

Credo “Et Incarnatus Est” Canonic Extension • Fits with Plainsong Credo 7 using Missa Beata Mater (Father Guerrero) which was published at Paris in 1566

Like his teacher [Morales], Father Guerrero published two books of Masses: the first at Paris in 1566 containing nine Masses; the second at Rome in 1582 containing eight.

Seville: Actas Capitulares against “troped” & “poly-textual” Mass settings:

1575 January 7: the chapter decrees that henceforth the Roman rite, as reformed by the Council of Trent, is to be used exclusively. At a stroke this decree renders obsolete such a troped mass as Guerrero’s De beata Virgine (Liber primus missarum [1566], folios 79^v-95) or polytextual mass as his Beata Mater ([1566] folios 119^v-133).
