FIRST READING Ex 19: 2-6a

IN those days, the Israelites came to the desert of Sinai and pitched camp. While Israel was encamped here in front of the mountain, Moses went up the mountain of God. Then the Lord called to him and said, “Thus shall you say to the house of Jacob; tell the Israelites: You have seen for yourselves how I treated the Egyptians and how I bore you up on eagle wings and brought you here to myself.

 Therefore, if you hearken to my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my special possession, dearer to me than all other people, though all the earth is mine. You shall be to me a kingdom of priests, a holy nation.”

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps 100 (99): 1-2, 3, 5

We are his peo - ple: the sheep of his flock.

Ÿ. Sing joyfully to the LORD, all you lands; | serve the LORD with gladness; | come before him with joyful song.

Ÿ. Know that the LORD is God; | he made us, his we are; | his people, the flock he tends.

Ÿ. The LORD is good: | his kindness endures forever, | and his faithfulness, to all generations.

OR: GRADUAL Ps 84 (83): 10, 9 tuos. Ÿ. Dómine, Deus virtútum, servants. O Lord God of hosts, exáudi preces servórum tuórum. hear the prayers of your servants.

SECOND READING Rom 5: 6-11

BROTHERS and sisters: Christ, while we were still helpless, yet died at the appointed time for the ungodly. Indeed, only with difficulty does one die for a just person, though perhaps for a good person one might even find courage to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us.
 How much more then, since we are now justified by his blood, will we be saved through him from the wrath. Indeed, if, while we were
