

First Sunday of Lent

A THOUGHT FOR SUNDAY

Monsignor Murphy will be remembered in our history for how he welcomed the FSSP into Los Angeles.

He invited me to say Mass and give a talk here when I first came to scout out Los Angeles in 2014.

In Advent of 2015 he welcomed us to have a Sunday Mass. At the end of Advent that invitation was extended to every Sunday. Soon after he welcomed me to come live in the Old Convent and have a daily Mass at St. Victor's.

He almost apologized when he showed me the Old Convent: "Are you sure this is good enough for you?"

He was the one who encouraged us to have a second FSSP priest and was so overjoyed when Fr. Masutti arrived.

Ever since then, for anything we would need or that I would request, the answer was always: "That's fine!"

Only a couple weeks ago he called me to the rectory to ask me: "What more can I do for you? Do you need more Masses, more anything?"

On Ash Wednesday we lost a great supporter for the FSSP apostolate in Los Angeles. Or should I say, we didn't lose a supporter, but rather Monsignor will be changing how he is supporting us, by now praying for us before the Throne of God.

Let us also pray for Monsignor, that he may rest in peace. He supported us so much and was such a great friend. May we also be friends now and support him during his passing through Judgement, hopefully not Purgatory - but if so supported by our prayers - and into the Eternal Reward.

He helped us get into Los Angeles. Let's help him get into Heaven!

*May God grant him Rest,
Fr Fryar*
