

Regarding the location of Sacred Music Symposium 2022:

PERSONAL TESTIMONY FROM JEFF OSTROWSKI

My wife and I have lived in Los Angeles for about nine years. We've been everywhere: Malibu, Glendale, Santa Monica, Pasadena, Anaheim, Beverly Hills, and so on. But our favorite place—without question—is the exact spot where this year's symposium is going to be held. (We did not plan this; God planned this.) It's right next to Newport Beach, Crystal Cove, Irvine, and Laguna Beach. The neighborhoods, the streets, the scenery, the restaurants ... all of it is truly sumptuously magnificent. This year will be a very special symposium!
