Fifteenth Sunday After Pentecost

A THOUGHT FOR SUNDAY

The story of the widow of Naim is one that shows Our Lord's immense love. Nobody asked Him to do anything about the funeral procession leaving the city, nobody asked for a miracle. Of his own initiative and out of love He returned the son to the mother.

If we only knew just how much Our Divine Savior does for each and every one of us without us asking or even knowing, we would be humbled that we never even recognize it.

But I suppose that part of our eternity will be expressing gratitude to Our Lord for all He does that we do not even realize.

*God bless you.
Fr Fryar*

The recessional hymn today was written by St. Robert Southwell. He was a Jesuit priest who was martyred in 1595. His life is quite inspiring. If you would like to read more about it, take a look at this website:
