The image shows a Gregorian chant score for the antiphon 'Domini regni'. It consists of seven staves of music. The first staff begins with a large initial 'D' and a 'V' above it. The lyrics are written below the notes. The music is in a single melodic line with square neumes on a four-line staff. There are several bar lines and a double bar line with repeat dots. The final note of the last staff is a half note 'e'.

Translation

He shall rule from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth. All the kings of the earth shall adore him; all nations shall serve him.
