

6 JANUARY 2024 • In Epiphania Domini

I WISH to thank—sincerely from my heart—all those who have assisted in the production of my “SECRETS OF THE CONSCIENTIOUS CHOIRMASTER” seminar. Unfortunately, there are too many to mention each by name! The list would include: all those who have sung in my choirs over the years; the participants (and faculty) of the annual Sacred Music Symposium; priests who went “above and beyond the call of duty” in their kindness toward me ... the list is lengthy. I’m so grateful to all.

In a special way, I would like to publicly thank my long-suffering wife: Cynthia. I also thank Matthew Frederes for his invaluable technical advice. I thank Dr. Charles Weaver and his wife, Elizabeth, for recording the “Mille Regretz” chanson for this seminar. Finally, I thank Andrea Leal and Stephanie Charba for their sincere encouragement ... ‘prodding me’ to record these lectures for posterity.
