At that time, Jesus spoke this parable to the multitudes: The kingdom of heaven is likened to a man that sowed good seed in his field. But while men were asleep, his enemy came, and oversowed cockle among the wheat, and went his way. And when the blade was sprung up, and had brought forth fruit, then appeared also the cockle. And the servants of the good man of the house coming, said to him, Sir, didst thou not sow good seed in thy field? whence then hath it cockle? And he said to them, An enemy hath done this. And the servants said to him, Wilt thou that we go and gather it up? And he said, No: lest perhaps gathering up the cockle you root up the wheat also together with it. Suffer both to grow until the harvest; and in the time of the harvest, I will say to the reapers, Gather up first the cockle, and bind it into bundles to burn, but the wheat gather ye into my barn.

Hæc ómnia locútus est Jesus in parábolis ad turbas: et sine parábolis non loquebátur eis: ut implerétur quod dictum erat per Prophétam dicéntem: Apériam in parábolis os meum, eru-ctábo abscondita a constitutióne mundi.

¶ Continuation of the Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew.

At that time, Jesus spoke this parable to the Multitudes: The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field: which is the least indeed of all seeds; but when it is grown up, it is greater than all herbs, and becometh a tree; so that the birds of the air come, and dwell in the branches thereof. Another parable He spoke to them: The kingdom of heaven is like to leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, until the whole was leavened. All these things Jesus spoke in parables to the multitudes, and without parables He did not speak to them; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables, I will utter things hidden from the foundation of the world.

May this oblation, O God, cleanse, renew, govern, and protect us, we beseech Thee. Through our Lord.

POSTCOMMUNION.

Caeléstibus, Dómine, pasti-deliciis: quæsumus; ut sem-per éadem, per quæ veráciter vívimus, appetámus. Per Dómi-num.

Being fed with celestial de-lights, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that we may ever hunger after those things by which we truly live. Through our Lord.

Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary

I Classis – December 8th

INTROIT. Is 61: 10

Gaudens gaudébo in Dómino, et exsultábit áнима mea in Deo meo: quia índuit me vestimentis salútis: et induméto justítiae circúmdedit me, quasi sponsam ornátam monílibus suis. (Ps 29: 2) Exaltábo te, Dómine, quóniam suscepísti me: nec delectásti inimícos meos super me. ¶ Glória Patri.

COLLECT.

Deus, qui per immaculátam Vírginis Conceptiónem dignum Fílio tuo habitáculum præparásti: quæsumus; ut, qui ex morte ejúsdem Fílli tui prævisa eam ab omni labe præservásti, nos quoque mundos ejus intercessióne ad te perveníre concédas. Per eúmdem Dóminum.

I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, and my soul shall be joyful in my God: for He hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, and with the robe of justice. He hath covered me, as a bride adorned with her jewels. (Ps 29: 2) I will extol Thee, O Lord, for Thou hast upheld me: and hast not made my enemies to rejoice over me. ¶ Glory.

O God, Who, by the Immaculate Conception of the Virgin, didst prepare a worthy dwelling for Thy Son, we beseech Thee that Thou, Who, by the death, foreseen by Thee, of the same Thy Son, didst preserve her from all stain, wilt grant us also, by her intercession, to come to Thee pure in heart. Through the same.
