The Saint Jean de Brébeuf Hymnal
— Sophia Institute Press, 2018 —

“"There is no finer collection of truly faithful Roman Catholic texts set to elegant melodies both traditional and new. Its choir and accompaniment books are eminently practical for small parish music programs yet worthy of Cathedrals.""
— Director of Music (Holy Cross Cathedral, Boston) 21 July 2022

When it comes to Catholic hymnody, “it has no parallel and not even any close competitor.”

“The Saint Jean de Brébeuf Hymnal will undoubtedly enrich liturgical life at the parish level by making accessible these ancient, noble, and theologically-rich Catholic hymns, translated into English in quite a beautiful way.”
— Superior General (Emeritus) Priestly Fraternity of Saint Peter • 30 November 2018

“...hands down, the best Catholic hymnal ever published. [...] Its copious selection of hundreds of tunes and texts, including favorites, forgotten gems, and new commissions, all beautifully formatted and presented in a surprisingly compact hardcover volume, is not only unparalleled by any other current hymnal, but well exceeds that of any hymnal I have seen from any period. [...] It is such a fantastic hymnal that it deserves to be in the pews of every Catholic church.”
— New Liturgical Movement (NLM) “What a Catholic Hymn Should Be” (10 June 2019)

“I wish all churches would have the Saint Jean de Brébeuf Hymnal. Its hymns are so rich in Catholic Theology, and the melodies are so exquisitely beautiful... Even the words of hymns—carefully translated from Latin—capture the essence and flow of the original Latin with touching poetic beauty. There are so many hymns in this hymnal that have helped me to grow in my faith and in my understanding and awe of the Mass, of the Sacraments, and our Holy Catholic Church.”

“The editors of the Brébeuf Hymnal have done a great service to the profession [in this] extensively researched volume worthy of careful study by liturgical musicians. [...] This detailed exploration of classic Latin hymnody and its English translations is not only a labor of love, but an original contribution to research, and I hope that the results of this research project are shared more widely for the use of musicologists and liturgical historians.”
Based on a work by Johann Sebastian Bach; arranged by Monsignor René Moissset (c. 1870), who was officially named by Pope Pius X on 4/25/1904 as one of the consultants for the Vatican Commission on Gregorian Chant.

A major part of singing is learning how to begin softly and then swell on long notes, putting stress on dissonances, then getting softer for consonant notes. The main responsibility for phrasing and agogics falls on the shoulders of the competent choirmaster. That being said, the notes marked with the "U" shape must be sung softly. Moreover, notes marked by an * must begin softly (though the voice may subsequently swell).
The Saint John Brébeuf Hymnal “has no parallel and not even any close competitor.”
