Interpretation.
In three instances, we added white space before the Tristapha. We believe was intended by the editors of the official edition, although we freely admit some editors (seemingly) disagree: e.g. Msgr. Nekes (1910); Max Springer (1912); Father Mathias (1909); Schwann in modern notation (1909).

THIS NEW COLLECTION, with its marvelous CHORAL SUPPLEMENT and 3-volume (spiral bound) ORGAN ACCOMPANIMENT, has been described as “the peerless and indispensable resource for any parish musician serious about authentic Catholic music.” • https://ccwatershed.org/hymn/
