

Good Friday Prayer for the Jews • From a 1965 Missale Romanum:

Good Friday

Re - deem - er of all, Je - sus Christ our Lord,

Let us pray. Let us kneel. Let us stand.

Let us also pray that our God and Lord will look kindly on the Jews, so that they too may acknowledge the Redeemer of all, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Orémus et pro Iudæis: ut Deus et Dóminus noster fáciem suam super eos illumináre dignétur; ut et ipsi agnóscant ómnium Redemptórem, Iesum Christum Dóminum nostrum.

Let us pray. Let us kneel.
Let us stand.

Orémus. Flectámus génua.
Leváte.

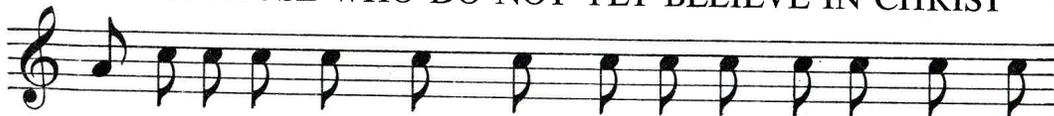

Almighty and eternal God, you made the promises to Abraham and his descendants. In your goodness hear the prayers of your Church so that the people whom from of old you made your own may come to the fullness of redemption. Through Jesus Christ.

Omnípotens sempitérne Deus, qui promissiónes tuas Abrahæ et sémini eius contulísti: Ecclésiæ tuæ preces cleménte exáudi; ut pópulus acquisitionis antiquæ ad Redemptiónis mereámur plenitúdinem pervenire. Per Dóminum.

All R. Amen.

Omnes R. Amen.

9. FOR THOSE WHO DO NOT YET BELIEVE IN CHRIST

Let us al-so pray that those who do not yet be-lieve in

Christ may be filled with the light of the Ho-ly Spir-it
