First Sunday of Lent

A THOUGHT FOR SUNDAY

We like to think of ourselves as a St Michael or a St George who can take on the dragon and come out victorious, conquering temptation as the devil goes away in shame.

That rarely happens, because temptation is not like a sword fight, where the longer you endure, the more you win. In fact, the longer you endure, the more you lose.

Saints tell us that the best way to fight
temptation is to run.

In reality we are not running, although it might seem like it. Actually we are telling the devil to run. "Get out of here corrupt fool, take your temptation and get far from me, begone!"

Do not flirt or indulge in temptation musing that you are fighting it. If you are sticking around the temptation, you are not fighting it, you are enjoying it.
Get rid of it.

God bless you.

Fr Fryar

ANNOUNCEMENTS

First Communion Class today, Confirmation class next weekend. If you're ever not sure, it's on the calendar on The Table.

A special treat next week! Mr Scott Blackwood, a member of our choir, teaches music in a couple Catholic schools. Next week we his students will be coming to sing for the 7 PM Mass at St. Victor's! This will be a wonderful occasion and please make their families welcome!

Sunset Plaza has kindly offered for us to use the parking lot for next week, when the children's choir and their families will be joining us. If you would like to park in the parking lot, enter across the street from the church.

Fr Fryar will be giving a talk for The University Series, this Thursday at St. Paschal Baylon (in the hall) in Thousand Oaks. Tickets can be obtained at the door ($8 and a guest for free). It will begin at 7:30 PM. The topic will be: "Experiencing Christ's Passion More Profoundly in Every Mass".

Like last year, we will celebrate the Triduum of Holy Week at St. John Chrysostom. More information to follow.

MATCHING PLEDGE!

The donor of the matching pledge has kindly given us an extension to attempt to raise the funds. We now have until May 1st, the Feast of St. Joseph. We still need to raise $19,695. Less than a third to go!

Please help us match the pledge of $65,000!

The funds raised will go toward the Building Fund. This fund is set aside toward the purchase of a church which will be our home. Once we have that church more FSSP priests will come and we can begin the full operations of an FSSP parish for the Archdiocese!

Please consider the FSSP of LA parish project when you get your tax return! Sure you have many good things to spend the extra cash on, but God will bless you for helping us get a church!

In advance, thank you your generosity!
