

God Unseen (a) • “If a man boasts of loving God while hating his own brother, he is a liar. He has seen his brother and has no love for him; what love can he have for the God he has never seen?” (I John 4:20)

God Unseen (b) • “Happy is he whom Thou visitest; Thou, companion of the Father; Thou, the light that consoles heaven, but Who cannot be seen by man on earth.” —Lux Alma, Jesu, Mentium (12th-century hymn) #746 in The Saint Jean de Brébeuf Hymnal (3rd verse)

ITS EDITORS LEFT NO STONE unturned in their quest for the best versions of these ancient Catholic hymns, combing through centuries of English translations from the sixteenth century to the present day. In the process, they have revealed much little-known material, and some that is published in a hymnal for the first time. [They] navigate this difficult terrain with assurance; indeed, the editors’ explanation of the Urbanite reform and its impact on English translators is a model of clarity, and contains information this reviewer has not encountered elsewhere.
