

127

Bread and Roses

1. The time has come for ro-ses; they're bloom-ing bright to - day.
2. When wom-en rise as e-quals, their gift en-rich - es men.
3. So, wom-en will re-mem-ber the saints from whom they learn,
4. Lord, grant us faith and free-dom, the gold - en light of grace,

And while we walk in day-light, the sun will show the way.
 Let friend-ship grow and flour-ish; let love be born a - gain.
 The prom-ise of the bless-ing up-on the bread they earn.
 The ris - ing of God's wom-en, to take their right-ful place.

God, grant us joy and jus-tice from our birth un-til life clo-ses.

With men and wom-en e-qual, give us bread and give us ro - ses.

Music: Mimi Fariña (Hispanic).
 Text: Mary Ann O'Brien.

128

Bread of Glory

Verses 1-2

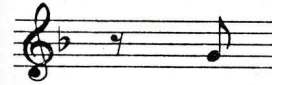

1. Bread of Glo - ry, life - giv - ing bread!
2. Long pre - fig - ured, ev - er fore - told:

Faint and fail - ing, we all are fed.
 I - saac's off - 'ring, so brave and bold,

We are
 Des - ert

Soon
 Se -

Verses 3-4

3. Sav - ing
4. Lord and

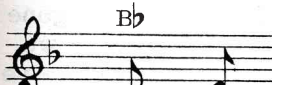

Night is
 When we

Soon we
 Mer - cy n

Hear a
 Now a -

as you with your

Music: LAUDES CRUCIS ATT
 Text: Lauda Sion/Ecce p.
 This hymn is appropri
 Corpus Christi, it may b verse, is sung first; the Gospel Acclamation. (O)