

This is a photograph of a draft copy of the third edition of the Saint Edmund Campion Missal. { 15 January 2022 }

The final product (printed by Sophia Press Institute) will be a much thinner book, using special paper obtained from Finland.

Do not make the mistake of confusing this draft copy (shown below) with the final product that will be produced.

The book also contains eighty (80) full color pages, upon which are printed the Ordo Missae.

The Ordo Missae for Low Mass is given on the B/W pages—without any pictures or explanations—using an additional English translation.
