

Medieval illumination depicting the distribution of ashes on Ash Wednesday:

A seminar for choir directors worth investigating:

A portrait of Beth Luther, a woman with long blonde hair, smiling. She is wearing a black turtleneck sweater.

Mr. Ostrowski's seminar holds a wealth of information for sacred music musicians and choirmasters. The information he presents is in depth, easy to understand, and can be applicable for musicians and directors of all levels. Mr. Ostrowski is passionate and clear, making this presentation not only a delight to listen to, but leaving the listeners ready and excited to apply his suggestions at their very next choir rehearsal with their own choirs. Highly recommended!
