492 Who Are These, Like Stars Appearing

Tune: ALL SAINTS (87 87 77)

1. Who are these like stars ap - pear - ing, These be - fore God's
2. Who are these of daz - zling bright-ness, These in_ God's own
3. These are they who have con - tend - ed For their Sav - ior's throne who stand? Each a gold - en crown is wear - ing;

truth ar - rayed, Clad in robes of pur - est white - ness,
hon - or long, Wres-ting on till life was end - ed,

Who are_ all this glo - rious band? Al - le - lu - ia!_
Robes whose lus - tre ne'er shall fade, Ne'er be touched by_ Fol - l'wing not the sin - ful throng; These who well the_ Hark, they_ sing, Prais - ing loud_ their heav'n - ly King.

time's rude_ hand? Whence come all_ this glo - rious band?
fight sus - tained, Tri - umph through the Lamb have gained.

4. These are they whose hearts were riven, / Sore with woe and anguish tried,
Who in pray'r full oft have striven / With the God they glorified;
Now, their painful conflict o'er, / God has bid them weep no more.
5. These, like priests, have watched and waited, / Off'ring up to Christ their will;
Soul and body consecrated, / Day and night to serve Him still:
Now in God's most holy place / Blest they stand before His face.

For All Thy Saints, O Lord 493

Tune: FESTAL SONG (SM)

1. For all Thy saints, O Lord, Who strove in
2. For all Thy saints, O Lord, Who strove in
3. They all in life and death, With Thee,_ their

4. For this Thy name we bless
And humbly pray that we May follow them in holiness
And live and die in Thee.
5. All might, all praise, be thine,
Father, co-equal Son,
and Spirit, bond of love divine,
while endless ages run.

NOTES

N.B. Whereas the Pope Francis Hymn Book uses a medium quality binding (allowing for extremely low pricing) the Jogues Missal uses the highest quality binding imaginable.

Those seeking a pew book elevating and celebrating the beauty of the Vatican II Mass should consider:

St. Isaac Jogues Illuminated Missal, Lectionary, & Gradual

THE PAPACY of Francis has been marked by a certain amount of simplicity, and therein lies the inspiration for this book of hymns. Its contents could not be more straightforward:

- (1) More than two hundred traditional hymns
- (2) The complete Kyrieale and six settings of the Credo

Since these hymns were excerpted from the Vatican II Hymnal, that book's numbering system has been kept. However, more than forty additional hymns have been added, and many of these came from the St. Edmund Campion Hymnal.

No system of hymn classification could meet with everyone's approval because hymns are often appropriate for more than one season. For example, "AT THE LAMB'S HIGH FEAST" could be used outside of Eastertide. Similarly, "LO! HE COMES WITH CLOUDS DESCENDING" could be used outside of Advent. Our catalogue system provides suggestions only, designed for inexperienced choirmasters lacking extensive knowledge of hymnody.

Finally, it must be remembered that the hymn tunes chosen are mere possibilities. For example, the organist could play the more familiar version of "AT THE CROSS HER STATION KEEPING" and the congregation would have no problem following along.

Many hymnals provide an excessive amount of hymns for Advent and Christmas (which are very brief seasons), but give only a meager amount for Ordinary Time (which is a very long season).

Furthermore, they frequently ignore feasts like the Baptism of the Lord. The user can judge how successful we were in providing a remedy for this situation.

The “simplicity” of this book extends even to the organ accompaniments, which normally provide only one harmonization—whereas the Campion Hymnal, for example, gave numerous key transpositions and alternate versions.

Hymnal editors must often make hard choices. For example, “WE THREE KINGS” is wildly popular in the United States, but (in our judgment) has little to offer from the point of view of melody, poetry, or theological depth. Moreover, in the Ordinary Form, the Epiphany is an extremely short season, and the hymns we provide are superb: splendid melodies, strong theology, and inspired poetry. Therefore, our omission of “WE THREE KINGS” was a conscious decision, not an error, which we hope will be respected, though others might have chosen a different path.

Our publication would not have been possible without 250 Hymns in the Public Domain (ICEL, 1981).

A different book—the St. Isaac Jogues Hymnal—is currently in production and will contain more than 1,000 hymns. Whereas the Pope Francis Hymn Book is “simple” and straightforward, this new production has a different purpose and scope. It is being created by a coalition of “regular” priests and musicians freely sharing their knowledge via the internet. To join these efforts, please visit: CCWATERSHED.ORG/JOQUES
