

“Victimae Paschali Laudes” • English translation by a priest of the Fraternity of Saint Peter (FSSP); unauthorized changes made (by Jeff Ostrowski) in italics.

RAISES to the Paschal Victim Christians yield in ob-lation. Lamb that the sheep has ransomed,

Christ, no sin who committed, re-u-nited sinners to the Father. Death and life fought each other in a clash to bewilder: reigns living, ear-lier dead, life's Ruler. What, tell us, O Mary, hast thou seen on thy journey? I saw the tomb of the liv-ing, the glory of Christ anew upris-ing. The Angels attesting, the windingsheet and clothing. My hope is Christ anew ris-en, in quest of Gal-i-lee ere his chosen. Christ we know to have ris'n up anew from death tru-ly. To us, O conqu'ring King, show thy mercy. A-men. Al-le-lu-ja!
