

Pope Saint Paul VI (3 April 1969): “Although the text of the Roman Gradual—at least that which concerns the singing—has not been changed, the Entrance antiphons and Communion antiphons have been revised for Masses without singing.”

THIS SPLENDID hymnal contains hundreds of hymns set to simple-yet-gorgeous melodies. Most of the translations are by Roman Catholic priests & bishops. We're unaware of any other book that includes such rich history; indeed, the Saint Jean de Brébeuf Hymnal includes English texts (!) stretching all the way back to 1599AD. — <https://ccwatershed.org/hymn>

TIMOTHY SMITH¹ wrote to us in December of 2023: “This Christmas time, I had the chance to sit down and play through the hymns in the Brébeuf Hymnal. I’m by no means a concert organist, but most of the Catholic hymnals I’ve played through have arrangements that are clunky and non-intuitive. But having sat down and played through the hymns in the Brébeuf Hymnal, I can happily say that it has the best arrangement of hymns since the New Saint Basil Hymnal. They are both beautiful and accessible. You have gathered the best from Catholic hymnals throughout the world, and it has done wonders promoting congregational singing in our church since we have adopted it. Thank you for all the hard work and dedication that went into making the hymnal, as well as making it so easy to use—for both the singer and the pew-sitter. Merry Christmas!”

¹ We redacted his real last name, but Timothy directs music at a Catholic Church and teaches in the diocesan school system.
