

1

O Lord, my God, you are great in - deed! you are clothed with maj - es - ty and glo - ry, robed in light as with a cloak. You have spread out the heav - ens like a tent - cloth;

You have con - struct - ed your pal - ace up - on the wa - ters.
You make the clouds your char - iot; you trav - el on the wings of the wind.
You make the winds your mes - sen - gers, and flam - ing fire your min - is - ters.

How man - i - fold are your works, O Lord! In wis - dom you have wrought them all - the earth is full of your crea - tures; the sea al - so, great and wide, in which are schools with - out num - ber of liv - ing things both small and great.

They look to you to give them food in due time. When you give it to them, they gath - er it; when you o - pen your hand, they are filled with good things.

If you take a - way their breath, they per - ish and re - turn to the dust.
When you send forth your spir - it, they are cre - at - ed, and you re - new the face of the earth.
