut. quia in te speravit et credidit, non poenas inferni sustineat, sed gaudia aeterna possideat. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. R. Amen.

Finita Oratione, corpus defertur ad sepulcrum, Clerici cantant antiphonam.

In paradisum deducant te Angeli: in tuo adventu suscipiant te Martyres, et perducant te in civitatem sanctam Jerusalem. Chorus Angelorum te suscipiat, et cum Lazaro quondam paupere aeternam habeas requiem.

Cum autem pervenerit ad sepulcrum, si non sit benedictum, sacerdos illud benedicit, dicens:

Oratio Oremus.

eus, cujus miseratione animae fidelium requiescunt, hunc tumulum bene 🕇 dicere dignare, eique Angelum tuum sanctum deputa custodem: et quorum quarumque corpora hic sepeliuntur, animas eorum ab omnibus absolve vinculis delictorum: ut in te semper cum Sanctis tuis sine fine laetentur. Per Christum Dominum nostrum, R. Amen.

Dicta Oratione, sacerdos aqua benedicta aspergat, deinde incensat corpus defuncti et tumulum.

Quod si sepulcrum jam sit benedictum, omittitur tum benedictio sepulcri, tum aspersio et incensatio corporis ac tumuli.

Then he says:

- C. And lead us not into temptation.
- R. But deliver us from evil.
- C. From the power of hell.
- R. Deliver, Lord, his soul.
- C. May he rest in peace.
- R. Amen.
- C. Lord, hear my prayer.
- R. And let my cry reach you.
- C. The Lord be with you.
- R. And with you also.

Let us pray.

Praver

God, whose nature is ever to grant mercy and pardon, we humbly beg thee for the sake of the soul of thy servant. N. whom today thou didst call from this world: do not hand him (her) over to the power of the enemy nor forget him (her) for ever, but have him (her) welcomed by thy holy angels and led to his (her) home in paradise, so that as he (she) has hoped and believed in thee, he (she) may not suffer the pains of hell, but possess everlasting happiness: through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

After the Prayer the body is taken to the grave. The clergy sing the antiphon.

ay the Angels lead you into paradise: may the Martyrs welcome you on your arrival and bring you into the holy city, Jerusalem. May the choirs of Angels receive you and may you find eternal rest with him who once was Lazarus the beggar.

When the graveside is reached, if it is not already blessed, the priest blesses it saying:

Let us pray.

Prayer God, through whose mercy the souls of the faithful obtain rest, be pleased to \ bless this grave, and appoint thy holy Angel guard over it: and release from all the bonds of sin the souls of those whose bodies are buried here, so that with thy Saints they may rejoice in thee for ever: through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

After the Prayer the priest sprinkles holy water and incenses the body and the grave.

If the grave is already blessed, the blessing, sprinkling and incensing are omitted.

Deinde sacerdos prosequitur Officium.

Antiphona. Ego sum resurrectio et vita: qui credit in me, etiam si mortuus fuerit, vivet: et omnis qui vivit et credit in me, non morietur in aeternum.

Canticum Zachariae

Luc. 1, 68-79

enedictus Dominus, Deus Israel, quia visitavit et redemit populum suum, Et erexit cornu salutis nobis in domo David servi sui, Sicut locutus est per os sanctorum, qui olim fuerunt, prophetarum suorum:

Ut liberaret nos ab inimicis nostris, et e manu omnium, qui oderunt nos,

Ut faceret misericordiam cum patribus nostris et recordaretur foederis sui sancti:

Jurisjurandi, quod juravit Abrahae, patri nostro, daturum se nobis, Ut sine timore, e manu inimicorum nostrorum liberati, serviamus illi,

In sanctitate et justitia coram ipso omnibus diebus nostris.

Et tu, puer, propheta Altissimi vocaberis: praeibis enim ante faciem Domini ad parandas vias ejus, Ad dandam populo ejus scientiam salutis in remissione peccatorum eorum.

Per viscera misericordiae Dei nostri, qua visitabit nos Oriens ex alto,

Ut illuminet eos, qui in tenebris et in umbra mortis sedent, ut dirigat pedes nostros in viam pacis.

Requiem aeternam dona ei, Domine.

Et lux perpetua luceat ei.

Et repetitur antiphona: Ego sum resurrectio et vita: qui credit in me, etiam si mortuus fuerit, vivet: et omnis qui vivit et credit in me, non morietur in aeternum.

Kyrie, eleison. Christe, eleison. Kyrie, eleison.

- C. Pater noster secrete. Interim corpus aspergit.
- C. Et ne nos inducas in tentationem.
- R. Sed libera nos a malo.
- C. A porta inferi.
- R. Erue, Domine, animam ejus.
- C. Requiescat in pace.
- R. Amen.
- C. Domine, exaudi orationem meam.
- R. Et clamor meus ad te veniat.
- C. Dominus vobiscum.
- R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

ABSOLUTION OVER THE COFFIN

Then the priest continues the Office.

Antiphon. I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live; and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die.

Canticle of Zachary

Luke 1, 68-79

lessed be the Lord God of Israel, because he has visited his people and brought them deliverance;
As he promised through the lips of his ancient prophets.

He has raised for us a beacon of salvation in the house of his servant David,

Saving us from our enemies, and from the power of all who hate us, showing his fidelity to our fathers, his mindfulness of the holy covenant,

The oath that he swore to our Father Abraham,

Delivering us from the power of our enemies, and granting us to serve him without fear,

Living all our days holily and justly in his sight.

And you, my child, will be renowned as a prophet of the Most High; you will go ahead of the Lord to prepare his way,

To bring the people knowledge of salvation in the forgiveness of their sins,

Through the merciful kindness of our God, with which he has watched over us, a radiance from on high,

Shining on those who dwell in darkness and death's shadow, and guiding our feet into the way of peace.

Eternal rest give unto him, O Lord.

And let perpetual light shine upon him.

The antiphon is repeated: I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live; and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die.

Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

- C. Our Father secretly. Meanwhile he sprinkles the body.
- C. And lead us not into temptation.
- But deliver us from evil.
- C. From the power of hell,
- Deliver, Lord, his soul.
- C. May he rest in peace.
- R. Amen.
- C. Lord, hear my prayer.
- And let my cry reach you.
- C. The Lord be with you.
- R. And with you also.

Oremus. Oratio

ac, quaesumus, Domine, hanc cum servo tuo defuncto (ancilla tua defuncta) misericordiam, ut factorum suorum in poenis non recipiat vicem, qui (quae) tuam in votis tenuit voluntatem: ut, sicut hic eum (eam) vera fides junxit fidelium turmis; ita illic eum (eam) tua miseratio societ angelicis choris. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. R. Amen.

Deinde sacerdos, faciens Crucem manu dextera super feretrum, dicit:

C. Requiem aeternam dona ei, Domine.

R. Et lux perpetua luceat ei.

C. Requiescat in pace.

R. Amen.

Sacerdos dicit recto tono:

Anima ejus et animae omnium fidelium defunctorum per misericordiam Dei requiescant in pace. R. Amen.

Deinde cum a sepulcro in ecclesiam vel ab ecclesia in sacristam, revertuntur, sacerdos incohat sine cantu antiphonam: Si iniquitates.

Psalmus 129

e profundis clamo ad te, Domine, Domine, audi vocem meam!
Fiant aures tuae intentae ad vocem obsecrationis meae.
Si delictorum memoriam servaveris, Domine, Domine, quis sustinebit?

Sed penes te est peccatorum venia, ut cum reverentia serviatur tibi. Spero in Dominum, sperat anima mea in verbum eius:

Expectat anima mea Dominum, magis quam custodes auroram. Magis quam custodes auroram, expectet Israel Dominum, Quia penes Dominum misericordia et copiosa penes eum redemptio:

Et ipse redemit Israel ex omnibus iniquitatibus ejus.

Requiem aeternam dona eis, Domine.

Et lux perpetua luceat eis.

Et ab omnibus repetitur tota antiphona:

Si iniquitates observaveris Domine: Domine, quis sustinebit?

Deinde dicit sequentes preces:

Kyrie, eleison. Christe, eleison. Kyrie, eleison.

Let us pray.

Prayer

how, Lord, this mercy to thy servant departed, that he (she) may not receive the requital of his (her) deeds, for in his (her) heart he (she) has kept thy law. And as here the true faith has united him (her) to the body of the faithful, may your mercy bring him (her) to the company of the choirs of angels in heaven: through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

Then the priest, making the sign of the Cross with his hand over the coffin, says:

C. Eternal rest give unto him, O Lord.

R. And let perpetual light shine upon him.

C. May he rest in peace.

R. Amen.

The priest says:

May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace. R. Amen.

Then when they come back from the grave to the church, or from the church to the sacristy, the priest begins to recite the antiphon: If thou shouldst mark.

Psalm 129

ut of the depths I call upon thee, Lord: Lord, listen to my voice.

Let thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplication. If thou shouldst mark iniquities, Lord, Lord, who could stand?

For with thee is pardon for sins, that thou mayst be given reverent service.

I hope in the Lord, let my soul hope in his word.

Let my soul wait for the Lord more than the watchmen wait for the dawn.

More than the watchman for the dawn let Israel wait for the Lord; For with the Lord is mercy, and plentiful redemption.

He it is who shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

Eternal rest give unto them, O Lord.

And let perpetual light shine upon them.

And all repeat the antiphon:

If thou shouldst mark iniquities, Lord, Lord, who could stand?

Then he says the following prayers:

Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.
