SUGGESTED MASS SETTINGS AND PROHIBITED HYMNS

Bishop W. Shawn McKnight has approved Mass settings and published a list of prohibited hymns and composers.

The approved Mass settings are included for the purpose of communion throughout the diocese, especially for diocesan liturgies. The intent is not that they are the only settings allowed to be used, but that all should know at least these settings.

In addition, a small number of hymns have been determined by the USCCB Committee on Doctrine to be insufficient in sound doctrine or prohibited based on credible accusations of abuse against the composer. The use of these hymns is prohibited.

Questions regarding this list may be directed to the Chair of the Diocesan Liturgical Commission, Fr. Daniel J. Merz, SLD.

MASS SETTINGS

TITLE	COMPOSER	PUBLISHER	NOTES
Chant Mass			English or Latin
Mass of Frances Cabrini	Keil	OCP	There is a grandness to this setting, but it is also singable and simple without being banal; it is musically and pastorally accessible, and could be done with cantor and accompaniment; the Gloria has a minor tonality; the Holy has a chord per beat in many measures so might be hard for guitar but the passing chords could be eliminated
Revised Mass of Creation	Haugen	GIA	Familiar, easy and still widely used
Misa del Pueblo Inmigrante	Hurd	OCP	For use in Spanish-language and bilingual liturgies
