

The modifications Terry L. Haws made to the harmonies (including triple parallel octaves) are hideously grisly and reprehensible :

137 Adapted & arr. by T.L.H. Communion J. Klug's Geistliche Lieder, 1543
Harm. by J.S. Bach, 1685-1750, alt.

1. We come be - fore your al - tar Lord;
2. O Lord of All, be ev - er near;
3. You are the liv - ing Bread of Life;
4. May this most sa - cred food we eat

Re - new our souls with strength di - vine;
With - in your sac - ra - ment im - part
Great Re - deem - er and Lord of light,
Draw us to - geth - er, one in Thee,

Be - stow your bless - ing from on high
Your ten - der mer - cy, peace and love;
Send down from heav - en ho - ly grace
So we shall live in Chris - tian love,

With last - ing bread and ho - ly wine.
Let joy o'er - flow to ev - 'ry heart.
And make us wor - thy in your sight.
In truth and per - fect har - mo - ny.

Copyright 1975, by Terry L. Haws 156

THIS NEW COLLECTION, with its marvelous CHORAL SUPPLEMENT and 3-volume (spiral bound) ORGAN ACCOMPANIMENT, has been described as “the peerless and indispensable resource for any parish musician serious about authentic Catholic music.” • <https://ccwatershed.org/hymn/>