Second Sunday After Pentecost

A THOUGHT FOR SUNDAY

This weekend we are very excited to be having our first Sacred Music Symposium for FSSP of LA! Choir directors and choir members from around the country have come together to learn more about Sacred Music.

Choir, as also serving, is an ongoing effort. Constant rehearsal, constant practice, constantly pushing the limits of exactitude. Because there never is a moment when we can reach five stars.
There never is a moment when we can say we have achieved perfection in the Liturgy.

But the more effort we give, and the closer we can get, the more dignified our Sacred Liturgy will become, and the more worthy of God, our Creator.

There is a certain joy that fills the soul when we have given our best effort to make the Holy Mass as perfect as we can. While we are yet human and full of flaws, we have given God our very best.

*God bless you.
