For a thou-sand years in Your sight are as yes - ter - day, now that it is past, or as a watch of the night. —

You make an end of them in their sleep. — the next morn-ing they are like the chang ing grass. — which at dawn springs up a - new, — but in eve - ning wilts — and fades. —

3

Teach us to num - ber our days a - right, — that we may gain wis - dom of heart. —

Re - turn, O Lord, how long? — Have pi - ty on — Your ser - vants.

4

Fill us at day - break with Your kind - ness, that we may shout for joy and glad - ness all our days. — And may the grac - ious care of the Lord our God be ours. —

Pros - per the work of our hands for us, pros - per the work of our hands. —
