

Thirteenth Sunday After Pentecost

A THOUGHT FOR SUNDAY

I don't think any of us have ever seen ten lepers together at the same time in our lives. But I wonder if that is how Our Divine Master sees all of us?

He certainly sees through the shell of our flesh to our souls, as they are in various stages of the putrefaction of sin. Some seeking to be cleansed, others in denial, still others who are proud of their putrefaction.

If we had the capacity of seeing souls as He sees them, surely we would see more than ten "lepers" as we walk the streets.

But we do see our own souls, and we should observe and ask: is my own soul rotting with sin? Am I doing anything about it?

As easily as Our Savior bids: "go see the priest" is as easy as He now tells us: "go see the priest" and your sins will be forgiven.

Then there's the last part: after forgiveness, how many return to a life of grace and improve their ways? Or how many do not return and have no gratitude nor care? These take mercy for granted and sadly will soon defile their souls again.

*God bless you,
Fr Fryar*

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Fr Fryar will be away on pilgrimage from the 9th of September. Fr Masutti will be away from September 19th - 29th. While Fr Fryar was supposed to return on the 19th, he has been called to FSSP headquarters in Pennsylvania for an important meeting of the FSSP Advisory Council and will be away until the 21st in the afternoon.

Fr Chan Lee will offer the 7pm evening Mass on Tuesday 19th. Unfortunately we will have to cancel the 6:45 AM Masses on Wednesday 20th and Thursday 21st. We are sorry about this.

Catechism will be resuming in October. (Due to the priests' travel in September it makes the most sense to wait until then.) Like before the summer it will be two groups, ages 6 - 10 and ages 11 up.

If you or one of your children would like to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation next year, please contact Fr Fryar as soon as possible. The age to receive Confirmation will be 14 yrs or older.
