

Fourteenth Sunday After Pentecost

A THOUGHT FOR SUNDAY

It has been ten years since His Holiness Pope Benedict issued the decree Summorum Pontificum, liberating the Church to the freedom of worshipping God according to the traditional form of Holy Mass.

Since then the Mass, which previously was celebrated in a few locations and with great difficulty, has been offered in more and more locations throughout the world.

There are still many places in the world where it is just not possible to access the Extraordinary Form of the Mass, and even in Los Angeles we await the day to have our own parish dedicated to the Extraordinary Form as you can find in many other cities that could commonly be considered “inferior” to this one.

Let us, then, give thanks to God on the one hand, and pray on the other, that the Holy Mass may spread throughout the world and be available to every soul.

*God bless you,
Fr Fryar*

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Fr Fryar is away this week and will return on the 21st. Fr Masutti will be away from September 19th - 29th.

Fr Chan Lee will offer the 7pm evening Mass on Tuesday 19th.

Unfortunately we will NOT have the 6:45 AM Masses on Wednesday 20th and Thursday 21st. We are sorry about this. Again, there will NOT BE a 6:45 AM Mass on those two days.

Catechism will be resuming in October. (Due to the priests' travel in September it makes the most sense to wait until then.) Like before the summer it will be two groups, ages 6 - 10 and ages 11 up. More info to follow.

If you or one of your children would like to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation next year, please contact Fr Fryar as soon as possible. The age to receive Confirmation will be 14 yrs or older.
